SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure juice of the Italian of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians, possessing medical properties superior to any other Wine in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its peculiar flavor and aromatic properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

PREPARED BY SPEER TO

a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

Gen. W. Scott, U. S. A. Dr. Ward, Newark.
Dr. Morgan, N. Y. State Dr. Wilson, 11th St., N. Y.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can safely employ a person who is competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.
Boston, Dec. 2, 1862. 3tawly

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month, forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Say one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference; the articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents, to volume 10 all who have not been subscribers to the work.

SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1863.

THE FIRST DISTRICT.—The Independent Democrat of March 19th, says, "the result can be decided definitely only by the official count. The returns which we have received render it probable, however, that Daniel Marcy (Democrat) is chosen by a majority of some 50 votes over JOEL EASTMAN.—There are charges of fraudulent and illegal voting in sundry places, which, if sustained, may even destroy that narrow margin of majority, and give Mr. Eastman the seat."

The Granite State News, printed at Wolfboro', March 18, says:—"The Democratic claim to have elected Mr. Marcy by fifty to seventy-five votes, and the Republican papers seem disposed to concede Mr. Marcy's election. But for ourselves, judging from what we hear and what we know, we are strongly inclined to the opinion that Mr. Eastman is the only man who can legally take a seat in the next Congress from this district."

The Dover Enquirer of the 19th says:—"We think it will not be known with certainty whether Eastman or Marcy is elected until the votes are officially counted." After summing up its returns, it says, "there is an apparent majority of four votes for Daniel Marcy. Mr. Eastman, however, runs a few votes ahead of the contained vote of Gilmore and Harriman in the three or four towns in Carroll from which we have returns, and if the other towns show a similar result, it is very probable that he is elected by a small majority."

THE REBELLION.

Dispatches from the Vicksburg fleet, dated the 11th, say that the Lake Providence Canal has been completed, and that the water would be let on in about a week.—The rebel gunboat Webb was lying close to the shore at Vicksburg. She was supposed to be in a sinking condition.

The Yazoo Pass expedition consists of the Chillicothe, De Kalb, and 5 small gunboats and 18 transports.

The report last week that a large rebel force was advancing on Fort Donelson, was false.

There has been a large movement of transports and gunboats up the Yazoo Pass.

The Federal raid in North Alabama thus far has been brilliant and successful, as rebel accounts say. They occupied Tuscumbia, dispersing the rebel cavalry, who fled to the mountains. They destroyed two ferry boats and other property, and levied assessments on wealthy rebels. They have gone further into the interior.

The Philadelphia Enquirer, which is apt to be a little premature in announcing achievements, has a special dispatch from Washington that rebel prisoners report that six or eight of our gunboats passed Fort Sumter on Monday and Tuesday, and that Charleston was being bombarded.

The rebels, in their attack on Newbern, under command of Gen. Pettigrew, were repulsed after a fight of 3 hours, having lost heavily in killed and wounded. Our loss was 1 killed and 2 wounded.

It is thought probable that the attack on St. Helena in the rear, reported by the rebels, was by Gen. Banks' forces. St. Helena is about 25 miles from Port Hudson, and the recent reverses in the Southwest, over which the Richmond Whig of the 14th mourns, may have been in that vicinity.

☞ The Kentucky Union Democratic Convention has nominated Joshua F. Bell for Governor, and Richard T. Jacob for Lieut. Governor. Resolutions affirming the principles embodied in the joint resolutions on Federal Affairs passed by the Assembly, agreeing to devote their whole resources to crushing the rebellion, opposing foreign mediation, denouncing the acts of the Southern Confederacy in Kentucky, and requesting the Federal and State Governments to take timely and energetic steps to defend Kentucky against invasion, were unanimously adopted.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Washington correspondent states: It was understood at the Treasury Department that a deputation from foreign bankers had waited upon the Secretary and offered a large loan of specie at the current rate of exchange.

☞ It is stated that the President and Cabinet have decided not to grant letters of marque, but will commission vessels fitted out by private parties to capture the rebel pirates.

☞ The Mexican minister, and others well informed with respect to the military situation in his country, utterly discredit the statement in the Richmond papers that the City of Mexico had been captured by the French.

☞ It is proposed in the Canadian Parliament to set apart not less than 500,000 acres of the public lands for settlement by the operatives thrown out of employment in the mother country.

☞ A severe snow storm prevailed at Fortress Monroe on Friday.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TONY.

Revolutionary Clergy in 1774 and 1775.—In an old volume of the New England Chronicle, published at Cambridge, Mass., in 1775, is the following local item, dated December 7.

"Last Lord's-Day was delivered, at the Rev. Dr. Appleton's Church in this town, in the audience of His Excellency General WASHINGTON, Commander-in-Chief of the forces of the United Colonies, &c., &c., and several other General Officers, by the Rev. Abiel Leonard, a very animating, learned discourse to the soldiery, upon the necessity and importance of their engaging and continuing in the service of America, and of displaying true valor and courage in the defence of her rights and liberties, from the principles of love to God and their country, from the inspired address of Joab to the host of Israel, in 2 Sam. x. 12:—Be of good courage; and let us play themselves for our people, and for the cities of our God; and the Lord do that which seemeth him good."

This was a war sermon, in the presence of Gen. Washington. In the First Massachusetts Provincial Congress, on Monday, December 5, 1774, it was Ordered, That Doct. Winthrop, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Pickering, Mr. Bridge, and Mr. Cheever, be a committee to prepare an address to the clergy of this province, desiring them to exhort their people to carry into execution the resolves of the Continental Congress.

On the next day, the 6th, the Committee reported the subjoined address, which was read and accepted, and it was ordered that copies thereof be sent to all the ministers of the gospel in the province, viz.:

Reverend Sirs:—When we contemplate the friendship and assistance our ancestors, the first settlers of this province, (while overwhelmed with distress) received from the pious pastors of the churches of Christ, who, to enjoy the rights of conscience, fled with them into this land, then a savage wilderness, we find ourselves filled with the most grateful sensations. And we cannot but acknowledge the goodness of heaven in constantly supplying us with preachers of the gospel, whose concern has been the temporal and spiritual happiness of this people.

In a day like this, when all the friends of civil and religious liberty are exerting themselves to deliver this country from its present calamities, we cannot but place great hopes in an order of men who have ever distinguished themselves in their country's cause; and do therefore recommend to the ministers of the gospel in the several towns and other places in this colony, that they assist us in avoiding that dreadful slavery with which we are now threatened, by advising the people of their several congregations, as they wish their prosperity, to abide by, and strictly adhere to, the resolutions of the Continental Congress, as the most peaceable and probable method of preventing confusion and bloodshed, and of restoring that harmony between Great Britain and these colonies, on which we wish might be established, not only the rights and liberties of America, but the opulence and lasting happiness of the whole British empire.

Resolved, That the foregoing address be presented to all the ministers of the gospel in the province.

GOLD PLENTY.—At one of our State Almshouses, on Friday last, a miserable looking Irish woman arrived from Boston with a permit to enter the Institution.—When she was taken to the bath-room the attendant found upon her over $100 in sovereigns! The shiners were dazzling to look at in these days of paper money. The Superintendent states that such things are not uncommon—that he once found on a pauper sent to his house the sum of $1750 in good money.—Boston Journal.

An Irishman having considerable property, was arrested in Portsmouth last year, because he would not pay his taxes,—but shelled out some of his ready cash, when he found he must pay or go to jail. And others who undoubtedly have concealed means, allow themselves and their families to be supported by the town in winter, in all cities.

LARGE SEIZURE OF SMUGGLED LIQUORS.—A large amount of liquor, which had been smuggled from Canada, was seized by the revenue officers at Northampton, Mass., on the cars of the Connecticut River Railroad. It consisted of seventeen half-pipes and 114 cases of brandy, eleven cases of gin, and six baskets of champagne. The liquors were placed upon a freight car seemingly loaded with shingles.

☞ Several merchants in Cincinnati, desiring to visit Europe on business, applied some days since at the State Department for passports, and were informed that "orders have been issued that no more passports are to be issued to persons liable to military duty under the law passed at the late session of Congress."

☞ The Postmaster at Port Royal, Mr. J. H. Sears, is under arrest for an alleged defalcation of accounts amounting to about fifteen thousand dollars. Mr. Sears says he is not a defaulter, but that his accounts are complicated with those of Capt. Fuller, former Quartermaster, and when those are adjusted his own will be found correct.

☞ A refugee from Georgia, who escaped about the beginning of the year, declares that there are thousands in that section of the country who are praying for the success of the Union arms.

☞ It is said that from five to twenty five thousand dollars are now no unusual sums to pay for a single costume for a Paris ball.

NATIONAL SALVATION.

We have just read a very interesting article, written by Hon. Theophilus Parsons of Massachusetts, which is contained in a pamphlet of 36 pages, just issued from the press. It is a calm, well-considered and thoughtful essay on the times we live in, and the condition of the country. It is not partisan in the least degree; and while many readers may dissent from some of its conclusions, no one can read it candidly, without some profit; very few can read it without receiving some instruction.

We offer a few extracts:

"Shall we preserve our nationality? I can only say, there seem to me reasons why we should, and influences leading to that result, of such irresistible weight and force that I do not believe they can fail. Against them all comes the disrupting force of slavery. And while I write them there are jealousies, intrigues, outcries, threatening to separate the West from the East; they are strongly reinforced by something which calls itself, and may believe itself a defence of the Constitution; and the whole is used energetically by the demagoguism, which would sacrifice everything that came between it and its prey. But I do not greatly fear such things. The power of evil can do much, but there are barriers it cannot pass. I believe that if the Mississippi were open to-day, and the Eastern Atlantic closed against the West, they would fight as desperately to reopen it as they are fighting now to reopen the Mississippi. They need both; no matter which they need most; they need both absolutely."

"But shall we preserve our present Constitution as it is? In my judgment, that Constitution has not been violated, in any way or to any extent, greater or less. But there are those who think otherwise."

"I can discern no limits to a nation's right of self salvation. A man may save his own life by any effort or any means, not prohibited by the laws of God even in that extremity. I am sure that this right, and this duty, belong equally to a nation.

"Success then I hope for. Success in retaining our nationality. Success in preserving the life of our Constitution. And I also hope for success against slavery, because this is involved in the preservation of our nationality and our Constitution.

"Would that I were able to impress my convictions on this last point, upon the community. A mistake in relation to it seems to me to be doing great mischief.

"The divisions of opinion which weaken our efforts may be reduced into two classes. I will designate them, for my own convenience, as the anti-slavery party, and the opposition party; although each of the parties of whom I would speak includes those whom these words would not accurately describe. I think the mistake they make is one, although it assumes two very different aspects.

"The anti-slavery party believes it will advance its purposes by a direct attack on slavery; they say, let us kill slavery and rebellion will die. If they believed as I do, that our nationality and our Constitution were the very best possible instruments through which slavery might be assailed and extirpated, in the best time and in the best way whatever they may be, they might adopt a different course.

"The opposition would treat slavery tenderly, in hopes to allure or entice the slave States back. They do not realize that our national life has been, from its beginning, working against slavery."

"I think our government makes a mistake allied to this. The President knows that there is a divided sentiment in the country, and that we can only succeed by bringing the whole strength of the loyal States to bear on the rebellion. And he labors, honestly and earnestly, to reconcile, or at least combine, the two great parties which he recognizes. His mistake is, not to recognize, and not to throw himself upon, a much stronger party.

"Each of these parties desires and demands that the rebellion shall be put down, in its own way. The great mass of the people desire and demand only that the REBELLION BE PUT DOWN. A year ago this great party comprehended almost everybody. Now, the anti-slavery party have persuaded many that the rebellion can be put down only by direct assault upon slavery. The opposition have persuaded many that it can be put down only by treating slavery tenderly. But I believe the great mass of the people stands where it stood. If Abraham Lincoln, in whose absolute honesty of purpose every one has confidence, and to whose capacity doubts have arisen only from his seeming vacillation, would adopt and declare his own policy, his own method of putting down the rebellion, on no other ground and with no other thought and no other motive whatever, than he vertily believed it to be the best way to SUPPRESS THE REBELLION, he would find himself at once at the head of this great party, the people. Then, they would be glad to see him carry out this policy vigorously and unrelentingly, destroy what he might, or save what he might. They would not be led away from him by the outcries of the leaders of any parties, or of all parties. If he removed from office, civil or military, every man whom he has a right to dismiss, and who would not act energetically and cordially in carrying out his policy; and if he would throw the whole force of the government into it, without hindrance, stop, or stay, the people would go with him."

☞ Counterfeit five hundred dollar bills on the Central Bank of Worcester, Mass., were passed in New York, Boston, Cambridge and Portland, on Thursday. At Thompson Bros., New York, the man offering them was arrested.

☞ The report of the capture of the City of Mexico by the French was published in the Galveston papers of the 2d inst., and came from the French Consul at Matamoras.

☞ The army correspondent of the Springfield Republican, says, in pleasantry, that Gen. Hooker drinks like a fish, for he drinks only cold water!

☞ A State Convention of adopted citizens was held at Providence on Monday. No nominations were made. Strong language against the war and the administration was indulged in by the speakers. it was a "peace at any price" movement.

It is well known that a number of the New York banks have been engaged in making loans on deposits of gold, and then reckoning the specie thus received as part of their own stock. The Boston Banks have received such gold into their vaults only at the risk of the owners. It has never appeared in the reports of their specie on hand, and they have refused to give receipts for such deposits.—Traveller.

☞ A rough lesson has been taught certain draft-shirkers in Jersey City. In the Chemical Works, a few aliens refused to become naturalized, lest they might be called on to fight; their loyal fellow-workmen who are naturalized, have kicked them out, and they get no more work there until they take out their papers.

MRS. MATT. WARD. The wife of the late notorious Matt. Ward, traveling under the assumed name of Mrs. Robinson, was arrested at Island No. 10, on board a steamer, a few days ago, for trying to smuggle uniforms for rebel officers through to Dixie. She was released from arrest after a slight admonition that a future similar transgression would be severely punished. Mrs. Ward was well known in this city as Miss Belle Key, for a long time the reigning belle in Louisville society.—New Albany Ledger.

☞ The shameful statement is made that house holders in Detroit fear to rent their houses to those who have been burned out and mobbed, and the negroes therefore wander houseless in the streets.

The sales of Five-Twenties by the Government agents in New York, Philadelphia and Boston yesterday were over a half a million of dollars. The receipts from internal revenue are upon a liberal scale, and altogether the Treasury is worked with more facility than was anticipated by many, who expected enormous issues of currency or a sale of bonds at a sacrifice.—N. Y. Express.

☞ The Georgetown, Mass., correspondent of the Newburyport Herald says that Rev. Chas. Beecher, Pastor of the Congregational Society, had been tried for heresy before the Essex North Association and acquitted.

☞ It used to be supposed that "after election, we could tell you who was elected;" but at the present time it is not so easy to do it.

☞ At the Middleboro', Mass., town meeting last Monday, three colored citizens were elected to the offices of Field Drivers and Fence Viewers.

☞ In the town of Berger, in Prussia, is an elegant church, capable of holding one thousand persons, constructed—statues and all—of papier mache.

☞ Gold has gone up to 400 per cent. in Richmond, and transactions have been reported there as high as 600 per cent.

☞ The wages of the operatives in the Salisbury Mills are to be increased 10 per cent. on and after April 1st.

☞ The Boston Banks, on Thursday, voted, 34 to 1, not to consider the subject of keeping open until three o'clock.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by Local.

☞ We are glad to hear that the Portsmouth Cornet Band, Chas. H. Tompson, leader, are to give a Concert at the Temple, on Fast Night, April 16th. Our musical public will be glad to patronize them—and it there was a suitable hall here, the Band might give frequent promenade entertainments, to the mutual advantage of themselves and the public.

☞ We are informed that measures are immediately to be taken, to rebuild the Ocean House at Rye Beach. The illness of Mr. Job Jenness,—from which he his now recovering,—has prevented the details of the plan being presented to the public ere this time. We learn that influential capitalists and business men in Portsmouth, Manchester, Concord, Boston, and elsewhere, are all ready to take hold of the enterprise. Messrs. Jenness & Son will publish the proposed details in a day or two.

☞ The Manchester Mirror learns that Capt. G. A. Gerrish of the 1st N. H. Battery, has resigned in consequence of the condition of the wound in his leg, received at the battle of Fredericksburg, which is not well enough to admit of his taking the field again at present.

☞ Sergt. Daniel J. Vaughan, of this city, who has been absent on furlough from his regiment, (the 57th New York,) on account of a severe wound in his face received at the battle of Antietam, started on Friday morning to rejoin his regiment before Fredericksburg. His wound is yet quite troublesome; a portion of his upper jaw was shot away, and it has not yet entirely healed.

☞ A semi-annual dividend of six per cent. will be paid April 1st to stockholders in the Portsmouth Steam Factory March 23d. Portsmouth stockholders will be paid at the Rockingham House.

☞ The opera of Lucia di Lammermoor, with the celebrated last act of which we are to be favored on Monday evening next, was given at the Boston Academy of Music on Thursday evening with much eclat: the musical critic of the Post says, "Cordier more than ever impressed the public with her fine talents. None but an unmistakable artist could have displayed powers such as she did at the close of the third act; the applause excited was merited. Ernani made his first appearance and achieved a success; his voice is sweet and well-trained, though not powerful." It really seems that a company composed of artists of such a high order of talent as Mr. Grau's, could not fail to attract a large audience of those who can appreciate the best of music most skillfully rendered.

City Loan, $25,000.

PROPOSALS will be received at the City Treasurer's office of the CITY of PORTSMOUTH until Monday, March 30, 1863, for the whole or any part of said Loan, not less than $500 to be issued in City Bonds, payable April 1, 1883, with Coupons attached for the interest at 5 per cent., payable semi-annually, said Loan being authorized by City Ordinance No. 82, passed March, 17, 1863.

ROBERT LEFAVOUR, City Treasurer,
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., March 20, 1863.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The New Hampshire Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold its thirty-fourth annual session in Haverhill, commencing April 8th, to continue one week. This conference is composed of about 125 members, who are designated Traveling Preachers, and embraces within its boundary the State of New Hampshire and the towns in Massachusetts lying north of the Merrimac river. The number of members connected with this conference is 12,554, added to which there are 100 Local Preachers.

—— The Claremont Eagle states that Henry Hubbard, of Charlestown, on the occasion of a supper speech since the election, took high patriotic ground in favor of a united North against the rebellion; ignoring party until its suppression is accomplished; sustaining the government and giving no aid to its enemies.

——Enoch F. Conner, of Lancaster, has a steer raised on his farm, 3 years old last week, weighing 2300 pounds. So says the Republican; and it also mentions a hen's egg weighing four ounces and measuring 6 1-2 inches one way and 8 the other.

☞ An extraordinary case of superstition has just been revealed in New York. A poor, ignorant Irish woman, before coming to this country, had been taught the common superstition of her country; that whenever "fairies" frequented a house, it was presumptive evidence that some child in the family had been changed for another while in its cradle; and that the true way to test the matter was to heat a shovel red hot, and then make the child sit upon it.—If it were a fairy child, or one not belonging to the mother, it would fly away, but if it remained it was her own child. By some means she recently became convinced that her child was not her own, and she resolved to make the test. Accordingly, as she herself testified before the coroner's jury, she heated a shovel until it was red-hot, and then she sat the child upon it.—The result was, the child was burned so badly that it died in about a week afterward. Mathias Nell, the husband of the deluded mother, testified that he did not know about the child having been burned till just previous to its death; that for some time past he had occasionally thought his wife was insane, she acted so strangely.—The coroner thought it best to take the mother into custody until the question of her insanity can be judicially determined. She stated that she was 38 years of age, and was born in Ireland.

☞ Gen. Wool has issued an order to the commanding officer of the forts in the harbor of New London, that hereafter no citizen, unless truly loyal, and known to be such, will be permitted to enter the forts, public grounds and barracks, and have intercourse with the soldiers, and such intercourse to be always in presence of an officer. Should any person be found tampering with the soldiers, and having citizens' clothing to sell to them, he will be arrested.

☞ The Boston Common Council have already taken the initiatory steps towards the celebration of the Fourth of July, the expense not to exceed $14,000.

☞ The amount of the invoices on goods imported into the United States from Leeds, England, for the quarter ending Dec. 31st, 1862, was $2,670,034.

☞ The Boston Journal states that the Massachusetts State tax for the current year will not be less than $2,600,000. The tax last year was $1,797,516.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who sees Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a single plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st. It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to fulling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required from wringing by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does the work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "Domestic Institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with one whom they have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most distressing cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment all the horrors of venereal are imparted, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammations of the bladder and kidneys, Hydrocele, Gleet, Stricture, Inguinal Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, rendering the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Pains in the Head, Dizziness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil foreboding, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and restore themselves to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under the Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr Dow has also for sale the French Preventive Lozenges, the best preventive. Order by mail. Three $1 and a red stamp p.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all those painful complaints and weaknesses of the Uterus, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus or Leucorrhœa, and other menstrual derangements, incidental to the peculiar delicate nature of the female system. He does not hesitate to say that he is generally certain in the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, as of the added benefit of perfect secrecy and comfort to the patient.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other regular physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under this treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, he has received no superior in the United States.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases, and those which have long baffled the unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stand higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

N. B.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.,

The subscribers, having received their Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual, the oven plates are covered with planter, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and set iron boiler combined, by which the odor of boiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any articles can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing that little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases resulting from the fire, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which gives them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of heat unregarded, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the quality of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. Food from two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building on the upper vulcanized rubber to fit any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad tastes arise in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all weds it is better, and in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber base offers several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and gums, it is free from all suction or other joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction fit of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubbs, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY, MCH 23 1863. NO. 42.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall!"

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

REBELLIONS.

The last advices from Europe show that the insurrection, or rebellion, which has broken out in Poland, has assumed considerable magnitude and importance. Had such an occurrence happened only three years ago, it would have made no little impression upon the people of this country, and called forth strong and general expressions of sympathy. We should have had, very likely, public meetings, at which a good deal of schoolboy declamation would have been ventilated. Orators would have talked of Sarmatia and John Sobieski and Kosciusko, and quoted largely from the "Pleasures of Hope." The Czar of Russia would have been denounced in good set terms.—Poetry would be written, or at least that which good natured persons are content to call poetry. Perhaps a flag would have been presented by somebody to somebody.

But now a change has come over the spirit of our people. Cotton has not gone up so high on our price current, as rebellion has gone down. Rebellion stock may be had at a discout of at least ninety per cent. upon its former prices. The market is glutted with the article. New importations are received with as much disgust as a cargo of codfish in a catholic port at the close of a rigorous Lent. We have had new light upon the subject, and plenty of it too. It was a pretty sight to see our neighbor's house in a blaze; it made a very nice picture against the midnight sky; but now that our own homestead has caught fire, we don't see it in a picturesque light at all.

Three years ago every man who undertook to overthrow an established government became at once, and from that sole fact entitled to our sympathy and admiration; but now, if a play were played at the Boston Theatre by a company composed of rebel exiles—every one with ten consonants in his name—we fear there would not be enough in the house to pay the expenses.

For the last two years we have been to school to a very stern teacher called experience, and he has taught us some very useful lessons. Among other things, he has taught us that a good government is a very great blessing, and that a tolerable government is better than no government at all; and furthermore, he has taught us that to govern a great country fairly and well, requires the exercise of no common powers of mind, as well as of no ordinary virtues. From him we have learned that every man who undertakes to batter down an existing political fabric, though in some respects inconvenient and incommodious, is not necessarily wise, and good, and patriotic; and that the statesmen who resist the headlong assaults of radicalism, are not always foolish or wicked.—Boston Courier.

☞ Samuel Haines, the slave trader, late captain of the Nightingale, who was tried as a slaver last winter, and cleared in the United States Circuit Court, New York, left a few weeks since for Nassau and New Providence, where he intended to ship as a pilot, and guide Anglo-rebel vessels to Confederate ports. His passage was paid from New York by Nassau rebel agents.

☞ A New Orleans letter states that Gov. Shepley, Lieut. Bolles, of his Staff, and one or two others had a narrow escape from capture by the rebels recently, while on a visit to Brashear City, having incautiously ventured beyond the Federal lines.

☞ One thousand horses were purchased in St. Louis, a few days since, at from $78 to $98.50 per head. There are now in the Government corrals, near St. Louis, 8000 head of unserviceable horses and mules undergoing care and recuperation.

☞ It is said that an agent of the Government has been sent to Prussia to obtain the secret of manufacturing a new kind of gunpowder lately discovered by a German chemist, and reported to be in several respects superior to the powder now in use.

Have you used the Strela Matches?

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of

STRELA MATCHES.

These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which usurps them for the sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being nearly as cheap as any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 150 matches, are sold at the low price of fifteen cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1800 matches for 25 cents—being "72 for a cent!"

Dealers supplied at the manufacturer's price.

MONDAY, MARCH 23, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Hilton Head advices to the 16th report that the latest intelligence from the Black Brigade, which is now marching into Florida, is that they have taken several important points, with many prisoners, and captured large quantities of ammunition and supplies, and are still driving the enemy before them. The expected arrival at Hilton Head of another army corps, said to be Burnside's, the departure of which is noticed by the Richmond papers, has created fresh hope and additional enthusiasm among the troops.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 18th says: "Conscript officers have been busy for days beneabouts hauling in nice young men."

A Charleston correspondent of the Enquirer says the captured gunboat Isaac P. Smith, now called Stono, has been repaired, and is now in good fighting trim. She will be the flagship of Commodore Ingraham.

The N. Y. Herald's special from Murfreesboro' says: Col. Hall's brigade of Gen. Reynolds' division was attacked near Milton, on Friday by a large force of rebel cavalry. Col. Wilder went to his aid with a mounted infantry force. At last reports quite a heavy engagement was going on.

370 released prisoners arrived in Washington on Friday from Richmond. One of them is very intelligent—Mr. Leeds of Cincinnati, and a New Orleans pilot. He mentions the steady and significant removal of machinery for manufacturing ordnance and small arms, from Richmond to Northern Georgia. The removal of ordnance stores in large quantities has also been going on for some time. The possibility of the transfer of the seat of war below Virginia is recognized by the authorities at Richmond. Mr. Leeds declares that there is a general feeling among the soldiers from all the Southern States favorable to ending the war and returning to the Union.

☞ A dispatch from Washington says that Miss Casey has been arrested on her way South. She was the intended bride of Fitz Hugh Lee. She was deprived of her purchases and sent through the lines. It is said the bridal trousseau was part of her loss.

☞ Maj. Gen. Edwin V. Sumner died in Syracuse, N. Y., on Friday night, of congestion of the lungs. He has been sick but a few days. He was a native of Boston, Mass., and entered the army as a private in 1819.

☞ A Cincinnati dispatch states that on the 19th a squad of soldiers, sent to Rush county, Ind., to arrest deserters, captured six; but they were rescued by 100 mounted "Butternuts," armed with rifles. Two companies of infantry, sent from Indianapolis, recaptured the deserters and scattered the traitors.

☞ In London, an influential meeting of Noblemen and members of Parliament have resolved to memorialize the Lord Mayor to call a meeting to express sympathy with the Poles.

☞ The St. Louis Republican, the leading democratic paper west of Cincinnati, takes honorable ground in favor of rendering implicit obedience to the conscription law.

☞ In the New York Assembly recently, the resolutions against arbitrary arrests were defeated, on a motion to refer them to the Committee on Federal Relations, by the casting vote of the Speaker.

☞ An address has been presented to Mr. Adams in London, signed by 18,000 citizens of Birmingham, sympathizing with the anti-slavery policy of President Lincoln.

☞ There is probability of civil war in Japan between the Tycoon and the Daimos. The latter were disbanding their followers.

☞ Commander Preble has been ordered to the command of the sloop-of-war St. Louis.

"PATRIOTISM" depends upon how you spell it, whether you can praise the article or not. Pay-triotism is the way that a majority of men should write the word.

☞ A movement is on foot at Hilton Head among the various regiments to raise a fund for the suffering poor of England.

☞ Enough money is to be placed in the hands of the Paymaster General to pay the army to March 1.

☞ The pirate Retribution is at Nassau, condemned, and her captain is in search of another vessel.

☞ Great exertions are to be made, apparently, to raise a Confederate loan in Paris.

☞ A bill is before the Rebel Senate to confiscate the property of the American Telegraph Company.

☞ The passport system has been abolished in Spain.

☞ The Richmond Examiner of Thursday has an extraordinary leader, the tone of which is evidently intended to prepare the public mind of the South for reverses to the Confederate arms on the line of the Rappahannock. It commences with the following significant language:—

"The active operations of the chief Federal army under Hooker, are now commenced, and either a decisive battle or the retreat of Gen. Lee must be the speedy consequence. The latter contingency is possible, but not probable, and another heavy struggle over the Rappahannock may be safely anticipated."

After speculating on the supposed plan of Gen. Hooker and the strength and probabilities of success of Gen. Lee's forces, the editor remarks—"If, however, the Confederate General's force is not sufficiently numerous to prevent the completion of the manœuvre, it is supposed no course remains but to fall back upon some point nearer Richmond and give the enemy battle at a greater distance from his base."

"AN ANTI-GAMBLING BILL has been introduced into the California legislature. It imposes a fine of $200 to $1000 on owners, employees and conductors of gambling games, for the first offence, and makes the second a felony. Persons betting at any such games will be guilty of misdemeanor and exposed to $500 fine. No notes given for gambling debts will be valid, and losers may sue and recover losses, within three months."

All right, no doubt—but if all the gambling and all the gamblers (or "speculators") are to be outlawed, who then shall escape?

☞ A large amount of pretended virtuous indignation is thrown away. It turns out that the crime which was the pretext of the savage and atrocious mob against the colored population of Detroit, was not committed by a negro, but (says the Chicago Tribune) by a Spanish Indian, a notorious copperhead. The fury of the mob, whose disgrace will so long rest upon the city of Detroit, is deprived even of the wretched and worthless palliation which was given to the world. What a testimony is this to that insane prejudice of race which some men foster, but which is already strongest in those quarters where there is the least general enlightenment.

☞ Late foreign advices state that in the British House of Commons, Mr. Caird asked if the Government were informed of ships being prepared for the Confederates, similar to the Alabama; and Mr. Layard replied that the attention of the Government had been called to more than one vessel of the kind, but no evidence had yet been furnished to enable the Government to interfere. Strict orders had been given for all suspected vessels to be closely watched.

☞ One of the Committee of Arrangements for the Union meeting of last Saturday at the New York Academy of Music called on a prominent broker in Wall street for a small subscription to aid in paying the expenses. The broker asked him how much the meeting would cost. The answer was "Not far from $600, including rent, advertising, &c." "Very well," said the broker, "send me the bill, I'll pay it myself;" and so he did.

☞ There is a lady in New York nearly sixty years of age who has never been out of mourning since she was a child. Her father died before she was born. She was put into mourning when a baby. The loss of friends in her youth, and loss in her family from her babyhood to this hour, has kept, and now the loss of her husband will keep her in mourning to the day of her death.

☞ The editor of the Gardiner Home Journal has been elected one of the Fence Viewers and Field Drivers of that city.—He says: "We are somewhat afraid of horned cattle but are great on the fence. If any of our constituents have got any viewing they want done, they will please bring their fences to this office."

☞ A bill to organize a volunteer navy has been introduced into the rebel Senate.

The rebel Senate has resolved that the President shall issue a proclamation dissuading the further cultivation of cotton and tobacco and enjoining the planting of grain. Governor Brown, of Georgia, threatens to do the same.

☞ The April number of the Atlantic Monthly has good things from Mrs. Stowe and Mrs. Howe and Keats' friend, who buried him in Rome. There is a poem, too, by Theodore Winthrop, something from Gail Hamilton, and a paper by the son of Dr. Wayland, of Providence, besides the serial articles.

☞ Washington letters say that it will be impossible to draft before June, perhaps July. In the meantime Government will prepare beforehand for their equipment. They also state that a loan of $100,000,000 has been tendered to the Government by a distinguished German banking house.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune states that the Government has contracted for the transfer of 800 of the largest size cannon from Pittsburgh to the Atlantic seaboard for the armament of the defences of New York, Boston, and other seaport towns. The guns will come East in a few days.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Statesman is informed that the people in one of the lower towns in Rockingham county never suffer any but town-born men to go to the Legislature. A gentleman, every way worthy the confidence of his townsmen, and who had been, from boyhood, an inhabitant of the place, was accidentally placed upon the ticket at the late election, but soon the fact was discovered that he was was not town-born, and word was conveyed from mouth to mouth, "It won't do to send him to the Legislature; he was born out in South Hampton." A new name was substituted, and the public displeasure appeased.

—— Mr. Jeremiah Smith, 93 years of age, voted at Northfield on the 10th inst. When a young man he voted for Washington to be President of the United States.

—— An ignorant, penniless itinerant, calling himself Augustine Wait, LL. D., of Boston, advertised a lecture in Claremont on Tuesday evening, on "Non-Intervention" and his wonderful travels in Europe. All comers were admitted free, while those who were satisfied were to be charged 15 cents at the conclusion of the lecture. His audience began to skedaddle soon after he commenced.

—— A fire broke out in a large wood and machine shop of the Concord Railroad, at Concord on Thursday night, but was extinguished with slight damage. The building was warmed by steam, and the fire is supposed to have been set.

GENERAL HOOKER'S SADDLE.—Messrs. Main & Whinchester, of San Francisco, are about forwarding to this distinguished and popular General, a Military Saddle, purely of California workmanship, as a present from the firm. Amongst the presents going East to distinguished men, we have seen nothing more creditable to the manufacturers, or the State than this. The saddle has two sets of appointments, one for parade, the other for field-duty. The first is a deep blue saddle-cloth made in Mexican style, strong enough almost to turn a ball, and edged with broad gold embroidery; the eagle and three stars appearing prominently in each corner behind.—The stars indicate the precise status of the General in the army. The pistol-holsters are made from a design of the firm, being that exactly of the revolvers, which fit them quite close. The workmanship on these, would do credit to Paris or London. The bridle is made according to regimental regulation, and though plain, is very elegant. The entire cost is somewhere near $400.—It is gratifying to record this act of unostentatious patriotism of our wealthy fellow-townsmen, seeking to honor one who has fought his way up to renown and respect, through carnage and death. Long may Messrs. M. & W. have the desire and means of acting thus.—California Journal.

☞ A grand dejeuner was given at Manchester, England, on the 4th, in honor of Capt. Lunt, of the ship George Griswold, and a formal address of thanks was presented. Among the toasts drank was one in honor of the New York contributors, proposed by Sir J. Shuttleworth, and responded to by Mr Lord, the American Consul.

☞ The Poles are using wooden guns—quakers—in their struggle for liberty. Solid logs of timber are bored and made into guns, which do execution for half a dozen of shots. The supply of this artillery is practically boundless.

☞ We have a copy of the California Journal of Temperance, a weekly paper published at San Francisco, a good sized sheet, well printed and filled, at $4 per annum.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE

PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,

OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT,

For Physicians' Use,

FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medicinal properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is adapted for its rich, peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

WE REFER TO

a few well known gentlemen and physicians who have tried the Wine.

WENDELL & MOSES

Portsmouth, July 7, 1862. 1y

☞ The Paris correspondent of the London Times quotes a letter from Warsaw, stating that the Russian Government fears to send treasure from St. Petersburg to Warsaw, in consequence of the frequent insurgent attacks on railway trains. The Warsaw Treasury is empty.

☞ It is reported that Gen. Wool has determined that an efficient fortification is needed for the protection of the harbor of New-Haven, and has requested the detail of Engineers for the examination of the ground, and the preparation of the plans.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notices may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Notice to Housekeepers.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Broome at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

Without late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to those who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by ITALIAN OPERA.—The programme for this evening includes the opera of Don Pasquale and the third act of Lucia di Lammermoor, and there is every reason to believe that a most thoroughly excellent performance will be given. The company closed on Saturday their season in Boston of six weeks, during which thirty-four operatic performances and two Sunday concerts have been presented. The musical critic of one of the daily papers says:—On the whole, the campaign may be regarded as having been brilliant. For this result the general credit is due to the efforts of the Director, who is responsible for everything, whose brain is constantly at work, whose personal supervision is constant and all important, and whose labors are not light. Through his instrumentality thousands of our music lovers have been made glad, new admirers of the Heavenly Maid have been added to her already long train; and the series of entertainments, than which nothing can be more refined, has given an impetus to the love and study of the divine art, which nothing else could so thoroughly accomplish.

Messrs. Editors:—Since my arrival home I have heard several reports concerning the "cruelty of Capt. Betton" of the 13th regiment, in the case of a member of his company, recently deceased. Having full knowledge of the facts, I pronounce the statements entirely false. Capt. Betton has been uniformly kind to his command, and particularly so to the young man in question. I am happy to have the opportunity of testifying to the character and military ability of Capt. B., and to refute any and all such slander against a worthy and faithful officer. E. A. TILTON,
Co. K, 13th Regt. N. H. V.

No. 81.

AN ORDINANCE fixing and determining the details and amount of the sums necessary to be raised and appropriated to defray the current expenses and pay debts for the year 1863.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Portsmouth as follows:—

☞ At the Probate Court, before Judge Stickney, on Tuesday, the will of James C. Pickering was offered for probate, and the proof of the will was contested by Ephraim Pickering and R. L. Lane as heirs in interest. Christie for the Executor, Hatch for the contestants.

☞ By the naval appropriation bill there are appropriated for boat house and carpenter's shop, paint shop, Bishop's derrick, repairs of floating dry dock, and for other repairs, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, one hundred and thirty-two thousand three hundred dollars, with two thousand dollars additional for rebuilding the Porter's houses.

☞ A letter received in this city from Concord, by a republican, written Friday evening, claims the election of Joel Eastman, Rep., Representative to Congress, by 100 majority. But the Democrats also confidently claim Marcy's election.

SPRING AND SLEIGHING.—Last Saturday, March 21, is said to be the Vernal Equinox, that is, we suppose, the beginning of Spring. Now, be it known to our distant readers, and to any who may read this next year or in the next century, that,—after a Winter of weather mostly warm and mild, with the ground bare for most of the time,—a snow storm came, and lasted through March 7 and 8; since then the weather has been cold, and we have had a fortnight of good sleighing: it begins to be worn out somewhat in Portsmouth, but on the roads it is excellent and may last some days longer, unless rain should bring a thaw.

On the 21st of March, 1862, there still remained in Market street ice and snow to a depth exceeding by a little more than four feet the depth of that which was there on Saturday last, as was ascertained by actual measurement on each of those days.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla, Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's Panacea, and seven bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines contributed to it. Swett is the undoubted cure for all kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it; and I have no other agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted, with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often troubled so that I could not attend to my business. I tried many remedies, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOW D.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I do it in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, will not her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow worse till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may21 6

To the Hon. Judge of Probate for the County of Rockingham.

Respectfully represents WILLIAM H. HACKETT, Administrator of the estate of EBENEZER RUNNELLS, late of Portsmouth, in said County, deceased; that the Personal Estate of said deceased is not sufficient to pay the just demands against his estate by the sum of Four Hundred dollars, and that said deceased at the time of his death was seized of the right in equity to redeem certain real estate with the buildings thereon, and out buildings thereon, situate in Gates Street in said Portsmouth, bounded northerly by land of Benjamin Russell, easterly by land of Thomas Bailey, southerly by Gates Street, and westerly by Manning Street, being the homestead occupied by said deceased in his lifetime.

Wherefore he prays that he may be licensed to sell at public auction the right in equity of said deceased to redeem said Real Estate of said deceased for the payment of said demands.

The Seventeenth Day of March, A. D. 1863.

WILLIAM H. HACKETT, Administrator.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham ss
Probate Court at Portsmouth, in said County, March 17th, A. D. 1863.

Upon the foregoing Petition It is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at the Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday day next; and that the Petitioner notify the heirs of said deceased and all persons concerned or interested therein to appear at said Court, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the New Hampshire Gazette, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be thirty days prior to said court.

By order of the Judge. S. D. WINGATE,
G Mar.288w. Register of Probate.

New American Cyclopedia.

This most valuable publication will be completed by the issue of the 16th Volume during the present month; forming a complete epitome of human knowledge. Those who have taken the volumes as they have been issued, and have most frequently consulted its pages, have been most completely satisfied with it. Says one: "We who have occasion to refer to it daily, can speak of its literary and mechanical execution with entire satisfaction. THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA is correct, full in its information and conveniently arranged for reference; its articles are concise and complete." On the issue of the 16th Volume the price will be raised 50 cents per volume to all who have not been subscribers to the work.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the secular feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire, so to arrange that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 18 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this story by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Randall, Benj. F. Laney, Benj. F. Laney, Benj M. Parker, Charles A. Wiggin, George W. Plumer, Nathl Dennett, Henry F. Gerrish, John Harrat, Thos Murphy, Capt. Wm. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hurd, James M. Locke, Daniel Hamilton, Josiah Wilson, John E. Roberts, of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st. It will save time, which is money.

2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.

3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.

4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.

5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.

6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.

7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.

8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to fulling the cloth.

9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.

10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.

11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.

12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

☞ Designs have been prepared for the fractional revenue currency authorized by the recent finance laws. The notes are to be about the same size as those of the postal currency, but of a totally different character, and prepared in such a way as to avoid, as far as art can devise, any counterfeiting. This new currency is made receivable for all dues to the United States except Customs.

☞ A Kingston, Jamaica, letter of March, gives a report that Admiral Wilkes had boarded a British vessel laden with arms and ammunition for the French army at Vera Cruz, and having reason to suspect that they were intended for the rebels, had then conveyed on board his ship. The vessel was not detained. The story created much excitement at Kingston.

☞ A peddler at the furnace of Rathbone & Co., in Albany, on Wednesday afternoon, stepped backward into a pan of molten iron, which burned the flesh from his leg almost to the knee, leaving the bones bare.

☞ A letter from an officer on board the blockading fleet off Charleston, to a gentleman in New Bedford, states that the rebel papers say that Commodore Ingraham is to be tried by Court Martial for making an untrue statement in relation to the recent attempt of the rebels to break the blockade.

☞ Wm. H. Kern—formerly a captain in the Union army; more recently the Provost Marshal at Philadelphia, and still more recently discharged from the service of the United States—was arraigned a few days since on the charge of "forgery" and "enticing soldiers to desert from the service of the United States."

☞ There is reported to be some opposition to the arrest of deserters in Noble Co., Ohio, and infantry have been sent to assist in taking them.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

73 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States and in Great Britain and France, for foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into the records of foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove this name is a HOUSE STILL AT THE PATENT OFFICE then the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in form to secure them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability, can be seldom brought to the notice of inventors to induce them to procure their patents, as they may be served having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Strictures, Symptoms of Consumption, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, a sure and the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y 8aw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all those complaints incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. No invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted are soon made happy in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1847, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, asks no vouchers no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chron ic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unfailing skill and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the assistance of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large water Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks, and with less saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about renovating public or private buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—all moisture in the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache and vertigo should also be here, as it is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of fresh air through the drop, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 percent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe of flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of heat not generated, into the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them, to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. It from two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. Teeth upon this base fit better, are in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber base has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, $8. $ White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, using the Electric Shock, to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific. Highly recommended by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich, peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of, U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Reverts, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches into the American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

Thus, besides the extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond a question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leaves me no second thought in advising all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most ample attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The gunboat Chillicothe bombarded Fort Pemberton on Saturday and Sunday, Mar. 14 and 15, but without decisive result.—The guns of the iron-clad DeKalb have been taken on shore and a land battery constructed near the rebel works. Reinforcements are being rapidly sent to our forces.

The rebel Col. Clarke surrounded Mount Sterling, Ky., on Sunday morning; our forces, 200 in number, fought from the houses for four hours, but were finally compelled to surrender. The rebels then burned the town.

The rebels in their attack on Milton, Tenn., were repulsed with great loss, and finally retreated in confusion from the field, leaving their dead and wounded. Among their killed was one Colonel, one Captain and three Lieutenants. Our own loss was 7 killed and 31 wounded. The battle lasted about four hours.

The Port Royal New South of the 14th says Jacksonville was taken by the colored brigade on the 10th inst. The negroes behaved with propriety and no one was harmed. On the 11th, Col. Montgomery with 200 men had a sharp skirmish three miles from Jacksonville with 200 rebels. Baldwin, the junction of the Jacksonville and Tallahassee and the Cedar Keys Railroad is supposed to be the point aimed at by the expedition.

Three vessels, one a guano ship, were burnt by the pirate Florida, Feb. 25th, ten miles from the Barbadoes shore. The Florida subsequently arrived at Barbadoes, coaled and repaired. Capt. Maffit, who has been wounded, but was convalescent, was feted by the Governor and departed.

The Navy Department has received an official dispatch from Com. Farragut's fleet, dated Baton Rouge, Mar. 15, which states that Com. Farragut had safely passed Port Hudson in the night in the Hartford with his fleet. The steamer Mississippi ran aground, and was abandoned and burned. The army was within 5 miles of Port Hudson eager for the fray. No fighting had occurred except a few cavalry skirmishes. Although this differs from rebel accounts, "Perley" says it is fully credited at Washington. A dispatch from Charles S. Bulkley, Asst't Sup't of the Military Telegraph, Gull Department, confirms the foregoing.

Gen. Burnside and his staff are now said to be on their way to Cincinnati.

The Mobile Advertiser thinks that city is to be attacked immediately.

Our forces have debarked and are besieging Fort Pemberton.

It is said that the water was let into the canal at Lake Providence on the 16th.

☞ There were reports by telegraph on Monday evening, that Charleston S. C. has been captured by the Union forces, with the loss of three gunboats. No details.

☞ The Times' Washington dispatch says Gen. Gurley of Arizona, in conversation with Gen. Halleck, was informed that Arizona had been added to the department of the Pacific, under Gen. Wright, and that a regiment was being raised in California which would be sent there soon. The forces in the territory are to be under the command of Gen. West, and will be sufficiently large to protect the territory and suppress Indian hostilities. Gen Halleck has advices from Col. Carlton that he fought two battles with the Apaches, in both of which he was completely successful.

☞ There is a suit pending in a New York Court, brought by Mrs. Howell against the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company to recover a policy of $5000 made by her husband for her benefit. After the premium had been regularly paid for a number of years, he was struck with paralysis on the very day in 1862 when it became due, and died the next day. The wife not knowing of its non-payment until five days after, offered them the money, but was refused—the Company holding that the policy was forfeited.

☞ James Stoddard, an old horse thief of Hampden county notoriety, and a paregoric drinker and stealer, committed suicide in the jail in Northampton, on Monday, by taking a dose of corrosive sublimate. It appears that he was an habitual paregoric drinker, and it is said that he had been in the habit of drinking at times as many as six ounces in a day.

☞ Gold opened in New York Monday morning at 153 5-8, but it declined to 151 1-2. U. S. Sixes sold at 104 1-2, and Seven-Thirties at 107 1-4.

☞ A Washington letter in the London Herald asserts that a secret society has been discovered in this country, the members of which were sworn to kill Mr. Lincoln.

☞ The average monthly receipts of the places of amusement in Paris are $348,000.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

Among other sights to be seen in Boston lately, Tom Thumb and his new bride were not the least attractive. "How silly!" We know it—everybody knows it, and yet everybody wants to see the mighty little couple. Tremont Temple was thronged for a week, and the General's wife must be considered not a small "catch" for him. She is pretty, and looks much smarter than he. You cannot appreciate the littleness of the precious couple till you see an ordinary child of four years stand beside them, and tower at least a head over them! Mrs. Stratton is a little taller than her spouse, and fully as fat and jolly; and both could be well accommodated in one cradle.

Isn't it strange that human senses cannot readily grasp anything out of the regular routine? A giant or a dwarf can only be appreciated by comparison with people of usual size. And in weight and measure generally, how unreliable is the most accurate guessing! But there seem to be some exceptions to this: for instance, we have been told that the father of a storekeeper in our Merchant's Row, of whom we heard a man say, the other day, he has the "best sign on Market street," could weigh cattle so accurately with his eye, that whole droves have been sold by no other test; and that on occasions when the beam was applied afterwards, it was invariably found that the "scales" "in the eye" of the old butcher, were almost as accurate as Fairbanks himself. If there wasn't a beam in those eyes, the usual scales of unreliable vision must have fallen from them.

But how we have strayed from brides to bullocks we hardly know—tho' it may be that in case of a man taking a pretty maiden to wife, we are always somehow minded of a lamb led to the slaughter—so soon do virgin coyness and blushing beauty generally get exchanged for matronly confidence and wifely assurance—often to the great detriment of rose-colored sentimentality. But we see no reason why the little couple shouldn't be happy—for they appear healthy and loving, and have got plenty of money, and can easily, surely get plenty more; and so have nothing else to do, but to be happy. Besides, Tom is clear of the conscription! And if a fellow in his shoes can't be happy, why he must be a poor devil, that's all. Good luck to you Tom, and all the Thumbs.

The dancing by Marietta Ravel, at the Boston Theatre, the other night, in the opera of Robert the Devil, was very fine—an astonishing exhibition of agility, grace, and muscular developement, to those who had never seen the Ravels perform. She was heartily applauded, as she richly deserved.

We also greatly enjoyed the laughable pantominic performances of the whole troupe, of which their capital danseuse is a member—at the new and nice little Tremont Theatre, (formerly Ordway's Hall) one evening. "Jocko, the Brazilian Ape," was the play; and those who have never seen Paul Donetti in this part, cannot conceive how natural and lifelike an ape he makes. There was fun enough, and great gymnastics all through the performances; besides dancing by India rubber men and women, who regard not the laws of gravitation, but can stand on nothing, and jump anywhere, and poise themselves in all sorts of impossible shapes. One fellow sat flat down on the floor, on the insides of his legs, as easily as if he had been hamstrung.—Then another man gave us a solo on a guitar, and brought more out of the instrument than we thought there was in it* too. He could play all over it, and could make a drum, banjo, harp, or what not of it, at pleasure—as a master of almost any instrument can—for instance, Satter and Gottschalk on the piano, Ole Bill with the violin, and others by contortions of the human frame and voice.

The afterpiece was a comic pantomine, in which an old man was constantly occupied in trying to prevent either of two young fellows from courting his daughter, and each of these was also intent on outwitting and driving off the other—and of course one of them got the girl, as is inevitable in all such cases. And no little dexterity and manœuvreing, and laughable ground and lofty tumbling, was exhibited on all hands. Commend us to pantomimes always, however "silly" they may be; for we believe "it is better to laugh than be sighing," whenever you can.

We also had the good fortune to be one of the immense invited audience which crowded and crammed the great Tremont Temple, one evening, on the occasion of Dr. Dio Lewis' third annual Commencement of his School in the New Gymnastics, of which he was the inventor and perfector, and of which he is, in his own handsome person, a splendid exemplar.—The great difference between the new and the old systems—the great superiority of the new over the old, is in the fact that, while the old is heavy and liable to be too often dull and uninteresting, and chiefly looked upon as a useful and beneficial duty or penance,—the new is adapted to both sexes; is light, elegant, attractive and amusing. Here's the secret—the people, young and old, need amusements; and will have them, of one sort or other.—We cannot go into details—but Dr. Lewis' invaluble book on the New Gymnastics, is advertised in these columns; let every parent and teacher get it and read it, and let their children read it too. The exhibition of the graduating class of 21 ladies and gentlemen, who now go out into the world to teach this new physical christianity,—was exceedingly interesting; and we trust that Dr. Lewis, or some of his competent pupils, will soon appear in Portsmouth, to explain his new science of health and strength and beauty, as he has long promised. He must certainly be regarded as a great benefactor to mankind, and especially womankind. We should be glad to give some details of the good he is doing, through his Gymnastic Institute, but have not time or room. But Dr. Lewis is performing a mighty work for humanity, and his name will live when many a bold warrior and learned statesman will be forgot—for he is teaching how to secure the highest types of civilized man, through perfection of the physical, which is the foundation of all.

Yours, P.

—— John Neal, of Portland, a few years ago was the orator at Great Falls for a Fourth of July celebration. The Declaration of Independence had been read. The people had listened without emotion, and he called their attention to the fact, which he said was reprehensible. "Now," said he, "I want three cheers for the glorious old Declaration of Independence!" They were given,—but feebly and faintly. Neal was aroused, and straightening himself up, he exclaimed,—"Fellow citizens:—I called for three cheers for the Declaration of Independence—you attempted it, and somehow the cheers stuck in your throat! So help me Heaven! they sounded as if coming from the throats of a parcel of chickens sick with the pip! Now give three cheers for the Declaration of Independence!" He swung his hat and gave the cue, and this time the cheers were given with a will.

☞ An attempt was made on Wednesday to destroy Columbus, Ohio, by fire.—Flames were discovered breaking out in six or seven different places of the city at the same time. A great deal of property was destroyed, including the government stables, with a number of horses and a lot of grain, a bridge on the Little Miama Railroad, &c., &c. The fires raged until daylight, when they were finally extinguished. No doubt is entertained, from all circumstances, that it was an organized plan on the part of unknown incendiaries to destroy the city. The mayor has issued a proclamation offering a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of each offender.

☞ Gail Hamilton says that the man who gave rubber boots to women did more to elevate woman than all the theorizers, male or female, that ever were born. Yes, and the jockey hats, thick shoes and balmorals ditto. Now when the dear creatures shed their hoops, and cut off their trains, and put shoulder-straps to each garment, they will be tolerably well dressrd.

☞ A blacksmith at Paris was suddenly cured of paralyzed legs, by flying into a passion because a thief had robbed him of some horse shoes. It would not be well, however, to rely too implicitly on this remedy in all cases.

☞ James L. Petigrew, whose death at Charleston is announced, was the only prominent citizen of South Carolina, who remained a thorough Unionist to the last, and yet was allowed to remain quietly at home.

What are the points of difference between the Prince of Wales, an orphan, bald head and a gorilla? The Prince is heir apparent, an orphan has no'er a parent, a bald head has no hair apparent, and a gorilla has a hairy parent.

☞ Thouvette, formerly an unproductive commune in one of the departments of France now appears like an immense orchard, as the parish priest, now nearly eighty years of age, has for thirty years insisted that the parents of every child he baptized should plant some kind of a fruit-tree.

"Simon," said Bob, "what are you doing now-a-days for a living?" "Nothin' particular. I am the owner of a ship." "Owner of a ship! What ship?" "Stewardship at Sam Johnson's cellar."

☞ Instead of remitting at the current rate of exchange, the New York representative of an eminent English business house has been instructed to invest about $75,000 in United States six per cents.

A lazy woman is the most worthless and troublesome piece of furniture a man can have. It she knows nothing about domestic duties she is not a helpmate, but an encumbrance.

☞ Not only paper, but cloth, is made from wood by an establishment near Elizabeth, New Jersey.

☞ Recent developments lead to the belief that an organized band of horse thieves exists in the army. Large numbers of animals are daily disappearing.

☞ At Cairo, on the 15th inst., Rev. Thomas Welsh, Catholic Priest, died very suddenly of apoplexy, during divine service.

A rural poet, in describing his lady-love says she is as graceful as a water-lily, while her breath smells like an armful of clover. His case is certainly approaching a crisis.

☞ With a view of checking the growing crime of infanticide, it is proposed to erect an East London Foundling Hospital.

A fellow, speaking of a drink he once had occasion to indulge in, said he could not tell whether it was brandy or a torch-light procession going down his throat.

☞ At Blairgowrie, Scotland, the wedding day of the Prince of Wales was celebrated with a temperance soiree, a prayer meeting, and a ball!

The dirtier the neighborhood the more prolific it is. If people want small families, let them move into a street where they dont use old hats for windows.

☞ Garibaldi has issued an appeal to Europe, the burden of which is, "Do not abandon Poland!"

"Figgers won't lie, vill they?" muttered a seedy genius, holding on to a lamp post. "Vell, perhaps they won't; but I see a figger as won't stand any how."

☞ It is understood that all the females employed in the Treasury Department will be discharged within a few weeks, their service being no longer required.

Industry and economy will get rich, while sagacity and intrigue are laying their plans.

Found.

A pair of FUR WRISTERS and a LACE VEIL, which were left in Jefferson Hall at the time of the reception of 2 N. H. Regiment, may be obtained by the owners at the City Rooms.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by POLICE COURT, Saturday.—John H. Waldron and George Seawards were brought before the court and tried for an alleged assault with intent to kill. The assault was committed about three o'clock on Friday morning last, on the person of Harvey Hopkins of Newburyport, apparently for the purpose of robbing him. Hopkins was knocked down on Liberty Bridge, and stabbed under the eye and in the leg, receiving severe and ugly wounds. His cries attracted Mr. Peter Smith to the spot, who attempted to rescue Hopkins from the hands of Waldron, who had him down and was using the knife most freely, when he was set upon by Seawards and knocked down with a slung shot. The cries of the two, however, threatened to collect a crowd and the assassins fled. They were arrested on Saturday by officer Johnson, and bound over in the sum of $400 each for their appearance before the S. J. Court, at the April term, in Exeter. They were under the influence of liquor at the time of committing the assault.

☞ Some of the members of the 2d N. H. Regiment, who have been absent on short furloughs, returned on Monday and marched down to Fort Constitution in the afternoon.

☞ A new screw-steamer, the Shawmut, 593 tons, has been commenced on the ways at the Portsmouth Navy Yard from which the Patuxet was launched last week.

PORTSMOUTH, March, 1863.

To the Representatives of this city, in the Legislature of New Hampshire.

Allow me to urge you to see that no bill be allowed to pass the House, making any new law or changing any law that now exists until twenty-four hours after a printed copy of such bills or changes has been placed in the seat of each member, for examination.

This is intended to prevent frauds being practiced by designing men, as has too often been done in legislative bodies. This suggestion comes from experienced

MEMBERS.

Notice to Families of 9 Months' Men.

All claims for the Board of Men in the 10th and 17th Regiments N. H. V., in this city, that have not been presented to the Committee, must be on WEDNESDAY Evening, March 25, 1863, which will be the last sitting of the committee to examine such claims. m24

School Election,

The annual election of School Committee for District No. 2, will take place on SATURDAY, 28th inst., at the Brick School House in State Street, at 3 o'clock P. M.

☞ A private letter from a very intelligent and reliable volunteer from this city, written from camp near Falmouth, Va., March 18, says:—

"Never was an army treated so well as this. The poor in backbone and spirit have been weeded out by a year's campaign, and those now composing Hooker's command are generally stout, hearty, resolute men. We have enough of everything and to spare. Thanks to New Hampshire for stopping the fire in our rear."

A BIT OF ADVICE.—Never make up a "poor mouth," but if you are wise you will always affect independence, though you may indeed be really as poor as Job's turkey.—If you are poor, don't let folks know it, or they will discover in you a thousand blemishes—a host of defects which would never be discovered, or at least never talked about if you kept a stiff upper lip, and carried yourself as if you had ten thousand dollars instead of but ten cents, at your command. It is as natural for the world to hold poor folks in contempt, as it is for rats to steal cheese.

☞ The King of Belgium has accepted the arbitration between Brazil and England.

☞ A bank under Mr Chase's bank act has been organized in Norwich, Conn. The capital stock is $100,000.

☞ The steamer Georgiana, at Nassau, had two heavy guns mounted on her arrival. She was searched by order of the Governor, and a report made that she was an "armed merchantman."

Men talk as if it were a sin to write, unless the writing be of the highest order.—But are all preachers Pauls? All statesmen Washingtons? Shall a woman not dance unless she has the heels of an Ellsler, or sing without the voice of a Lind, or paint without the pencil of an Angelo? Would it even be better so? Is there not many a man whose pulses thrill to the notes of "Yankee Doodle," who would sit calm and impassive under "Casta Diva?"

☞ Havana advices bring the intelligence of the suppression of the rebellion in St. Domingo. Only one skirmish occurred, when the insurgents dispersed. The Spanish forces which defeated them are said to have numbered only 800.

☞ It is affirmed that the President will soon pay a visit to the Northern cities that he may personally satisfy himself of the real state of public opinion.

☞ The police of Roxbury have arrested two pedlers of dry goods for cheating several females in that city by selling them dress patterns under false representations.

All stars have not the same glory; but one star differeth from another star in glory. Homer wrote the Iliad, and Florilla Flowerdale writes a Sonnet on a Dewdrop; and though the soul of the one be the basin of the ocean, and that of the other a gill-dipper, they are both full.

WHY QUAKERS WEAR THEIR HATS.—Quakers invariably wear their hats in places of public worship, or in public assemblies, but few are aware how this custom originated. Fox, the founder of collarless coats and broad brims, was in the habit of attending the Episcopal church; when the preacher uttered sentiments of which he disapproved, he would solemnly put on his broad-brimmed hat, and take it off again whenever more welcome doctrine occurred. If he sat long with his hat on, and the silsounding proposition of fulmination continued, he would rise slowly and silently walk out. Thus it appears that it was for the purpose of habitual protest that the Quakers first learned to sit in places of worship with their hats on.

☞ A correspondent of a contemporary says:—

"It is my duty to impress on you the certain fact that one half of our young people lose their senses when they lose their hearts. One of our party has already written five letters to his lady-love, and he goes about groaning and sighing in a most pitiable manner. He has no appetite, and sleeps up at the top of the house, close to the moon.—He cannot stand by one of the columns of the piazza without putting his arms round its waist, and I caught him kissing an apple to-day because it had red cheeks."

After quoting John Locke, that a blind man took his idea of scarlet from the sound of a trumpet, a witty fellow says that a hoop skirt, hanging out of a shop door, always reminds him of the peel of a belle!

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness and stomach loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but the humor to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health, and can sleep quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named."

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not recommend with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are mellow, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Kalt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring a clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot water, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to ruffling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time required by those hand wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does the work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

Pin Worm Syrup.

Just received by Geo. F. COBB PIN WORM SYRUP—the only safe, sure and effectual remedy ever offered to the public for the removal of Pin Worms. The above valuable medicine for sale at the Medicine Store of B. RITCHINGS.

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is developed by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the red of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for the treatment of some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. These cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of extensive and successful experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that never have failed to cure the diseases them, failed to cure the most aggravated cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Rightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to appear as harmless as the simplest ailments of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, love of solitude, are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

☞ Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving desert, ($2 on of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y Bmw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So intuitively certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person enjoys perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and child-bed than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, echoes with edges no superior in the United States.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH BOUDOIR. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plenum is conveyed with ease, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and healthy, which is the only air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been, first, to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of fresh air, which, by their ignition, renders them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of fuel unconsumed, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building upon the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, so when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St. Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has had of late years, a large trade in teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the country, and is prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz. It is very light and durable, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or crevices to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the action is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver; and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists; so I feel warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.

S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do in the usual style. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRUE WARWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. STEVENS and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, and the sockets filled, preserved to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.

All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sore and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Old Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street.
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials herewith given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years' past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and with equal confidence of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such numbers prove not great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on more rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

All discharged soldiers and those who are unfit for actiqe duty, are being sent to Washington, that they may not embarrass the movements of the Army of the Potomac. The Richmond Enquirer still talks dole. fully of the expected attack by Gen. Hooker.

The loss of Stuart's rebel cavalry at Kelly's Ford was 100 killed and wounded.—Among the killed was Maj. Pelham, Chief of Stuart's Staff. An official list of the casualties on our side shows 7 killed, 46 wounded and 3 prisoners. 62 rebels were taken prisoners.

The N. Y. World states that on the 9th a small rebel force was captured six miles below Port Hudson, together with a signal book of the rebel army. Gen. Sherman is in command at New Orleans during the absence of Gen. Banks.

Rear Admiral Porter in a dispatch says he has received information from Lieut. Commander Smith that on the 7th inst. the whole expedition arrived in the Tallahatchie, which gives us control of the heart of Mississippi. The vessels all got through in fighting condition, except the Petrel, which had lost her wheel. This movement of the fleet evidently alarmed the rebels.—There is much distress in Vicksburg. The occupants have no meat, but are living almost exclusively on corn meal.

There is a report that Fort Pemberton, defending the Tallahatchie Pass, has been taken, with a few prisoners, by our fleet and army, which have for so many days been making their way to the rear of Vicksburg.

Com. Farragut passed (not attacked, as the dispatch read) the Port Hudson batteries at 11 o'clock, on the night of March 14th. 30 picked Massachusetts soldiers captured the rebel signal station, 6 miles from Port Hudson on the 10th inst., thus breaking up their system of signalizing our movements on the river. It is rumored that Stonewall Jackson is in that vicinity.

A Baton Rouge letter says a reconnoissance has been made by Col. Chickering, by which he destroyed two important bridges thus cutting off communication with the rebels. The fleet, composed of the Essex, mortars and gunboats, started up the river Mar. 13, and at 5 P. M. on that day Gen. Grover's Division was moving, while the others would follow in a few hours. On the 12th, two regiments under command of Col. Paine, embarked on a secret expedition.

The evacuation of Vicksburg for strategic advantages, is being advocated by rebels who want the troops massed in Middle Tennessee, to oppose Gen. Rosecrans. There has been picket skirmishing along the whole front of the latter's army, the rebels having made several reconnoissances, without appearing anxious, however, to bring on a general engagement.

Col. Clarke's rebel forces, who captured Mount Sterling, Ky., were attacked by Col. Gerrad near there on the 22d, and driven towards Owingsville.

☞ A schooner, 33 years old, has just been repaired, and made serviceable, at Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the vessel was built in the spring of the year 1830, of green pitch pine timber, which was cut in the winter, only a few weeks before. The schooner was named 'George-Henry,' and after being in the fishing business for a generation, has just received a new planked deck. Most of the old spikes are good, being made of old Swedes iron; and are used in the new deck. The vessel is now said to be sound and staunch, and is still to be used for fishing.

☞ A dispatch from Farmouth, Va., to the Boston Herald, says three distinct peace propositions have been offered in the Rebel Congress by Messrs. Barksdale, Conrad and Smith. The Richmond Examiner is alarmed, and opposes them on the ground that such propositions will encourage treason to the Confederacy.

☞ A gentleman in course of conversation with Gen. Hooker last week remarked that he had a son in his army. "Before ninety days," replied Fighting Joe, "you will be prouder of that fact than of any other fact of your life."

☞ The New York Herald's Washington dispatch contains the following: J. Pancoba of Western Virginia, just released as a political prisoner from Salisbury, N. C., says the rebels boast that they get all the information concerning the advance of our troops, and also obtain our countersign regularly. There must be a dangerous leak somewhere.

☞ Gold opened in New York on Friday morning, at 142 1-2; at 1 o'clock it had declined to 148 1-4; and at 3 P. M. it was down to 45 1-2. The decline stopped all business for the time being. Sales of cotton could not be made, except at a decided decline.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Dr. Henry J. Harwood, one of the Surgeons of the 10th regiment, died very suddenly at Suffolk, Va., March 16.

—— Twelve members of our next Legislature bear the name of Smith.

—— Last September three young men enlisted at Lyme into one company for the 11th regiment. They left for the seat of war together, picketed, tented, eat and slept together. Some time since they were taken sick with the measles at Newport News, and all breathed their last within a few hours of each other. On Sunday, the 15th, the lifeless remains of all three were received at Lyme, casting a gloom and mourning over all the community.

—— James G. Scribner, of Raymond, a member of the 10th regiment, died at Newport News, Va., March 3, aged 24. His remains were brought home for burial.

—— Warren V. B. Thibbetts, of Exeter, a member of the Mass. 23d, died at Acquia Creek, March 15; and his sister, Abby E. Thibbetts, died at Exeter on the same day.

—— It is rumored that a battalion of the 2d N. H. regiment, will be sent to Northern New York to garrison Fort Ontario.

☞ The well-known National Theatre, in Boston, was destroyed by fire early on Tuesday morning. The second and third alarms were sounded, and the whole Department was called out; but after the most strenuous exertions, the only real service performed was in saving the adjoining buildings. A liquor saloon and the apothecary shop of Wm. F. Toulon, Jr., in the lower story, were destroyed. Most of Mr. Toulon's stock of fancy goods, &c., was saved.

"At half past four o'clock, on the morning of the 12th inst., a heavy cannonading was heard in the direction of Forts Sumter and Moultrie, and on close inspection we discovered the positive fact that these two fortifications were throwing shot and shell at each other. The bursting of the shells was distinctly seen by all the fleet. Many of them exploded directly over Sumter!—The firing did not cease until after six o'clock, when a white flag was seen hoisted upon Moultrie. One hundred and seventy shots were fired, as an account was kept by several. We have been often informed by deserters, that the greatest disaffection prevails among the troops in Charleston and the forts, and that they have frequently attempted to mutiny, and that Beauregard has shot the leaders at once without any trial. And a deserter states that this firing was occasioned by a mutiny in Fort Sumter.

A very strange story.

PRINTER'S INK is the best fertilizer ever yet discovered, for a business soil. Now is the time to plant seeds of information.—The farmer who "turns seed time into harvest, and eats the corn he should plant," is no more improvident than the business man, who at proper seasons neglects to sow the seeds of information among the people, to provide a harvest of customers. It may be done cheaply and thoroughly by Advertising. In proportion to the facilities for doing business, should be applied the intellectual power of the Press.

So says S. R. Niles, Esq., the great Boston Advertising Agent; and what he does not know about that art, it must be hard to learn.

☞ The Ladies' Social Circle at Kittery Foreside, will hold a Levee in Armory Hall, for the benefit of the First Christian Baptist Society in Kittery, on the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Tickets of admission 15 cents, to be had at the door.

☞ Gen. Wool has issued a general order from his headquarters, calling attention to the recent proclamation of the President, relative to soldiers and officers absent without leave. He conjures all such to avail themselves of the President's "merciful clemency," by returning before the 1st of April.

☞ Capt. Hunter, of the steamer Montgomery, who was put under arrest at the suggestion of the Spanish court, as accessory to the burning of the steamer Blanche, in Spanish waters, and lately tried by court martial at the Charlestown Navy Yard, is said to have been acquitted of serious blame.

☞ A man in Niagara county, N. Y., having been cast in damages for breach of promise of marriage, concluded that it was best to perform his contract. The lady was willing, and the twain were made one flesh on the 1st inst.

GODEY.—The April number of this indispensible Magazine for the Ladies is received. In addition to the usual variety of interesting reading matter, it contains a spirited engraving of Spring—the return of the Swallows, spring fashions for dresses, and the new styles for dressing the hair and decorating the head. The latter are elaborate and odd enough.

☞ The last words of the veteran Gen. Sumner were—"God save my country—the United States of America."

SUNSHINE AND HEALTH.

A writer in the Philadelphia North American, says, "open the shutters," let the sun shine into your rooms. And then he tells "how to propagate scarlet fever and to perpetuate consumption in a family." The writer, who signs himself "A physician" states that "there is no more certain method of effecting these results than the practice now adopted by many of our citizens, of keeping the house closed for weeks or months after a death has occurred in it. He would earnestly call the attention of readers to the melancholy results of this practice. No house can be in a healthful condition which is not daily opened to the light and air.

"If the practice be objectionable in our larger houses, it becomes a grievous calamity in the houses of the poor. But a few days since I was called to see a poor woman in the last stage of a mortal disease. She lived in a little house with one room on a floor. Five months before she had lost a daughter by consumption. From that time until my visit she had lived in her little room with the shutters closed, completely excluding the light and pure air.

"Another instance was that of a poor washerwoman, left a widow with a young family dependent for support on her and her older daughters. For ten months did these poor girls strain their eyesight, while sewing in the little darkened room which they were compelled to occupy; and when remonstrated with by a kind friend, who endeavored to show the mother the absurdity of thus living in the dark, the reply made was, 'Sure, and wouldn't you have us do like 'the quality?' Many similar instances might be given. I shall mention but one. About a year since the writer was asked to visit in consultation with a medical friend, a poor man in the last stage of pulmonary consumption. The visit was made at 11 o'clock of a bright clear morning, and yet on entering his chamber we were positively obliged to grope through the dark to find his bed.' He had lost his wife three months before, and in spite of the remonstrances of his attending physician, had persisted in living in this darkened chamber, that he too, doubtless, might be "like the quality." I appeal to clergymen, to physicians, to all classes, to give their aid in discouraging a fashion so detrimental to health—in every way reprehensible. Some of our oldest families have steadily refused to adopt this advertisement of their grief which was unknown to their fathers, and it needs but the co-operation of a few more of our influential citizens to set an example, which will be gladly followed by others. Thus will their own homes and those of their neighbors be rendered more healthful, our city present a more cheerful appearance, while the chamber of poverty and sickness will be lightened of one of its most depressing concomitants."

[This is not the fashion here, so far as we know. But there is another fashion, viz.: that of keeping closed blinds or drawn curtains to darken the best rooms, so as to prevent the sun from fading the carpet. Now the sun is better than a carpet,—and the best room is exactly where the people ought to live.

Once more; the old meeting-houses, full of windows, but without blinds or curtains, were not very warm in winter, for they had no fire in them, but they were dry, light, and wholesome: the sun shone in every fair day, and as they were nowhere near air-tight, foul air escaped very readily.

People who can get air and sunshine out of doors, should do so for health and pleasure. And those who must keep within, should have light, sunshine and air, in good proportions, for the same purposes. U. T.]

☞ The Portland Press states that one evening last week a lady in that city, during the absence of her husband, heard some one run up the door steps and ring the bell. Knowing that it was not her husband's ring, she cautiously opened the door, keeping her foot against it, when she was confronted by a man who endeavored to obtain an entrance. The lady resisted, and finally succeeded in closing the door, which fastened itself with a spring latch. Feeling something warm about her hand, she examined it, and found it had been cut with some sharp weapon; her dress was also cut just below the waist, making a slit of three or four inches. The knife had penetrated through the dress and lining, but did not touch the body.

Gov. Todd of Ohio, with other Western men, has been in Washington, to consult with the President on the state of affairs in the Northwest, where open resistance has been made to the arrest of deserters, and fears are entertained of opposition to conscription. These fears, we think, will prove groundless. The current of public sentiment, even in the democratic party, is now in favor of sustaining the administration.—All thoughtful persons and men of property see that safety is there, and otherwise we should bring anarchy and confusion to our own doors. Policy agrees with patriotism in this.—Newburyport Herald.

THE ENGINES OF OUR WAR STEAMERS. The reports of the Board of Engineers which assembled at Philadelphia to investigate the causes of vessels breaking down has been some days in the hands of the Secretary of the Navy. The Board reports that the failure of ships recently is not to be attributed to any peculiarity of the plans according to which they were constructed. They give reasons, however, for the disasters, which have been denied the press. Lest any one should know them, the members of the Board were not allowed to employ a copyist.

☞ The Times' Washington dispatch states that the question of issuing letters of marque is still being discussed by the Cabinet; also that the 9th army corps will form part of Gen. Burnside's new command.—Gen. Parks will be assigned to this corps.

☞ It is said that citizens going abroad from States that have filled their quotas of troops, are not required to give bond to answer the draft; from States that have not filled their quotas, they are required to give bond if of military age and able bodied.

☞ It is stated that as much as $1000 was paid for a seat in a window to see the Princess Alexandra's entree into London.

☞ By the census of 1860 Massachusetts had 36,970 more females than males.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may25tp

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

THE OPERA.

"Music hath charms"—especially Opera music, to some people. And probably there are few who have any music in their souls, who could fail of being suited by some of the many varieties of the operatic. The opera concert or concert of opera selections at the Temple, Monday evening, was rather an enjoyable affair, though probably few of the audience had previously found a correct idea of it in the programme.

And as to the audience, though it was not small, and was composed of highly respectable and very appreciative people, to the number of perhaps about four hundred, yet it was by no means what we should have supposed the musical celebrities announced would attract. Why, a nigger concert in that same house, has, if we don't mistake in our guess, received more money, within this very month. Mind, we don't draw any comparison between the two, and certainly are not going to disparage the charcoal institution. But it would seem that those who sneer at the minstrels, and sigh for something "classic," would improve such opportunities when offered.

We don't think our people like the idea of reserved seats, probably because they are not used to it, nor the house well adapted for it—especially when nearly all the desirable seats are "reserved" at the outset.—And then, too, we suppose it must be allowed, that all the darkies and most white performers show more willingness, and use more effort to please their auditors, than do some of the operatics.

However, the entertainment, which did not commence till nearly half an hour after the appointed time, and which therefore closed full half an hour before it should—was, on the whole, a rare treat for this ilk. Signor Muzio, of orchestral fame, played the accompaniments on a piano, and played them finely too—sometimes altogether too much for the voices, judged from the position we occupied, he being between us and them. But then it was his business to look out for the accompaniments; and he did—let the singers take care of themselves, and they did; too much care, we thought, and did not give as so much programme as they promised.

The concert part, or first part, went rather coldly—and probably it was designed that an encore for each piece would have brought another four, for the four pieces which were sung. But nary an encore was there, and hardly any "applause" at all, even during the last part, which was really finely given. Portsmouth audiences are not easily excited, for which we are not sorry; but then we are rather out of fashion in this matter, it being the usual custom for hearers to do about as much work in applauding, as the performers on the stage do for pay.

The duet by Miss Morensi, contralto, and Signor Errani, a tolerable tenore, was well enough, but not brilliantly given.—Then little Mdlle. Cordier, a usually sprightly French woman, came creeping onto the stage, alone, looking as if she had copied Gottschalk's lachrymose countenance and shuffling gait,—to sing her famous "shallow song," but without any shadow, or imaginary spirit, to sing to or dance with. However, a big black, shaggy dog marched up beside her, to personate that needed character, — which was altogether too much for the lady's gravity, and after repeated attempts to go on, she gave it up, and retreated to the green room, which set all hands laughing, and brought down the house as nothing else did during the whole evening. Our favorite idea, again, you see—that the people need amusement. Mr. shadowy dog was put out, and Miss C. came on and finished the song,—which needs all the stage accompaniments to make it satisfactory; as also does Cordier herself always. She is much more of an actress than singer.

Morensi, who is a Yankee girl, then gave Kathleen Mavourneen, very prettily, save her outrageous rolling of the r-r-r-r's and even sometimes other letters—and this was the only English given during the evening. We don't see why the Italian tongue, for singing, isn't fully as satisfactory, generally, as English, even to those who don't understand a word of it—for, besides being so much smoother and more liquid, if you don't expect or try to catch any words, you won't be vexed by not succeeding, and can better understand and appreciate the music also.

The song by Ernani was hardly worth the hearing—and his duet with Cordier would have been pretty good, if they hadn't cut it off before they fairly commenced.

One nuisance we didn't expect to find in the old Temple—but there he was, that boy, crying opera books. Out with them, all; and let all who want libretto, get them at the door, or before they come.

The second part, the comic opera of Don Pasquale—or rather portions of it, for they cut it all to pieces in the performance—was altogether better. Mme. Lorini, Susini, and Amodio, took the parts; and Brignoli came in when he couldn't help it, which is all he ever does. Susini is never afraid of work, and always does his best to interest and amuse,—and succeeded admirably, too. Amodio also did well. Mme. Lorini, Boston's favorite daughter, was beautiful, painstaking, thorough, and satisfactory, as she always is, and captivated more hearts than the old Don's, by her splendid singing and effective acting. Her performance alone well paid for attendance. Brignoli, too, gave "O, summer night" most beautifully; and for all his laziness, inattention and discourtesy, you have to forgive him as soon as he begins to sing. In fact, he himself says, he "is hired to sing, and not to act"—but then what business has he to always out out half his part?

We think opera would be almost as enjoyable without special shifting scenery or fixtures, and with the minor parts omitted,—if the leading performers would only sing all their parts—(though, as to that, of course, the filling in gives them rest)—as it can be when presented with the best apparatus this country affords, at least. The most satisfactory acting we ever saw any where, was by Yankee Locke and "Phunny Phiique," on that same Temple stage, without the least pretence of stage furniture; and we believe we enjoyed the portions of Don Pasquale which were faithfully given, about as much as the full operas at the Boston Theatre—where this opera has not been given this season, however. With the single remark that probably this troupe never sang to an audience so little "dressed" for the occasion, or so "cold," (was one the reason for the other?) we must close this too-long screed.

☞ At a meeting of the Christian Society held on Monday evening, it was voted to give their pastor, Rev. I. F. Waterhouse, leave of absence for two months, that he may visit the Army of the Potomac as volunteer Chaplain, or Delegate as termed by the Christain Commission, under the auspices of which he goes out. The Commission pays no salary, merely defraying the expenses of the delegates. Tee Rev. Mr. Waterhouse is peculiarly adapted for the position, and will, we doubt not, in his intercourse with the soldiers, impress their minds with the fact that in him they have a firm and sincere friend, over faithful in the discharge of the duties of his office.

☞ It will be seen that an auction sale of shingles, cables, sails, rigging, &c., from the wreck of the schooner Rouser, is advertised to take place at the Town Wharf, in New Castle, to-day (Wednesday) at 11 o'clock.

☞ Two entertainments, at the church of the Unity, Boston, consisting of tableaux, singing and declamations, have netted $200, which will be devoted to the benefit of the soldiers. The Saturday Evening Gazette mentions that Mr. Henry C. Barnabee, formerly of this city, contributed largely to the pleasure of those present.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.—We learn that candidates for the Speakership of the house are already canvassing. Among those who would make competent presiding officers are several gentlemen in Concord, one of whom may be selected. The only objection offered is that Concord has too large a share of presiding officers, as well as other officials. Hon. Horton D. Walker of Portsmouth would be a popular Speaker if he should be elected, and Mr. Straw of Manchester would fill the place with ability.—Manchester American.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES
They are the Purest!
The Best?
The Cheapest!
The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.
"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.
The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.
The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!
THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.
We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—
David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tullock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Reflley, (6. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.
The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—
1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot water, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to fulling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does the work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.
This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.
It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

Pin Worm Syrup.

Just received Dr. Gould's PIN WORM SYRUP—the only safe, cure and effectual remedy ever offered to the public for the removal of Pin Worms. The above valuable medicine for sale at the Medicine Store of B. HUTCHINGS

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call Scrofula lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the relic of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that, "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. Tha it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this, for its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all druggists every where.

Will be sold at a bargain if applied for immediately. Apply to C. T. VAUGHAN, 59 Market street, Portsmouth, N. H., or to GEO. B. PREBLE, Kittery, Me. 3awtw ad

By a long course and much and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has to "the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most aggravated cases of

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impotency, Scrofulous, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the region of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscess, Bubons, Buboes, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mental effusion the mind are such to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charge for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr Dow has also for sale the French Lozenges, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail, three for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of this stove, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove Yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the new cooking top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and will retain coals in the fire and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable and useful invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which passes to circulate, is thrown into the used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from the consumed fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fire, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top can come into use made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the destroyer of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cheney, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction on either upper or lower plate.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any content—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as which finished the work quite resembles the whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Nov. 1st, 1862.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently much easier to the gums and sides of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions of open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth until I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubbe, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for on upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS in DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for Teeth is $5 per tooth.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRAUWEIL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER, and Dr. DERBY, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sore and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Cuts.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sureof having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

THE FIRST DISTRICT.—The Concord Patriot has a summary of the votes for Representative to Congress from the 1st District. It has the vote for Member of Congress in all but two towns,—Albany and Salem,—in which the vote for Governor is substituted. The Patriot's returns have been carefully examined and revised, and compared with the returns made to the Stateman's office; and the result, after allowing two or three slight differences to be counted against Capt. Marcy, foots up by counties as follows:—

	Marcy (Dem.)	Eastman (Rep.)
Rockingham	4788	5404
Strafford	2595	2202
Belknap	2097	1771
Carroll	2580	1903
	12,060	11,980
	11,980
Marcy's maj.,	80

Three scattering votes are returned, viz.: one each in Plaistow, Farmington and Salem, which are not reckoned.

—— Josiah Calef, Esq., a native of Kingston, died in Saco, Me., March 2d, in the 81st year of his age. His father was Joseph, a revolutionary soldier, and his grandfather was John, a revolutionary officer. His mother was the daughter of Dr. Josiah Bartlett, of Kingston, one of the memorable signers of the Declaration of Independence, and from him he received his name. He received a good classical education at Exeter Academy, and was afterwards prepared for mercantile pursuits. He was favorably known as a business man in Boston more than forty years ago, and after his removal to Saco he became interested in all the leading enterprises of the town. When the Saco Manufacturing Co. lost its mill by fire, nearly all his property was consumed in a day. But in a few years he again placed himself in a position of comfort and independence. For more than twenty years he was President of the Saco & Biddeford Savings Institution; he was also for a still longer period President of the Saco Mutual Fire Insurance Company; and at the same time he was President and for many years a Director in the Manufacturers' Bank, and also a Director from the beginning in the P. S. & P. Railroad.

—— Most of the papers think Col. Cheney elected Railroad Commissioner on the supposition that a plurality of votes elects. This is not the case. A majority is required for the election of this officer as well as for Governor. It is probable, however, that Mr. Cheney is elected.

—— Lt. Col. Thompson, who went out in the N. H. Cavalry as Lieutenant under Capt. Nelson and has risen to the position of Lieut. Colonel, is now in this State on a furlough.

—— The American states that a gentleman in Manchester, abundantly able to make good his engagements, offers to save harmless from conscription any man, who will enter into contract with him before the draft, for the sum of $200, making a discount of $100 from the requirement of the law. And he will give bonds which will be satisfactory that he will fulfil his contract. Any man once drafted and providing a substitute, or paying the commutation sum, the same gentleman will exempt for $50.

—— A Committee was appointed at the late annual meeting of the Union School District, Concord, to consider the subject of rebuilding the present High School edifice, and provide for additional grammar school accommodations.

—— A meeting is to be held at Milford on the 24th inst., to consider the expediency of forming a County Bible Society, as has been done in nearly all the other counties in this State.

—— Senator Hale, of this State, is now the oldest member of the U. S. Senate, having been now fourteen years in that body.

—— A paragraph is going the rounds stating that Lieut. Wm. F. Dame, of Co. K, 12th N. H. Regiment, has been dismissed from the service for absence without leave. Lieut. Dame was wounded at the battle of Fredericksburgh, came home on a furlough, and returned to his regiment several weeks since, and is now with his company, not entirely recovered from his wound.

☞ A Washington special dispatch says that Gen. Hooker, having seen the great benefit to the morale of his troops from the rigid system of furloughs which he has adopted, has decided to continue it as a permanent regulation. The violation of the rules embraced in it are punished with great severity, and very few men or officers now fail to comply strictly and promptly with the terms of their furloughs.

☞ A Baton Rouge, La., letter, says a fourth negro regiment is being organized, and the antagonism lately exhibited by our soldiers has entirely subsided since they have been officered by white men.

THE REBELLION.

A Louisville dispatch states that the rebels—reported from 3000 to 10,000—with a much larger force following them, have taken possession of Danville, Ky. They crossed the Cumberland river via Mill Spring to Somerset. There are no rebels at Glasgow or Mumfordsville, or in that section of the State.

Gen. Burnside arrived at Cincinnati on Tuesday morning. One of his duties will be to defend Kentucky from apprehended rebel invasion. Should circumstances favor he may co-operate with Gen. Rosecrans in liberating East Tennessee.

The rebels report a movement by Gen. Rosecrans, and anticipate a flank movement. A Harrisburg, Pa., paper gives a rumor that 20,000 troops passed through there to reinforce Gen. Rosecrans, on the night of the 22d.

Quantrell's guerrillas, on Sunday morning, were encountered by a small Union force, and after a short skirmish, our men retreated, with a loss of 9 killed, several wounded and 5 missing. Rebel loss unknown.

It is reported that the steamer Diligent with troops, has succeeded in entering the Yazoo river above Haines Bluff. She was accompanied by a light gunboat; four ironclads followed, and a large number of troops. It is also reported that two of Farragut's gunboats have reached the lower mouth of the Vicksburg canal.

Capt. Peanock reports that only the Hartford, of Admiral Farragut's fleet, passed Fort Hudson. The others were repulsed. Farragut's Secretary had reached Com. Porter's fleet on the 20th. Capt. Pennock also reports that the Admiral had got thro' Steele and Black Bayou with five ironclads and the Price, and was making all haste for Yazoo. Gen. Sherman and the troops were following. Capt. Pennock commands the squadron at Cairo.

Refugees continue to assert that the rebel army is falling back from Fredericksburg, and that the gun-making machinery and stores are being rapidly removed from Richmond into Georgia.

There is a doubtful rumor that Stuart, with a considerable force of cavalry and artillery, was within the Federal lines, between Leesburg and Nolan's Ferry, moving in the direction of the latter place, on Tuesday night.

EXPLOSION AT BROWN'S ISLAND.—The explosion at the laboratory on Browns' Island, near Richmond, several days since, was a frightful catastrophe. Up to Thursday last thirty-three persons had died of injuries received. The Richmond Dispatch says that many of the victims were dreadfully burnt about the body, not only by the exploding of the powder, but by the inflammable material which composed their dresses, to which fire was almost instantly communicated. Many of the poor creatures who were enabled to rescue themselves from the debris of the building ran about the island shrieking in their anguish, their clothes in flames, and themselves resembling avenging furies; while others, who were too far disabled to move, were stretched on litters, and after being attended to were borne off uttering feeble moans, the forerunners with many of approaching death. One, frantic and blazing, ran toward one of the buildings in which was stored enough of combustibles to have rent in fragments every tenement on the island. She was seized and stopped by one of the workmen just in time to bar her entrance.

The Richmond Enquirer, of a late date, is fearful of a famine in the Confederate States. It urges that no person should consume more than one-quarter of a pound of meat daily, and says that the custom of eating three meals daily should be abandoned; that two meals are amply sufficient, and eating three meals per diem is a habit, and a bad habit, adding that under the present condition of affairs, and the shortness of provisions, "it is nearly as bad to grow fat as to get rich in the Confederacy."

While the war is being waged, the Enquirer advises the people to take care of their horses and mules, for they may become viands de reserve. It also admits that the supply of provisions is nearly exhausted, and, except by the most rigid economy, it cannot be made to support the people. It further declares that should the present want of provisions continue, and grain be converted into whiskey, mania and delirium will be added to starvation.

☞ A Washington dispatch states that Col. Ludlow, Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners, who is there, confirms, on the strength of evidence that has fallen beneath his own observation, the reports which came through so many channels of extensive suffering among the rebels. He says that a large storehouse, containing millions of dollars worth of supplies, was recently burnt at Richmond, and that the loss was so serious that some of the newspapers ventured to mention it.

The Savannah Republican says many poor women and children in that city are suffering for want of food, and cannot get enough corn meal because railroad transportation is monopolized by the Government.

THE NEW "OCEAN HOUSE"

PROPOSED AT EYE BEACH, N. H.

To the Public, greeting:

The undersigned, widely known as the original builders, and for many years landlords of the Ocean House at Rye Beach—until destroyed by fire last year—would most respectfully present to their old friends and patrons everywhere, and the enterprising public generally, the following plan for rebuilding the Hotel in a superior manner, and on a more extensive scale even, but more economical and advantageous to all concerned than the former house—which we and all practical business men whom we have consulted, are assured can be done; and which certainly cannot be expected to result so much to our own interest as to the general benefit of the public who will be affected by it. Since that disastrous fire—by which much of our earnings were swept away in an hour, and the premises which we had expended so much labor and money to beautify, were partially destroyed by the vandal flames—we have received numerous and repeated enquiries from far and near as to whether we intended to rebuild, and requests to do so. And after personal conversation with prominent business men in Boston, Portland, Manchester, Concord and Portsmouth, and by letter with others in distant cities—we are encouraged and advised to lay the following plan, which we have long been maturing, before the public; and in the carrying out the same, we ask and expect the countenance and co-operation of the public, no faster and no farther than the mutual benefit and interest of both parties can be clearly shown.

And first, it may be advisable to explain away any misunderstanding which perhaps may exist, respecting the success of the former Ocean House. The records show that a large amount of money was made there, in spite of great disadvantages which existed, chiefly in the construction of the House, but which can of course be overcome or easily avoided in the new enterprise. For instance, the rooms were all arranged for first class (high-priced) company; and were so large and so located in suites, and so expensive that they could not be classified as to price, so as to accommodate the various classes of would-be patrons; and we have often been "full," (that is, had all our ninety rooms engaged and being paid for,) when not more than half enough guests were actually present to occupy the house; and yet we were constantly obliged to send away much other company, chiefly such as did not wish to pay the high price which we were obliged to charge throughout the House.

But it is now proposed to actually have three houses in one, as to price—that is, to charge less for rooms on the third floor than on the second, and still less on the fourth—to have but one public table, of course. This plan, we are convinced, after due deliberation, and in the light of our long and large experience, cannot fail of the best success.

We presume the business citizens of Portsmouth need no arguments to convince them of the great benefits which they derived from the location of the former house near them. Neither do the farmers of the vicinity; and others, for whose produce and wares the Ocean House proprietors, and visitors from abroad, furnished a great amount of good custom. Many thousand dollars were thus distributed each season. But the new house, which will be conducted as a thorough Winter as well as Summer hotel, cannot fail of benefitting all those classes still more, as well as being a great convenience as the only winter pleasure hostelry of the vicinity.

The ornamented and improved grounds comprising nearly forty acres, including the site of the former building; the valuable and extensive stables, sheds and cottage connected; the bowling alleys, cook house, bath houses, &c. are still the property of the undersigned; and we propose to join all in the new building and take the appraised value in the new stock. The estimated entire cost of lands, buildings, furniture and all, clear of all debt or claims, is estimated, at the outside to be $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars.)

We cannot of course go into full details here, in explanation of this matter. And, indeed, from the manner in which our proposition has been received wherever we have presented it, we judge that this is not necessary. No statement is here made without the most careful consideration, and all we ask is that those interested shall duly weigh the matter, so that they can be prepared to act intelligently when the stock is offered for subscriptions. While gentlemen abroad are so ready to encourage the enterprise as an investment, are we not reasonable in confidently expecting that those nearer who cannot fail of receiving more benefit directly and indirectly, will also take hold in earnest, so that we may all contribute to each other's mutual welfare?

We give below a few details of the proposed plan:—

The new Ocean House to be built at Rye Beach, N. H., as proposed, by a Joint Stock Company. The capital stock to be $50,000, and to be divided into one thousand shares of $50 each. To be incorporated and governed by a President and Board of Directors.

The House will be 220 feet long, with Centre 70 feet deep and 50 feet in width; with two Wings 55 feet each; 40 feet wide. The whole building to front the Sea. The Basement to be used for water Cistern, to hold 20,000 gallons; Washing and Ironing Department, Servants' Hall, Wine and Store Rooms, Refrigerators, Furnaces, &c.

First floor.—On entering, the front hall is 43 by 22 feet; Ladies' Parlor on the right 20 by 36 feet; a spiral Staircase with Dome over it, leads from the Dome on the top of the House, and gives light and ventilation to the centre of the building. The Dining Hall is 70 by 50 feet, connecting with which is the Carving, Crockery, Glass and Store Rooms. In the left Wing is the Gentlemen's Parlor, 21 by 18 feet, and 8 Private Parlors connecting with the Ball Room, 35 by 55 feet, in the extreme left wing. A Piazza, 8 feet wide, extends entirely round the house. This story is 14 feet high.

Second floor.—This story is to be all first class Rooms, to be finished and furnished in a splendid manner. The rooms will all connect. Also a number of Parlors with Bed-Rooms attached. The Hall will be 220 feet long and 7 feet wide. This story is 12 feet high.

Third floor.—These Rooms are not so expensively finished or furnished, but will all connect. This story is 11 feet high.

On the roof of the Hotel will be a Promenade 220 feet long, 10 feet wide.

The Cook House will be detached from the Hotel, and will be fitted with the most improved Steam Apparatus for Cooking. The Hotel and its arrangements will be adapted to winter as well as summer use.

The real estate is in the possession of Job Jenness & Son; and they propose to the Stockholders, to put in 36 acres of land, to be divided into cottage lots;—also 4 acres, the original Ocean House grounds and ruins; the Cottage, Stables and lot; also the Bowling Alleys, Ironing, Ice, Hen and Bath Houses, with all the privileges. Then Messrs. Job Jenness & Son propose to lease the above property for a term of years, and pay to the Stockholders a per centage to be agreed upon, on the gross receipts of the house.

This house will accommodate 300 guests, and the prices to be arranged according to the rooms occupied, varying from $1,25 to $2,00 per day. We believe if the plans are carried out, it will be one of the most popular and the best paying watering places in this country. The plans have been submitted to some of the leading men of Portsmouth, Boston and other cities, and are generally approved of. Are we wrong in supposing that it will be the pride of New Hampshire to have this favorite watering place rebuilt?

Most respectfully,

JOB JENNESS & SON.

Boston, March, 1863.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

"The Printer," a monthly publication by John Gleason & Co., New York, is invaluable for the craft, and not without interest to the general reader. Price $1 per year. The office will be removed, May 1st, from 11 Spruce St. to 172 William, corner Beekman street. The publishers also announce that they are about to open an Advertising Agency.

☞ The publishers of "The Pioneer Boy," (Walker, Wise & Co., Boston,) have been so overrun with advance orders that the first edition proves entirely insufficient to meet the demand. They have put to press another large edition, which will be ready by the first of April, when the book will be published. Not less than five thousand copies will be required to meet the first orders, and this before a copy of the book has been seen. So much for the popularity of the President, the reputation of the author, and, we may add, the enterprise of the publishers.

☞ Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett Browning's posthumous volumn of "Last Poems," edited by Theodore Tilton, has just re-appeared in a fifth edition, (being the fifth thousand,) from the press of James Miller, New York—showing that a good book may successfully face the risks of the market, even with paper at 25 (exorbitant) cents a pound!

☞ Messrs. Tunney & Co. have disposed of their interest in the National Hotel at Washington, for a large sum, to a Philadelphian, who will take possession on the 1st of April.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE, for April, is good from cover to cover. Twenty-five cents will purchase a large amount of valuable and interesting reading matter, in this number. For sale by J. H. Foster.

☞ They have a genuine French theatrical troupe at the Boston Theater. All the actors speak French.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

From John G. Whittier, the Poet.

AMESBURY, 8th 3d Mo., 1863.

Respected friend—I thank thee for thy favor, and the accompanying box of "Grace's Salve." I have not had occasion to test it myself, but have heard it very highly spoken of by such of my neighbors as have used it, and have no doubt of its being a valuable compound. Very truly, thy friend,

To Wm. Grace. JOHN G. WHITTIER.

WINE.—A new wine is just coming into popular favor but by no means intoxicating in its nature. We refer to Speer's Sambuci Wine, which has been introduced into the hospitals and principle drug stores in this city, and in London and Paris by Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J.—Albany Standard.

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE.

The Great "American Remedies,"

Known as "Helmbold's"

Genuine Preparations, Viz.:

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU."

" " " SARSAPARILLA,

" " IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE PREPARATION,

"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

A Positive and Specific Remedy

For Diseases of the

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the Absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

FOR WEAKNESSES

Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.
	Decrease of the Skin

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases."

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,

OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chloris or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Cancerous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

SEE SYMPTOMS ABOVE.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT

Take no Balsam, Mercury, or Unpleasant Medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

CURES

Secret Diseases

In all their stages; at little expense; little or no change in diet; no inconvenience.

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling Poisonous, Diseased and Worn-out Matter.

Thousands upon Thousands

WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid away Pots to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and

PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

USE

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all Affections and Diseases of

The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC.

And it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Linings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Mucous Surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with Extract Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor, it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and prevents no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvements it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

☞ The following ships, built in this city, have recently been sold to London: Barbara, 602 tons, built in 1851, for £4500; Neptune's Car, 1616 tons, built in 1853, for £8000; Jumna, 782 tons, built in 1856, for £4500; and the Sierra Nevada, 1942 tons, built in 1854, for £10,750.

☞ Screw sloop Ossipee, 12, which has been for some weeks at the Washington Yard, is now in fine condition, the alteration of her machinery having been thoroughly and satisfactorily tested.

☞ Mr. Joseph Hammond, of Eliot, Me., committed suicide, on Thursday morning last, by taking strychnine. He arose in the morning as usual, mixed the poison, drank it, returned to his bed and died in a short time. He was about 70 years of age.

☞ The bark American, at Philadelphia, from Port au Prince, reports that March 3d, 2 P. M., she was boarded by a boat abreast of Inagua, which gave information, received by a British revenue cutter, that the privateer Retribution was in Crooked Island Passage and had taken several American vessels, run them ashore on Long Island and discharged their cargoes. The rebels had sold part of a cargo to merchants on Fortune Island and chartered and loaded a schooner with salt to run the blockade.

☞ In the U. S. Circuit Court, at Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday, at the suggestion of the Court a nolle prosequi was entered in the Jackalow case, and he was directed to be discharged. Doubts about the jurisdiction and inability to get witnesses was the cause. It has been three years since he was first tried.

☞ A large body of Indians, consisting of Camanches, Navajoes, and other border tribes, have made an expedition to Texas, from Santa Fe; they captured 600 horses, a large number of cattle, destroyed much property and killed many Texans.

☞ In dancing the cotillon it is now a la mode de Paris, for the host to provide all his guests with beautiful and costly presents, which are given away by parties in the dance—ladies to the gentlemen, and gentlemen to the ladies. This makes the ball an expensive entertainment.

A pathetic camp writer, eulogizing one of our glorious women employed in her ministry to the poor soldiers, says: "I thought that night that if Heaven ever sent out homely angel she must be one, her assistance was so timely." A "homely angel" is good.

☞ A correspondent of the New York Herald has been convicted by a Court Martial of publishing contraband news and sentenced to six months hard labor. Gen. Hooker remitted the sentence, and sent the offender beyond the lines of the army.

☞ The War Department has received the rolls of all the regiments composing the Army of the United States, with the number of absentees or deserters from the army, which show that there are upwards of 125,000 of this class.

☞ The Post Office in Haverhill, Mass., was broken open on Friday night last, and $25 in change, a number of postage stamps, &c., stolen, and the letters in the box opened and rifled of their contents. A reward has been offered for the apprehension of the burglar.

☞ Gold opened in New York on Wednesday at a fraction less than 140, but it soon afterward rallied to 143. At 12 M. gold fell to 140. It closed at 140 1-2.

☞ Secretary Stanton has appointed Dr. S. G. Howe, of Boston, Hon. Robert Dale Owen, and Mr. McKay, of New York city, a commission, to investigate the condition of the contrabands throughout the country.

☞ A large sum of gold has been found buried under an old house in Georgetown, D. C., where it had been secreted for three years.

☞ The Virginia Legislature has passed the salt bill. It is in effect that if acceptable terms cannot be made with the owners of salt property, the latter is to be impressed and worked on State account.

☞ Several of the largest tobacco-growing counties of Virginia have held a public meeting and resolved to cultivate no tobacco the present year.

☞ A paragraph in the Paris Siecle states that Lord Palmerston generally finishes up even his busiest days with a game at billiards.

☞ Within sight of St. Louis there are in process of construction six of the largest iron monitors ever built.

☞ The midnight meeting movement in London has, up to the present time, rescued more than 1000 girls from lives of infamy.

☞ A cup of coffee costs one dollar in the Richmond coffee houses; butter is $3,25 per pound.

☞ Several New York capitalists are in Washington selecting a site for the erection of a mammoth hotel on the New York plan.

I'M A FLIRT—I'M A FLIRT.

"Air—I'm Afloat, I'm Afloat."

I'm a flirt, I'm a flirt, by no promise I'm tied,
The ball room's my home, and the Folks's my pride;
I trip lightly by in the soul binding dance,
I win with my smile, and I wound with my glance.

I heed not the prudes, let them say what they will,
A flirt I am now, and a flirt I'll be still;
I ne'er will regain the proud sway that I hold
O'er talent and riches, the great and the bold.

I'm a flirt, I'm a flirt, I have suitors in shoals,
Who're dying to have me, the poor sighing souls;
How they fret if I frown, how they smile if by chance
They can just squeeze my hand 'twixt their own in a dance.

There's DeSpoon of the Blues, with ten thousand a year,
And dashing Lord Dawdle, the young fusilcer;
A Duke or an Earl I could easily get,
And wear on my forehead a proud coronet.

I should have my fine carriage for making my calls,
I should give, too, my breakfasts, my routs, and my balls;
But no cavalier at my feet then would fall
To hand me my gloves or to put on my shawl.

Then away with the thought of a dull married life,
Its cares and its troubles, its slowness and strife;
There's nothing on earth but to me's cheap as dirt,
Compared to the pleasure of being a flirt.

☞ The Ladies' Social Circle at Kittery Foreside, will hold a Levee in Armory Hall, for the benefit of the First Christian Baptist Society in Kittery, on the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Tickets of admission 15 cents, to be had at the door.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long, or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. Y. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davis, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Tallock, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton D. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Tendy, Richard L. HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st. It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tenderness to rolling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

Pin Worm Syrup.

Just received Dr. Gould's PIN WORM SYRUP—the only safe, sure and effectual remedy ever offered to the public for the removal of Pin Worms. The above valuable medicine for sale at the Medicine Store of B. HUTCHINGS.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous diseases are heard from no more. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. The at does combine virtues truly extraordinary for their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proved by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. These cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a vastly different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, NO. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now of organization of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to meet a single case of the

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, Chronic Urethritis, Enlargement of the glands of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, painful Swellings, and that long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for the pleasures of society—some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. One or by mail, $1 for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y Saw.

CAUTION

To the Sons and Victims of Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is Dr. Dow of his treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has had much and greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

CERTAIN CURE

In all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. where, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon cannot do better than to call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

For the use of Clergymen, Justices, and others who perform the ceremony—for sale at the Chronicle Office, by the single, dozen, or hundred copies.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove ever invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. When the extension top (there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of the valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and none of the air which consumes. Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. "Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the light, though very dim fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Office.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably equal to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration as the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability in his pursuit leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sureof having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A rebel cavalry force, under Forrest, Wheeler and Wharton, crossed Harpeth river on Wednesday morning near Franklin, Tenn., and attacked a Federal force of 300, who it is said surrendered after a feeble resistance. All the Government property was captured. Gen. Green Clay Smith with 500 men pursued the rebels six miles and recaptured the wagons and ammunition, but meeting the whole rebel force, said to number 5000 men, he was compelled to destroy the property and fall back. When reinforcements reached him the rebels had decamped. We lost 1 officer and 15 men in killed, wounded and missing. The rebels lost ten in killed and wounded. Over 50 rebel prisoners have been brought in. The rebel cavalry approached to within four miles of Nashville on Wednesday.

A Cincinnati dispatch says the rebel force which has occupied Danville, Ky., is believed to be the advance guard of Gen. Longstreet's division. Their coming has been prepared for. It is reported that among the reinforcements sent to Gen. Burnside, at Cincinnati, is the 9th Army Corps. The Louisville, Ky., Democrat says the rebels, in large force, under Breckinridge, are at Harrisburg, Ky. Breckinridge is reported to have issued a proclamation declaring his intention of enforcing the Southern conscription act, and rumor says the act is being rigidly enforced in those portions of Kentucky now occupied by rebel forces.

A special dispatch from the Yazoo expedition reports that the Chillicothe was temporarily disabled in the late engagement, and our troops are now acting on the de-fensive.

A Cairo dispatch, 25th, says seven of Admiral Farragut's fleet ran the blockade of Port Hudson; after going up the river a short distance all but two returned, and have probably gone to the mouth of the Red River. Gen. Banks had not come up to make the land attack when the fleet ran the blockade. Per contra, there are vague rumors that Gen. Banks has been compelled to fall back upon Baton Rouge with the loss of two or three regiments. We are inclined to think, however, that the rebels would have proclaimed such a victory to their arms if it had transpired.

Rebel sympathizers state that the rebel leaders are preparing to concentrate their whole available force near Chattanooga, where they will "die in the last ditch."

It is evident that the rebels are feeling the outer lines of the army of the Potomac, indicating an attack upon our army. Our scouts on the 24th reported the enemy moving infantry in the direction of Culpepper. The rebel General Lee has revoked all furloughs.

A dispatch from Memphis to the Cincinnati Commercial says Farragut's vessel (the Hartford) discovered the Indianola at Hard Times Bend and recaptured her without resistance. The rebels had nearly refitted her for service. The Queen of the West is up the Black river, out of the reach of our vessels. A mail from Farragut has reached Memphis.

The Jackson, Miss., Appeal of the 18th says that Gen. Banks had failed to make a land attack, and that Farragut went in alone, and passed the rebel batteries at Port Hudson at night under a terrific cannonade. The Mississippi was burnt to the water's edge; 30 of her officers and crew were captured. It was rumored that Haines' Bluff had been flanked through the water route.

Gen. Burnside has formally assumed command of the department of Ohio. Indiana is made a separate military district, under Gen. Carington, who reports to Gen. Burnside.

☞ Recent English advices state that the marriage of the Prince of Wales absorbed great attention. The ceremony came off at Windsor on the 10th, according to the programme, with great pomp and brilliancy. The Queen occupied a retired post of observation, but took no part. The royal pair went to Osborne to spend the honeymoon. The day was a holiday throughout England, and the public rejoicings, illuminations, &c., were on the grandest scale.

☞ A German baker who killed one of his workmen at Chicago some time since for accidentally spoiling a lot of bread, was shot dead while attempting to escape from the penitentiary on Thursday last.

"Which," asked Zimmermann, putting a very pertinent question to his correspondent, "is the real hereditary sin of humanity? Do you imagine that I shall say pride, or luxury, or ambition? No! I shall say indolence. He who conquers that, conquers all."

☞ Vera Cruz dates of the 4th, received at Havana, state that Puebla has not been taken by the French, nor did they appear to progress very rapidly.

☞ Gold sold at 139 in New York at 1 o'clock on Thursday.

LETTER FROM ILLINOIS.

WESTERN ILLINOIS, March 4.

Dear Gazette:—I am agreeably surprised to find your paper still comes. I wish I could spare you a dollar for it. Still more I wish you would edit a Chicago daily. As sickness in my family has kept my other letter unfinished till last night, instead of a postscript I send you a fresh letter on a theme less dry. I head it Western Copperheads.

This is not here a term of burpetology. I am not even absolutely certain that there is in the northern U. S. a venomous reptile that is not furnished with rattles, and therefore belonging to the Genus Crotalus. But it is asserted unfortunately that there is another, the Copperhead, if not still another, the Cotton-mouth. I am almost compelled to believe in the Copperhead, though I never heard of an instance of a bite fatal to man or beast. But then it is quite difficult to collect the names of ten persons killed by venomous serpents in the U. S. within the last hundred years.

But as Rattlesnakes remind us of secession, the Copperhead, a Rattlesnake minus his open acknowledgment of his character, very naturally suggests a class here whose existence is a moral and financial puzzle. They bear to this war for national existence the same relation that the Tories did to our first, but with a wonderful difference.

The future of the Tory was a conquered America, in which the estates of wealthy Whigs would have paid all the costs of the war, if their lives did not also pay the forfeit of the enterprise. Into that future they were to emerge from their troubles undiminished in wealth, and the sole leaders of the new existence of the colonies. They were to be absolute gainers by the war and relatively great gainers. But there were other and better notions that actuated the Tory of 1776. Fealty to his King and his oath kept many a man on the side we now call the wrong one.

But the future of the Copperhead is a most gloomy and repulsive one. Of "the Constitution as it is and the Union as it was" we shall hear no more while the world stands. In what part of the year 1862 was it uttered for the last time—a forlorn utterance of what was impossible from the date of the attack on Sumter? The Constitution as it is, will indeed survive, but in despite of these gentlemen; but some of its provisions will be as obsolete as that which forbids the prohibition of the slave traffic previous to 1808. But the Union (or no Union) as it was, they and we know never will be again. What then is their future? An immense war debt shall be paid entirely by taxation, and by the taxation of a smaller nation than once extended from the St. Croix to the Rio Grande. Either it shall be bounded by the Ohio or Lake Champlain. If New England is left out, slavery shall have a legal existence in their nation. Abolitionists shall be expelled; U. S. stocks in their hands shall be confiscated; as also, if possible, their share in the navy. But if the "Wayward Sisters" go in peace, that peace shall be such as existed between England and Scotland; or it would be, were not the navigation of the Mississippi a mightier subject of quarrel than ever had two nations since the world began.

And what of the future of slavery? Men that have been drilled and armed and stood fire unflinching, shall again be driven to daily toil, see their wives and daughters violated, and their children sold from them unresisting! Men, women and children who are now learning to read in thousands, shall, in rice swamps and cotton fields, unlearn the science by which passes are forged, and insurrection plotted and spread by letter. Unconfiscate slaves of loyal masters who ground the case of 1862 for one-third of the crop, and would then work no cheaper, will again become chattels personal, with no rights that white men are bound to respect! The Copperhead must have a wooden interior, to dream of such things.

No. They cannot disguise the fact that two billions of war debt must be paid either from the estates of millionaires that made the war, or from the labors of those against whom it was waged: or that the property of the North shall be made indiscriminate plunder. Which of these do they choose? This is a question that I would like to have any able candid Peace Democrat answer.

I. F. H.

Concluded to-morrow.

NEW ENGLAND SCHOOLS.—Mr. Gunnison, of Scarboro, Me., is the leader of the opposition in the Maine House of Representatives. In a late speech on the Agricultural College, he took excellent ground, and his remarks upon the importance of fostering education—the education of the common people—and his emphatic compliment to New England, and to her loyalty because of her superior education, and his equally emphatic declaration that, but for the ignorance of the masses of the South, there would to-day be no rebellion, did not fail to elicit applause, not only from the lobbies, but from the body of the House.

☞ A bill to compel stock boards to make their sales publicly has been brought before the New York Assembly.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A N. H. soldier, named John L. Smith, encamped near Poolesville, Md., went out a short time since to get straw to lie on. He went without his pistol to a farm-house, about three-fourths of a mile from the camp, where there was a large stack of straw, and commenced tying up a little bundle of it. A rebel approached the other side of the stack and stood gazing at him—no Union soldier was in sight or near. John raised his straw. The man said, "you put the straw down, or I will shoot you." "No," replies John, and shouldered his straw and started. The rebel drew his pistol and fired. The shot missed. John looked round, but kept on. The rebel fired again, and the ball went entirely through the calf of his leg. John walked on. The rebel advanced, and fired again, the ball shattering the second finger of his left hand; John still clung to his straw. The rebel continued advancing, and fired the fourth time. He missed. He shot again, and the ball pierced John's blouse, but did no further harm. The man fearing that so many reports would produce alarm, then turned and fled. John limped along to a house, and alarmed the inmates; information was sent to the camp; immediately a squad of men with a stretcher were started after John. The cavalry were sent in pursuit and the rebel was captured. John was soon reached, and placed on the stretcher. As they started from the house, he turned to the Captain and said, "hang to the straw, I am bound to have that."

—— Gen. Gilman Marston, of Exeter, is in Concord. The Independent Democrat says he is looking well, though his arduous military duties have silvered his hair considerably since he left the State.

—— The Concord Democrat contains an order to the Governor, and signed by Adj. Gen. Thomas, which declares that "by direction of the President, Lieut. A. J. Edgerly, 4th Regt. N. H. V., is dismissed the service, for circulating 'Copperhead Tickets,' and doing all in his power to promote the success of the rebel cause in his State."

—— Hon. E. H. Rollins is to speak in Connecticut until the election, on Monday, April 6th.

—— The Concord Independent Democrat seems to hint that, if it be possible, the official count and investigation is to show that Hon. Daniel Marcy has not a majority of the votes for Member of Congress.

—— The N. Y. Tribune started a report that the officers of Dartmouth College did their best to defeat the election of Prof. Patterson, their Colleague, to Congress.—The facts are that President Lord, one College Professor, and one in the Chandler School voted against Prof. Patterson, while the remaining thirteen all voted for him.

—— The new Democratic daily paper in Manchester is to be issued on Monday.—Col. T. P. Pierce, formerly Postmaster in that city, is to be a joint proprietor in the concern, and have charge of the financial management. It will be issued from the Union Democrat Office.

——A dispatch from the Concord Statesman office says: "The official vote for member of Congress in our First District will not be declared until May. We believe Mr. Marcy to be elected by from 50 to 75 majority. Eastman ran behind the combined Governor vote of Gilmore and Harriman."

—— Lieut. Col. G. W. Frost, of the 15th Regiment, at New Orleans, has resigned, and returned to his home in Newmarket.

A BOSTON NOTION.—There is a society in this modern Athens called "The Industrial Aid Association," of which Mrs. O. W. Holmes is the leading manager. They have a house in Otis Place where Mrs. Holmes is found six days in the week superintending the employment of a thousand women, threefourth of whom belong to soldiers' families. Having secured a contract with the government for soldiers' shirts, they pay double the price given by other contractors for work, and thereby save multitudes of families from starvation. The rooms serve also as a sewing school for adults.—Each woman receives a dollar's worth of work per week, and more than a hundred thousand shirts have been made already.

☞ The Massachusetts Legislature has again killed off the proposition to give the State aid to volunteers in the navy as well as those in the army. The subject was before the House again on Wednesday on a motion to reconsider the vote whereby the bill was refused a third reading on Monday, and by a yea and nay vote they refused to reconsider by a vote of 83 yeas to 123 nays. The members from the country who have no constituents in the navy, will not be convinced that seamen are as much entitled to the bounty as soldiers.

☞ Brig. Gen. H. W. Benham, once was recently engaged on special duty at the forts in this harbor, has assumed command of the Engineer Brigade, attached to the Army of the Potomac.

☞ F. R. Johnson, of the 13th N. H. regiment, was one of 275 sick and wounded soldiers who arrived at Portsmouth Grove, R. I., Hospital, on Tuesday, by steamer from Washington.

☞ Some time ago an item went round in the papers, stating, for substance, that Rev. Charles Beecher, of Georgetown, Mass. had been tried for heresy and acquitted. This is not exactly correct. The facts are: he was called up before his ministerial brethren; they passed the following resolutions, but let them "sleep in silence," not wishing too much discussion; but now that the erroneous statement has been published, one of the fraternity, having "full liberty" to do so, has brought the resolutions before the public, in the Newburyport Herald, as follows.

"Whereas the Rev. Charles Beecher, a member of this Association, published in the Boston Traveller of July 19, 1862, two sermons, advocating the doctrine of pre-existence;

And whereas the said sermons have been extensively understood to deny the views commonly held in our churches respecting the doctrine of the Atonement and of the Everlasting punishment of the Wicked, (to which we rejoice to say, he has before us this day expressed his firm adherence,)—Therefore

Resolved, that we disclaim all sympathy with the leading doctrine of said sermons, and exceedingly regret their publication, both on account of the ERROR they inculcate, and the false impressions they have produced concerning those vital doctrines of our faith referred to. We also earnestly hope he will so discharge his ministry in the future, as to correct as far as possible such false impressions."

☞ It is stated that information has been received from Richmond by the Government that rich and prominent rebels, including Jeff. Davis's Secretary Benjamin for one, are converting the bulk of their property into foreign exchange—a significant circumstance. They are also making remittances to New York through the medium of their State stocks, which enjoy a fictitious value in the market there.

ANCIENT LOGIC.—Zeno the philosopher believed in an inevitable destiny. His servant availed himself of this doctrine while being beaten for a theft, by exclaiming, "Was I not destined to rob?" "Yes," replied Zeno, "and to be corrected also."

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1863. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended in the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give me any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without being able to rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may25o

Rubber Band Carpet Sweeper.

TRY IT! TRY IT!!

It saves Money; it saves Carpets; it saves Furniture; it saves Labor; it is cheaper than Brooms at five cents apiece.

It gathers up all dust, dirt, and loose lint on the carpets, and raises no dust to settle on the furniture, drapery, or ornaments, or to smother, stifle and irritate the lungs.

It does not wear the carpets half so much as brooms or any other sweeper.

It is the only practicable sweeper made, and the only article fit to sweep a carpet.

With our late improvement it gives universal satisfaction to all who use it according to directions. For sale at No. 12 Market Street by

CITY COUNCIL.—In Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening, the committee on the proposed new school house in District No. 1 reported that the Hanover street Chapel could be purchased for $5000, and recommended that it be bought for that purpose: accepted and referred to the committee on finance, with power to act provided the appropriation be made.

The ordinance relating to the City Police was taken from the table, considered, and laid over for one week. As at present drawn it provides for a Marshal, Assistant Marshals, and Night Police, the number, salaries, &c., to be determined annually by the Board of Aldermen; the Police to be on duty every night (not every other night, as at present,) and to be subordinate to a Captain having the general direction of their movements. It is proposed also that the Marshal shall have greater control over his subordinates, and that all shall be more directly under the authority of the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen.

The supplementary appropriation bill was received from the Common Council and, under a suspension of the rules, passed in concurrence without amendment.

The subject of purchasing the Old South Meeting House was re-committed to the committee, with power to act.

Plans were adopted for a new Hook and Ladder House, and a special committee authorized to erect the same.

In the Common Council, the committee on the Fire Department reported that in consideration of the greatly increased expenses of the city, it is inexpedient to purchase a steam fire engine at present.

A supplementary appropriation bill was passed, providing as follows:—

To pay damages in the Palmer case, and expenses of suit	1,000
Board of 9 months' volunteers	900
Purchase of Old South Meeting House	800
" Hanover st. Chapel, & repairs	5,500
Additional for Stable and Hook and Ladder House	1,000
	$9,200

N. H. UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

We have already given a short account of the Convention held at Manchester last month for the purpose of organizing a State Unitarian Association. Nearly every parish in the State was represented. The Convention was addressed by Henry A. Bellows, Concord; Samuel Hale, Dover; Col. Webber, and Rev. Mr. Stevens, Manchester; Rev. Mr. Barber, Rev. Mr. Bowles, Rev. Mr. Clark, of Wilton, Rev. Mr. White, of Keene, Rev. Mr. Piper, of Charlestown, and Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, of this city.

The occasion was one of much interest, and the number in attendance from various parts of the State, and the tone of the several addresses indicated the deep interest felt in the subject which had brought the members together.

The following is the Constitution:—

Constitution of the New Hampshire Unitarian Association.

Article 1. This Association shall be called and known as the New Hampshire Unitarian Association, and its members shall consist of such of the various Parishes of that denomination in the State, as shall be represented therein by Pastors and delegates; together with such other persons as shall be admitted to be members by vote of the Association.

Art. 2. Its officers shall consist of a President, two Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and seven (7) directors, to be chosen yearly at the annual meeting.

Art. 3. There shall be held every year an annual meeting for the choice of officers and other business of the Association. To be called by the Secretary, at such time and place as may be designated by the Directors; and other meetings may be called by him at any time when requested by them.

Art. 4. For the purpose of effecting a temporary organization, the officers hereby designated may be chosen upon the adoption of this Constitution, to hold their offices until others are chosen at the annual meeting.

Art. 5. The funds of the Association will be raised by the voluntary contributions of individuals, and contributions by the churches.

Art. 6. The duties of the Directors will be to take charge of the general concerns of the Association and to adopt such measures as may be best calculated to promote its objects; and the duties of the other officers are such as their names indicate.

Art. 7. The objects of the Associat on will be, to promote the growth of pure and liberal christianity—to cultivate fraternal feelings among the societies—to deepen and enlarge their sympathies with each other—encourage their efforts—strengthen the hands of feeble churches—stimulate the building up of others—and generally by combining and organizing our strength, to give increased power to the doctrines and principles which we cherish.

Art. 8. While the object of this Association will be more directly to develope and strengthen the power of Liberal Christianity in New Hampshire, it will at the same time seek to increase our sympathy and strengthen our connection with the General Association, and with Liberal Christians everywhere.

Art. 9. This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting by a two thirds vote.

The foregoing Constitution having been adopted, the Association was organized by electing the following named officers:—

President—Henry A. Bellows, Concord.
Vice Presidents—W. H. Y. Hackett, of Portsmouth, and George Tilden, of Keene.
Secretary—Rev. James DeNormandie, of Portsmouth.
Treasurer—C. L. Richardson, of Manchester.
Directors—E. S. Cushing, Charlestown. Samuel Hale, Dover. John A. Baldwin, Nashua. John H. White, Lancaster. A. W. Stevens, Manchester. Onslow Stearns, Concord. Charles Burley, Exeter.

OLD IRONSIDES REBELS.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says the Navy Department has just discovered itself in a serious dilemma, owing to the sturdiness of Old Ironsides—Commodore Charles Stewart. Some time since Congress made him a Flag Officer, on a salary of $4500 a year. A recent session "promoted" him to the rank of Rear Admiral, on an income of $2500 a year. As the first law was never repealed, the old hero fails to appreciate the advantage of paying $2000 for an empty title. Sec. Welles sent him a commission, which was most courteously returned. A second was declined with grace—and I learn that a third has been exquisitely refused. A captain in the Navy, on Thursday last, asked the Flag Officer how the matter would end. "I never surrendered anything given me by the Government," replied the captain of the Constitution, "and I am not going to contract a bad habit now."

☞ New Jersey does not want any more of the colored population, contrabands or otherwise. The Assembly has passed a bill declaring that every negro or mulatto coming into the State is to be transported to Liberia or the West Indies, at the expense of the State. This is rather inviting the "contrabands" in, than keeping them out, for if New Jersey means to be at the expense of their deportation, those who do not want them will send them all to that State.

"A GRISWOLD FOR AN ALABAMA."—There is a beautiful thought in the address of the ladies of England, in reply to Mrs. Stowe. "You have sent us the Griswold for the Alabama." Not "a Roland for an Oliver,"—not tit for tat, but good for evil. Let it pass into a saying in our mother tongue, "a Griswold for an Alabama," when good is returned for evil.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer has so little hope of assistance from the North that it says Vallandigham will soon be found urging a vigorous prosecution of the war. The rebels might as well make up their minds, first as last, that only the smallest fraction of the North will ever consent to a division of the Republic.

☞ In one county in Maryland there are seven hundred acres of strawberries, and two persons in that State have each one hundred and twenty acres, and three others one hundred each in strawberry-fields.

A False Gem: A strata gem. "Open to Conviction!" A criminal at the Assizes.—Woman's Mission: To get a husband as soon as possible. To the Advocates of the Early-closing Movement: Shut up!

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake; evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Pulsifer, Jacob Wendell, Capt. Jacob Thompson, Gen. J. G. Hadley, G. Melvin Huntress, Jos. D. Akerman, James F. Shores, Wm. C. Newton, Horton H. Walker, Benj. Cheever, John Trundy, Richard L. Lambert, Joseph Stiles, John Senter, Wm. Bell, Cyrus Plumer, Freeman Hurd, James M. Locke, Daniel L. Randall, Isaiah Wilson, Charles E. Roberts—of Portsmouth; Samuel C. Dixon, Daniel I. Pryor, Cushman Pryor, of Treffethen's Island; Geo. N. Dixon, Samuel F. Paul, Elias Germick, Timothy Dame, Eliot; Wm. S. Locke, Benj. Fernald, Mrs. Wm. Locke, Kittery; R. F. HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It leaves the wash free from clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing usually done in tub.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency so rolling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be set on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

Pin Worm Syrup.

Just received Dr. Gould's PIN WORM SYRUP—the only safe, sure and effectual remedy ever offered to the public for the removal of Pin Worms. The above valuable medicine for sale at the Medicine Store of B. HUTCHINGS.

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces Tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and those dangerous distempers leave you. With bile, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with the blood "the life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This blood-cleansing combines virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, as indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and most remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. These cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that not only fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and rigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more efficacious than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, in all diseases of

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience, combined with the most extensive and decisive success, he has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

CONSTITUTIONAL AND SYPHILITIC

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, gallant distress in the region of pleasure, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Bubons, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms, which follow in the wake of those who have sought pleasure in the sensual indulgence of a moment, as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary practice, ruinous to the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Disorganization of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mental effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, nervousness, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Persons who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board in order.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of symptoms. Those who have tried in vain the Nostrums of Quackery, and have given up in despair, can place confidence in the skill of the old Physician, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Fee $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DEWEY, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, such as Ulcers, or ulcerating of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy cures guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that no fee will be demanded until the patient is cured, the attendant person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in public and private practice of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to the above practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every title and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain relief.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

N. B.—Dr. Dow imparts and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large cooking Reservoir for hot water, also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would asks those about remodelling, or building dwellings, to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, it cannot tend to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objections aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great quantity of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been contrived, some requiring but little improvement over former me hods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases are lighter than the air, and rush off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is entirely obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, must necessarily ascend and pass through the division of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No Setting apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they must with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and prevent of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—equal would refer to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert H. Hatch, Esq.,
A. Iron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
H. amy F. Wendell,	John Stee, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the deficiency, so that it can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a tumbler, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. Which all who wear it declare, after a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1853.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he finds it to be much the BEST MATERIAL in the market, and is now prepared to do good work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER, as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and gums. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than it plates of gold or silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.

B. G. GOODALL.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. ROGERS, Dr. GLIDDEN and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety; with Ether, Teeth polished to the natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention. All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do and warrant.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frost Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues, testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
To the world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every man fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

KOSSUTH AND THE QUAKERS.—Eight years ago Kossuth wrote a letter to the Society of Friends, on account of one of their annual peace circulars having been sent to him. We copy a portion of the concluding paragraph:—

You say it is written: "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will toward man."

But I say unto you, your version of the Gospel is apocryphal. The text runs thus: "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to good-willing men." (Gloria in excelsis Deo, et pax in terra hominibus, bonae voluntatis.)

Your doctrine of "peace at any price," and war at "no price" is good will to ill-willing men, and ill will to good-willing men.

War is a terrible remedy—but a remedy it is. The fire burns some, but it warms all. The hurricane uproots trees, and dashes the ships to fragments, and buries men in the deep; but it cleanses the earth, and keeps off stagnation from the air and sea. Would you put out the fire, and do away with the hurricanes? These things must be. So it is with just and necessary wars. Help to make them advantageous to mankind, but do not shout "Peace!" while there is oppression, or else you are guilty of shouting "Tyranny!"

I have seen a bust of William Penn, the founder of the City of Friends, bearing the motto—"Pax quæritur bello."

"Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to good willing men!"

KOSSUTH.

"Peace is acquired by War.

A "BALD-HEAD."—Some suppose that this expression in 2 Kings 2: 23, alludes to the head being uncovered. I was not a little astonished in the East, says Mr. Roberts, when I first heard a man called a bald-head who had a large quantity of hair on his head; I found, upon enquiry, it was an epithet of contempt. A man who has killed himself is called "a bald-headed suicide;" a stupid fellow, "a bald-headed dunce." Of those who are powerless,—"What can those bald-heads do?" Hence the epithet has often been applied to the missionaries. If a man is told that his wife does not manage domestic affairs well, he replies, as if in contempt of himself, "What can a bald head do? Must he not have a wife of the same kind?" Let a merchant or any other person, who is going on business, meet a man who is really bald, and he will assuredly refuse to attend to the business; and pronounce, if he dare, some imprecation on the object of his hatred. Sometimes he will repeat the proverb, "Go, thou bald-head, pilferer of small fish, and sucker of bones cast away by the goldsmith." Call a man a mottigum, that is, bald-head, (which you may do, though he have much hair,) and then abuse, or sticks or stones will be sure to be your portion. Thus the epithet implies great scorn, and is given to those who are weak or mean.

It is wonderful how little interest men of general learning feel in medical science. They allow their wives to select their physician and the mode of treatment—allopathy or hydropathy, or homœopathy, just as it happens, and her preference may be founded on her admiration of the taking manners of the doctor: and yet the health of a family is jeoparded.—Cor. Newbryport Herald.

"Where is the East?" inquired a tutor one day of a very little pupil. "Where the morning comes from," was the prompt and pleasant answer.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Skirmishes, generally favorable to us, are reported near Camp Dick Robinson, Ky.—The forces are about equal, our troops, under General Carter, having the advantage of position. A general engagement is expected soon. John C. Breckinridge was at Tullahoma on the 24th; consequently he is not in command of the band of invaders near Danville.

There are contradictory reports from Kentucky. One is that Danville has been evacuated by the rebels, and that the recent "invasion" of Kentucky was merely a rebel cavalry raid.

A Cincinnati dispatch, 27th, says the rebel force in Kentucky is believed to be about 6000 men, under Gen. Pegram.—Many rebels have been taken prisoners within a few days, among them two Majors and a Paymaster with $15,000 in Confederate money. No apprehensions are felt for the safety of Lexington. The Federal wagon trains, stores and camp equipage from Danville and Richmond have reached Lexington in safety.

The rebels at Port Hudson have a report that the sloop-of-war Richmond had sunk from injuries received on the 15th. Gen. Banks is reported to have fallen back to his fortified camp.

A Fort Pemberton (rebel) dispatch, 20th, says our troops had been defeated and were in full retreat for Yazoo Pass. We have, however, no reliable accounts as yet from any of our forces in that vicinity.

Gen. Joe Johnston has superseded Bragg. Price is reported to have arrived at Little Rock, Ark., where he will soon take the field with Hindman's army.

Gen. Ullman has had for several days protracted interviews with the President and Secretary of War. It is understood that important movements are under discussion.

The Richmond correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says Gen. Lee's whereabouts remain a profound mystery. Also, that in his official report of the Stone River battle, Gen. Bragg severely censured Gen. Breckinridge.

☞ It is reported that on receipt of the news that the Florida had left Barbadoes for England on the 28th ult., with a rebel mail, the Navy Department issued such orders as will be likely to insure the presence of two or three of our most efficient gunboats in the British channel, if not to overhaul and destroy the Florida, then so to circumscribe her theatre of operations as to prevent depredations upon our merchantmen in those waters.

☞ The trousseau and presents of the Princess Alexandria are represented in the English papers as rich and varied. The bridal garment attracted much notice, as fine specimens of needle work. No machine was used, and on each piece were the initials of her Royal Highness, embroidered below the English Crown. The handkerchiefs were ordered from Paris, and are spoken of as masterpieces of their kind.—Only a few of the robes were exhibited, some being too delicate to bear handling.—Her Royal Highness was loaded with costly parting gifts.

☞ The London papers announce a shocking accident in the city during the illumination in honor of the Royal wedding. In the fearful crush of the mob in front of the Mansion House seven women were trampled to death, and many others had their limbs broken and were frightfully wounded. The Lady Mayoress witnessed the catastrophe from her balcony, but of course was powerless to aid the sufferers. One of the women had an infant in her arms, which was saved by being thrown into a wagon, where it was found alive.

☞ At the Washington Navy Yard on Thursday, while experiments were being made with a 50 pounder gun, it burst. 13 persons, composing the gunner's crew, were present, but with the exception of the Chief Engineer, who was slightly injured, all escaped unhurt. A fragment weighing 300 pounds passed through the roof of the battery building.

☞ A dispatch from Albany, N. Y., Thursday evening, reports that the docks and piers were ten feet under water, and the entire north eastern portion of the city was submerged. 1000 feet of the railroad track between East Albany and Troy had been washed away. The river was still rising, but not so rapidly.

☞ The neutral British steamer Nicholas First, with a valuable cargo, consisting in part of 16 tons of powder and 170 cases of rifles, has been captured by the Federal steamer Victoria, off Wilmington, and arrived at Beaufort.

☞ It is stated that the total gold yield of California has been not less than seven hundred millions of dollars.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By Uncle Toby.

Revolutionary Letter—from Col. Nath'l. Peabody to Josiah Bartlett—showing how gloomy some patriots were in '79, when they looked back to '76, and thought everything was going to ruin.

Philadelphia, 13th July, 1779.

Dear Sir:—I Gratefully acknowledge the Rect. of your favour of the 19th ult., with proposal for a form of Government in that State. I have also had ye pleasure of reading yours of the 25th ult., to General Whipple, and am exceedingly pleased with sundry matters of information Contained in those letters—(some of which I shall beg leave to write more fully upon hereafter.)

I think the State have Conducted prudently with respect to the New Hampshire Grants. Part of the Committee sent by Congress to investigate ye Grievances and Designs of the People on those Grants have lately returned to this place, their report not yet made known to Congress—Suppose I shall be able to give it you in my next.—Col. Ethan Allen and Mr. Fay have lately been in this City, whereby they missed of being present at the Conference at Bennington. I enclose you a hand bill, siting forth the Conduct of the People in said Grants, upon which ye late Complaints from New York against them were founded—also several News-papers. In my last to his Hour. Mr. President Weare, I sent sundry papers and hand bills, hope they will arrive safe.

I am happy to hear the State have so readily Complyed with ye indispensably Necessary Resolves of Congress respecting a Tax, for their proportion of the 45,000,000 Dollars at this Critical situation of our Finances; and for their raising their Quota of Troops, as the most vigorous exertions in the People, at this time, is absolutely necessary to appreciate our Currency and credit, and support our diminished Army, for without it would be the height of presumption to expect a short and successful War, or a happy and honorable Peace. But my Dear Sir when I take a retrospective view of these truly Patriotic Characters which at first adorned the Councils of these United States, and laid a foundation for a Vast Empire, an Asylum for Civil and Religious Liberty, whose Generous breas's Glowing with an ardour becoming free born Americans, Vanquished every idea incompatible with industry, frugality, Virtue, and the union, freedom, and happiness of their Native Country, and at the same time reflect how ye scene is now changed; when I see Banqueting, Pageantry, Luxury, Dissipation and unhappy disputes and divisions Spoken against and detected by every honest republican, Standing or making rapid progress where it ought not, I am filled with solemn surprise, and naturally Conclude these aspects portend some dire Event; unless prevented by a speedy reformation! But must dismiss the subject for this time—should I attempt to write to you relative to ye situation and movements of our Army, apprehend it would by no means reach you till after ye several News-papers will have made such Circumstances Public. I think I may venture to conclude that Genl. Whipple may tarry here a few months longer, unless it should be more Convenient for a New Member to Come forward and supply his place in Congress, this is to you but not to the World. Hope you will write me as often as you Conveniently Can, and stimulate others to the like kind office.

You'l please to present my Compliments to his Hour. the President, and ye rest of the Hon'ble. Committee,—and be kind enough to inform me in your next who they are. I am, Dear Sir, with unfeigned esteem and respect, Your most Obedient and very Humble Serv't, Nath'l. Peabody.

Spring Bonnets. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press thus writes of a topic which is supposed to be of especial interest to ladies:—

Spring bonnets were introduced by all our fashionable milliners yesterday, and the few specimens I have thus far been able to detect with the naked eye may be sentimentally characterized as poems in white chip, split straw, and crape, on the natural history of oyster shells; $20 will buy one that is warranted to satisfy the wearer for a whole day, and then for ever for use one rainy Sunday; $25 will purchase a concave scale of white crape attached to a bird-of-paradise feather and trimmings, and protected from grease on the hair by an undercoating of tulle-cap, at once strengthened and aggravated by moss roses and desperately-green leaves. I should say that a bonnet like this ought to keep fresh at least two days under an umbrella, moss roses being quite hardy in this climate.

"To be done with two mice, a rat, a cat and a cataract," is said to have been the order given by a young lady in New York for the dressing of her hair, to a fashionable artist in that city. "Ridiculous!" Not at all. Her great grand-mother, no doubt, had her hair turned up over a cushion two feet high, and powdered into the bargain. Times are as they were; but the latter days in matter of dress, are no more absurd than the former. Let the "menagerie and waterfall style" have its little day, as did the pyramidal "mode" of old—says The Boston Transcript.

☞ Mrs. Hartung, convicted four years ago of the murder of her husband at Albany, N. Y., and who escaped execution by the operation of the amended Capital Punishment law of 1861, was declared free on Wednesday by the unanimous decision of the Court of Appeals. The point decided was, we understand, that having been once tried; her life could not again be put in jeopardy.

☞ Four negro regiments, it is thought, will be raised in Philadelphia. The colored people have offered $60,000 towards completing the organization.

☞ The Supreme Court of Wisconsin has affirmed the validity of the soldiers' suffrage law of that State.

LETTER FROM ILLINOIS.

(Concluded.)

Western Illinois, March 4.

I, too, have an imaginary future. It is a glorious country, reaching from the Lakes to the Gulf, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It has a navy to cope with that of half the world; and the wires from its Capital can summon in a day an army that no power can plant an adversary to in North America. It has no despotism within a free land—no institution incompatible with freedom of speech, no powerful monied interest hostile to our commerce or manufactures. Its rice swamps and sugar fields are the happy homes of a tenantry to whom such a climate is the best in the world, and while they man our navy and garrison some of our forts, their highest ambition is to clothe their wives in the most staring prints of Manchester and Lowell, to increase our commerce and make a market for our manufactures. The owners of the soil they may be; but for one generation or more, probably most of it will be owned by brave men who have hazarded their lives for their country, and by shrewd men who have plundered her in the hour of her greatest distress.

The Copperhead has no nation. He belongs to a sovereign State, whose governor is the supreme head of its militia, and which has a partnership interest in a navy. The head of the Confederation to which his nation is agglutinated, may exercise no act of conscription, nor defend his army from discouraging influences of papers in the pay of the enemy, be that enemy foreign or domestic. In a war with France, the Emperor may legally buy up one paper in each city to predict ill succ ss, censure all measures adopted, and thoroughly impress its readers that the whole war and each individual enterprise is destined to ignominious failure: and should the head of the Confederation interfere, the sacred Constitution is lost forever. The Divine Purpose in the permission of the Copperhead is clear to me. Had these men all blown out their brains ten years ago, our country would now be at peace, and in higher standing among the nations of the earth than ever before. Their extinction would be the return of the joys of Washington and fine patriotism. Now their political suicide is not far off. The gloomiest of McFingal's predictions apply to them.

Here I would quote from his speech in the Turnip bin, but the book is not found in this region. The buying of legislators may cease with the buying of field hands and carpenters and cooks. These politicians will be harmless in all coming time. I do not look for a political millennium just now, but these men will no longer have the control of a party in the nation. Whether Ben Butler is better than they, I know not; he is certainly wiser.

No national boundary will ever run between Northern Illinois and New Hampshire. We are men of the same blood with you—of the same spirit with you. We cannot spare New England, we cannot spare New Orleans. We will not belong to a weak nation, a small nation, of a nation. God has given us a broad and beautiful land; we have bound it together with rails and wires of iron, and the soul of that network is fire and lightning. Men cannot rend it asunder—Devils and Copperheads shall not. We will fight the one with fire, and the other with hemp first. Our country, one and inseparable, shall survive the petty principalities of Europe, and live till one despotic scepter, or one republican rule, sways over the whole of that peninsula of the Eastern Continent.

Yours, truly, I. F. H.

A New Boy's Book.—Messrs. J. E. Tilton & Co., Boston, will shortly issue an illustrated book for boys, entitled "The Drummer Boy," by the author of "Father Brighthopes." It will give the soldier life of a young boy, born in the vicinity of Boston, from his enlistment and introduction as drummer boy into camp at Lynnfield through the campaign of Gen. Burnside in North Carolina. It is truthful as a history of this interesting period, and the author's remarkable talent as a writer will incite great expectations. The book is to be one of a series of stories of the rebellion, for youth.

☞ A second auction sale of 30,000 tons Scranton coal took place in New York on Wednesday. The bidding was spirited.—Three thousand tons chestnut coal sold at $5 17 1-2 per ton; 6000 tons stove coal at $5 45 and 5 52 1-2; 3000 tons egg sized at 5 25 a 5 27 1-2; 4500 tons grate coal at 5 32 1-2 and $5 50; 4500 tons steamboat coal at $5 55 and $5 85; 9000 tons lump coal at $5 25 and $5 52 1-2.

☞ The other day while Artemus Ward was dining with a friend at the Astor House, New York, somebody made off with his best Sunday overcoat "containing papers of no value," &c. Artemus says that Mr. Astor is the best cook in the city, but he can't forgive him for losing his overcoat. However, he has offered to compromise the matter, and says if the thief will bring back the coat he will say nothing about the papers! He thinks Greeley took it.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on by putting it on the tub and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any further comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

Rye, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of Dr. Swett's Medicines.

Josiah Jenness.

Portsmouth, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, which finally cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. Lowd.

From Elder I. Chesley, Lee, May 31, 1841.

Dr. Swett: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your Panacea and Humor Wash. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." Israel Chesley

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

"THE NEW GYMNASTICS!"

DR. DIO LEWIS, of Boston,

The Originator and eminent Teacher of the new and amusing system of Gymnastic Exercises,

For Ladies and Gentlemen, will give one (only) of his interesting and entertaining

LECTURES AND EXHIBITIONS

on the subject of GYMNASTICS, &c., as relating to health, strength and beauty,

AT THE TEMPLE, PORTSMOUTH,

On Friday Evening, April 3d.

Examples of the Exercises will be given by several young ladies and gentlemen of this city—and others from the audience will probably have an opportunity to participate.

TICKETS 15 cts., to be had at J. H. FOSTER'S, and the Door.

Commence at half past 7 precisely.

Per order Com. Arr.

☞ The annual school meeting in District No. 1 was held on Thursday evening, and quite largely attended. The meeting was called to order by the clerk of last year, and Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett was chosen moderator. William C. Hatch, Esq., was elected clerk for the ensuing year, and Messrs. Albert H. Ham and T. H. Miller were chosen committee for three years.

☞ Prof. Patterson, who was elected Representative to Congress from the Third District, at the late election, was in town on Friday. He left in the afternoon for Portland, where he was to speak at a Union meeting in the evening.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Two boys, pupils at the Manchester High School, have been arrested for throwing snow balls and breaking glass in the school building.

—— New Boston will celebrate the coming 4th of July by exercises in commemoration of its centennial existence. An Address will be delivered by Hon. Clark B. Croghen of New York, a native of New Boston.

—— The Nashua City Council has organized by choice of Theodore H. Wood, Democrat, as President of the Common Council. On the 80th ballot Jacob D. March, Republican, was elected clerk.—John G. Kimball, Republican, was choosen City Clerk.

—— The Manchester City Farm last year brought to the treasury a net profit of over $1000.

—— The recent rains have somewhat threatened a flood; streams are rising, rivers breaking up, and bridges are in danger. On Thursday morning, as the first train on the Concord road was going into Manchester, a gentleman crossing the track discovered that a culvert had been washed out by the water, leaving the rails entirely unsupported for a distance of 4 or 5 rods. He signalized and succeeded in stopping the train just as the locomotive reached the dangerous spot.

—— Wm. F. Sanborn Esq. has been appointed Postmastar of Kingston, in place of Albert Brown, Esq., resigned.

☞ Two weeks since a big robbery was reported at Detroit. It was done in the evening. Every exertion has been made to ferret out the thief, and now it turns out that it was no other than the wife of the gentleman "robbed." She had taken the valuables and concealed them from her husband for the laudable purpose of keeping him at home evenings. But of course she had to tell her friend, and so it leaked out.

☞ Benevolent individuals in Boston are making active exertions in behalf of the wife of Tuckerman. The Boston Post deems it necessary, for the good name of the city, to state that before her appearance at the bar of the Court, assistance had been tendered and efforts made to arrest the downward course of the unfortunate and misguided woman.

☞ Orders have been issued requiring all packages sent by mail to soldiers in Hooker's army to pass through headquarters Post Office for security. This arrangement was made in consequence of the discovery that in several cases soldiers have received suits of citizens' clothes by mail to facilitate their desertion.

☞ Prentice, of the Louisville, Ky., Journal, says:—

In a new rebel conscription act, every negro who has the least cross of white blood in his veins is to be pressed into the rebel army. There is impartial justice in this.—It shows that those rebel law-makers are too magnanimous to exempt even their own children.

☞ The light from the burning of the National Theatre, Boston, was seen at Manchester, and supposed to be from the burning of a building in some town not far distant.

A "contraband" servant in Cincinnati was sent to market for a porter-house steak which proved to be very tough. The gentleman asked him what sort of a steak he ordered; "a boarding house steak, sah," he replied.

☞ The shoes furnished men who ship in the navy, in some instances, are so poorly made that they drop to pieces after being worn only one or two days, and have soles no better than the souls of their manufacturers. A single row of short pegs is all that holds the thin bottom to the upper leather, while a piece of wood is inserted to give stiffness to the under part. The Boston Post says a contractor who would furnish such an article should be made to swallow it; and between us and the Post, we think it is about right.

A Union League is to be organized in Amesbury and Salisbury, a large number of names of men heretofore connected with all parties having been attached to a paper proposing an organization of this kind.

☞ Sometime between Sunday and Wednesday evening, the Orthodox Church in West Newton was broken into and robbed of the carpet in the broad aisle and in front of the pulpit. The robbers have since been arrested, and the property recovered.

NAVAL INSIGNIA—Admirals are to wear on their shoulder straps two stars, with an anchor between, while Commodores will wear one star and an anchor. They will rank with Major and Brigadier Generals.

☞ The Maine Legislature adjourned sine die on Thursday. Fast Day has been appointed in that State for Thursday, April 16th.

☞ The Maine Legislature has passed a bill giving a bounty of $100 to each soldier enlisted under the late conscription act, who shall actually go to the war.

I will rather think that God did not make the world, than that he will fail to be very good to the creatures that he has made.—Dr. Whichcote.

☞ Menotti Garibaldi, son of Gen. Garibaldi, has gone to Poland.

☞ Prussia is concentrating troops on the Polish frontiers.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to fulling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best?
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe." "One more step to Independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

From the Journal

SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 2.—Every good citizen of this District who wishes to preserve order and system in our schools, especially the High School, should be sure to attend the meeting this afternoon, and vote to keep in office the Chairman, who has managed admirably,—as we understand an outside movement is to be made against him.

IS YOUR DOG WORTH A DOLLAR?—If not, you must get rid of him before April 1, for you will be taxed a dollar for him if you have one on that day, even if he is disposed of on the next day. By a law of this State passed at the last session, it is made the duty of Assessors of Taxes in this State, to assess on the owner a tax of one dollar for every male dog, and two dollars for every female dog, to be collected with the other taxes assessed. There are at least five hundred dogs in the city not worth a dollar each.

SMALL EARTHQUAKE IN ELIOT.—A short time since, during a fall of rain after a severe spell of cold, a loud noise was heard in the vicinity of Capt. Nathan Spinney's residence, in Eliot. Seeking for the cause, a section of earth, 14 by 9 feet wide, and ten inches thick, was found thrown completely from its place. Probably the effects of the frost, but why it happened after the weather moderated, we do not know.

FRUIT PROSPECTS.—Daniel H. Spinney, Esq. informs us that he finds, on examination of his orchard, that the cold day in February destroyed the peach blossoms and a large proportion of the cherry.

LOUISIANA.

Correspondence of the Portsmouth Journal.

BATON ROUGE, LA., March 7th, 1863.

Editors of the Journal: Thinking that a few lines in regard to affairs here in the South-West might not be altogether unacceptable to the readers of the Journal, I will endeavor to give a brief account of matters here at the capital of the "Pelican State," and this vicinity.

Baton Rouge is not, or rather was not, a very uninviting place. Situated on the left bank of the Mississippi, 130 miles above New Orleans, and a place of some considerable trade in former times, though its chief importance was from the fact of its being the seat of State government. To outward appearances it is not very unlike places of its size at the North; but on closer inspection, everything seems to indicate a lack of that thrift and enterprise to be observed in New England.

Although there are some fine residences here, most of the dwellings are low and unsightly.—Churches and school houses are comparatively few. The State House, only the walls of which are standing, (it having been nearly destroyed by fire on the occupation of the place by our troops this winter,) was once a good looking building, and from it can be had a fine view of the great river, for the "right of way" on which such forces are now contending. The Penetentiary is a vast concern, covering some two acres of ground. Its cells are now vacant, save where some culprit soldier is confined, its former inmates having found their proper level in the rebel army.

There are stationed here at present two divisions, the 1st under command of Major-General Augur, and the 4th under command of General Grover, embracing some twenty regiments of infantry, besides numerous batteries of artillery and squadrons of cavalry. New York and Massachusetts are largely represented in these. The 8th N. H. is in Gen. Emory's division, and is stationed at Plaquemine, twelve miles below here, and the 16th N. H. in which I believe is Capt. Thachers' company, is at Carrollton, a few miles above New Orleans.

As a military post, this is of much importance, being only twenty miles below the rebel stronghold of Port Hudson, and will be made the base of operations for the reduction of that place, which by the way, I think you can look for very soon. Probably ere this reaches you, a movement will be made in that direction.

The general health of the troops is good. The climate is fine and as warm as June in New England. Trees are in their foliage, and flowers in blossom. The men are in good spirits and are confident of success whenever they are called upon to take the field.

I recently had the pleasure of meeting Paymaster A. H. Hoyt, of Portsmouth. It really seemed good to see a Portsmouth countenance.

It is a pleasure to see the smiling face of Capt. John L. Swift, of the Mass. 41st Regiment. He is Provost Judge of Baton Rouge, and is considered "right smart." Some of our Republican friends in Portsmouth will recollect how he let the "Gladiatorus" loose the night preceeding a memorable election, and the effect at the polls the next day.

It seems to be a prevailing opinion here that the days of rebellion are numbered, that the war is nearly over. I can but trust this prediction may prove true. It will be a joyful day to many a poor soldier, when the war is ended, and he returned to his home, the comforts and happy associations of which he will more than ever know how to prize. PORTSMOUTH.

P. S. Since writing the above, the 16th N. H. has arrived here from Carrollton. Capt. Thacher, Lieuts. Wildes and Haven are all well, as are all the Portsmouth company.

Assessors' Notice.

THE inhabitants of the City of Portsmouth are hereby required as the law directs, to exhibit to the Assessors of said City a just and true account of their Polls and Estates ratable by law, on or before the 10th day of April next.

And all persons who do not comply with the above requirement in handing in an inventory of their ratable estate and making oath to the same, may not expect any abatement.

The Assessors or any Justice of the Peace or the City Clerk, are proper persons to administer the oath; and each individual making his inventory shall have an endorsement on the same, certifying that it has been duly sworn to, and the same to be handed to one of the Assessors or left with their Secretary at the City Clerk's office on or before the said 10th day of April next.

Morning Chronicle

☞ Rev. T. S. King delivered in the Music Hall, San Francisco, on the evening of Jan. 20th, a lecture on the "Genius and Poetry of William Cullen Bryant," closing with the reading of an original poem, entitled "Waiting at the Gate." The composition was sent to him in manuscript by the venerable author, with an understanding that it is not to be printed. This was the first lecture of a series to be given by Mr. King on "American Poetry;" each lecture to be enriched by a contribution, like that of Mr. Bryant, from some of our leading writers, such as Longfellow, Lowell, Whittier, and Holmes.

☞ Several released prisoners belonged to the party of 22d Ohio boys whom Gen. Mitchell detailed after the battle of Corinth to destroy a railroad in Georgia, and who were captured in the interior, treated as felons, put in irons, starved and denied light and air for nearly a year. Seven of them were dragged in irons to the scaffold and executed; Lieut. Barrett of Ohio, who received 100 lashes on his back rather than disclose the name of the leader of the expedition, was one of the witnesses.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by forwarding One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, that the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant testimonials of this, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full information of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of getting their applications in a form favorable for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal disease, such as Inflammation, Impotency, Secondary Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Hydrocele, Humors, Frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailing of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases peculiar to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new physiological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain five red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large capacity for hot water. The top is also the warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling their dwellings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, as it furnishes pure warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Meadum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions which need be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (they being few of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and tongue. There are no fissures or open joints to collect food, and consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you can get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for on upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with either. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention. All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials but of given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great care and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A dispatch dated March 15 has been received from Gen. Banks, at which time he had met with no disaster, as rumored.

The Hartford anchored in front of Natchez on the 10th, and Admiral Farragut sent a note to the Mayor stating that if the U. S. gunboats were fired upon by the people of Natchez or by guerrillas, he would bombard the city. The Hartford remained all night and left with the Mononghela in the morning. Another barge with 1000 bushels of coal has been floated past the batteries at Vicksburg, for the use of Farragut's fleet.

The only vessel of Farragut's fleet which has been heard of by our forces opposite Vicksburg is the Hartford. Rebel telegrams from Vicksburg, however, say that the Mononghela passed Port Hudson in her company.

A rebel dispatch states that Morgan had a fight at Auburn, Tenn., on Friday, with an overwhelming Federal force, and was forced to retire.

Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, telegraphs from the Army of the Potomac, that he finds the army in good spirits, with full confidence in their chief and subordinate officers.

There are rumors that Stonewall Jackson is working up the Shenadoah.

40 rebels, disguised as civilians, and nearly all armed with revolvers, were captured near Stratford Court House, Va., March 26.

Danville, Ky., had not been evacuated by the rebels on Thursday evening, when their pickets were surprised by our troops, and retreated in great disorder. The rebel force there is stated to be 2500.

10,000 rebels made their appearance at Somerset, Ky., Mar. 22d, and slowly advanced northward. The telegraph operator at Danvile, Boyle county, closed his office, saying the rebels were within a short distance of the town. The Kentucky river is so swollen that it will hardly be possible for them to cross it for a week, before which time there will be troops successively to resist the attempt. Our cavalry got after the rebel Clake on the 22d, and drove him through Mount Sterling and beyond Owingsville. It is believed that Gen. Burnside will soon take the field.

A Charleston dispatch reports that our fleet at Port Royal has been increased to 150 vessels.

The destruction by our fleet of the rebel steamer Georgiana, off South Carolina, is confirmed. She was a powerful steamer of 407 tons burthen, and 150 horse power, and it was said she was more formidable than the Alabama. She left Liverpool Jan. 21.

The commander of the steamer Peterhof, at New York, reports that when off Charleston on the night of the 24th, saw many bombs flying, and heard the report of heavy guns.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs Hutchings, Illsley, and others.

The officers of the Peterhoff concluded that the guns they heard when 18 miles off Charleston, were engaged in the bombardment of Fort Sumter, in which opinion they were confirmed by the fact that 7 Monitors left Port Royal on the 22d, it was said for Charleston. The flashes and explosions were distinctly seen from half-past 6 to 9 o'clock, P. M., when the steamer was 35 miles off the coast.

Two Federal gunboats attempted to pass Vicksburg on Wednesday night, but the rebel batteries opened on them, sinking one immediately with all on board, and making a complete wreck of the other. The Federal troops were repulsed with considerable loss in an attack on a battery up the Yazoo river. [This reads like a rebel account and may be exaggerated.—Edt. Chron.] The Federal troops are reported to be making another advance against Port Pemberton, with considerably increased strength: every exertion will be made by the rebels to hold the post. It is reported, via Memphis, that two divisions of our troops have entered Yazoo river, via Sun-flower river, and that they landed just above Haines' Bluff, one mile from the rebel fortifications.

Richmond papers speak of the steamer Georgiana as a severe loss; with her cargo she was valued at over a million dollars.

The garrison at Pensacola and all other troops there that could be spared, have been sent to re-inforce Gen. Banks. Our troops still hold the forts and the Navy Yard.

The State Department gives a full contradiction to the report that any reply to Sec. Seward's dispatch declining intervention, has been received from France.

☞ It is stated that President Lincoln, instead of making an extensive trip to New England, with its attendant excitement of speech-making, hotel crowds, etc., has resolved to go down on the Rappahannock, among the soldiers of the Army of the Potomac, to enjoy a few quiet days among the defenders of the Government.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Gov. Berry is on a brief visit to Washington, and will go down to see the 12th Regiment, by their special invitation. The cause of this is said to be a desire on the part of the regiment to give the Governor an expression of their good will towards him, which certain conduct on a former occasion did not seem to warrant. Time has smoothed over everything and the officers of the regiment sent the Governor a written invitation to visit them at their own expense.

——The Manchester American, in speaking of the effect, in that vicinity, of the recent rains, says the greatest amount of damage was caused by the breaking away of the barrier at Dorr's Pond. A great mass of water swept down thro' the valley, directly in front of Judge Clarke's residence, carrying away the bridge at the north end of Elm street, and making a deep chasm there, then rushing into the old road, overflowing a Dyeing Establishment and destroying several hundred dollars' worth of dye stuffs, and injuring the bridge close by, and then sweeping on to the river.

——In the Boston Police Court Hugh Devine and Thomas Welch have been held in $600 for trial for robbing Calvin S. Knight of Pittsfield, of $93 in bank bills, in a saloon on Canal street.

From our Illinois Correspondent.

Extract from the Report of the Illinois Hospital for the Insane. By Andrew McFarland, M. D.

"Soldiers bro't from camp, hospitals, &c.,	14
Friends made insane from anxiety, &c.,	3
Cases produced from war excitement,	1

"Mournful as any table of mortality or suffering must be, especially when made necessary by the crimes of others, the true psychologist sees in the above but a small price for the vast invigoration of the American mind which present events are sure to result in, provided the contest is not carried on to the point of exhaustion. It is a national athleticism on a grand scale—the protracted tournament of a whole people, in which the valetudinarians of a long peace, and the enervations of an ultra pacific policy are to give place to national vigor, and open the dawn of a new national life. We see, if the conditions now indicated do not disappoint us, a fresh infusion into all those streams which make a great national character. We hail our near future as the birth-time of ideas worthy a great people, when science shall take larger strides than ever before, literature receive a new inconceivable impulse, enterprise stretch in all directions its giant arms—when national honor shall be inviolable everywhere, and our country claim her seat among the highest in the councils of the nations. The preparatory school for all this is now open; a school far grander than that which produced our past revolutionary statesmen, and gave science its triumph in the discoveries of Fulton, Franklin and Rittenhouse.

"These anticipations, being based on psychological premises, have the same propriety of expression in these pages that subjects relating to hygeine and sanitary science may have in the report of a hospital for general disease. As the physican, in his rounds among the sick, becomes an accurate observer of the influences which promote or disturb the public health, so, from a field where the mind discussed has its largest congregation, the agency of remarkable events on the mental progress of the community, may be viewed with some degree of profit."

Mr. Editor:—The above met my eye since I wrote you of my views of the future. They correspond so with them, that I enclose them for your readers. We need all the comfort we can legitimately draw from our troubles. I. F. H.

☞ Ship Prince of Wales, at Liverpool, from Melbourne, reports that she was brought to, Feb. 23, lat. 30 N., lon. 44 W., by the Confederate steamer Alabama, who reported having destroyed 34 Federal vessels during the cruise. A beautiful steamer called the Banshee was at Queenstown, Mar. 5, from Liverpool, on her way to run the blockade. She is said to be as straight as an arrow, about 150 feet long, raking masts and funnels, two of them galvanized iron; setting very low in the water; said to be very fast, and constructed of steel plates.

The Vanderbilt arrived at St. Thomas on the 15th from Barbadoes. The Governor of Barbadoes invited Admiral Wilkes to dine with him, but he declined, because he had entertained the pirate Maffit a few days previously. Admiral Wilkes transferred his flag to the Vanderbilt. The Wachusett arrived at St. Thomas on the 16th; also the British steam frigate Phaeton, and two British steamers. The steamer Aries, another blockade runner, started on the 16th, but observing that preparations were being made by the Federals to pursue, turned back, anchored, and applied to the Phaeton for protection, which was afforded. The Vanderbilt left the same day, it was said, for Havana. On the morning of the 19th the Phaeton convoyed the steamers out.—The Wachusett did not follow.

☞ A special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune says the following is now the exact list of Admirals in the navy, which is wrongly reported in the new Register, that document having been at press when the changes were made:—"Active Admirals; Andrew H. Foote, of Conn., John A. Dahlgren, of Pa., Charles Henry Davis, of Mass. Farragut, Goldsborough, and Dupont have been retired. Capts. Sylvanus W. Gordon and James S. Palmer have been made Commodores." We think, however, that this list is at least as incorrect as the U. S. Navy Register.

BYFIELD, MASS., March 26.

Messrs. Editors:—Being on a visit to Deerfield, N. H., I learned some facts concerning Mrs. Anna Jenkins, who died there on Wednesday, March 18th, at the advanced age of 104 years, that may, perhaps, interest your readers.

Mrs. Jenkins was born in Greenland.—Her maiden name was Whidden, and she was a near relative to Wm. and Jos. Whidden on Lafayette Road, and Mark Whidden, of Portsmouth. Her mother was a Langdon—a connection of Sam'l Langdon, Esq. Mrs. Jenkins was a woman of remarkable strength and possessed an iron constitution. She married and settled in Greenland on a farm; her husband died and left her with a family of four small children.—She continued to carry on the farm, and did most of the work herself. She would build stone walls, go into the woods and cut down trees, yoke up the oxen and haul the trees home; prepare all her firewood, &c. As an illustration of her great strength it is said she would lift a calf over the pen in the barn. At one time some ladies were visiting her, and mention being made of her strength she immediately shouldered one of them.

After her children grew up, she removed with them to Deerfield, in 1826. After she was 80 years old, she would go, in the Spring, tap the sugar-maple trees, and carry the sap to the house to boil, carrying a pail full in each hand. On her hundredth birthday her friends made her a donation visit, making her several presents, among them a large print Bible, which she could read without glasses. She obtained a premium on stockings knit when she was over 100 years old, at Rockingham County Fair. In the fall of 1861 a regimental muster was held at Deerfield, and Mrs Jenkins, then 102 years old, rode out and reviewed the regiment.

She has been out but little since, her hearing and sight failing. The last year she was nearly blind, and she has been sick all winter. She outlived all her children and resided with a grand child when she died. She was of exemplary character and was a member of the Congregational Church at Greenland before her removal to Deerfield. She was born in January, 1759, in the old French war; thus she was born in a war, lived 104 years, and died in a war. Yours truly, W. M. C.

FOREIGN.—English advices to Mar. 15th are receive. The American diplomatic correspondence is published. Mr. Adams' letters refer principally to the affair of the Alabama, complaining of England's course in the matter. Mason's letters appeal for recognition, and urged that the blockade be declared a nullity. He is greatly dissatisfied at the refusal of his applications. The Emancipation Society of Manchester has sent a protest to Earl Russell against the fitting out of vessels for the rebels, in England. Earl Russell replied that evidence on oath was required to enable proceedings to be taken. A resolution, offered by Mr. Lindsay, in the House of Commons, to prevent the Admiralty from constructing any more wooden vessels with iron plating, was rejected. Miss Sidell was thrown from a horse in Paris and had her skull fractured.

☞ The London Times, with characteristic impudence, tells Queen Victoria that she must now dry her tears, be a woman, give up her mourning and be a Sovereign again—intimating that the nation is weary of her weeds and regrets.

☞ The city of London's gift to the Princess Alexandra is a diamond necklace worth $50,000.

☞ The crocuses at Washington are in full bloom, the grass on the lawns of the Capitol is green, and a white beaver hat was seen on the avenue Wednesday morning. The Springfield Massachusetts Republican chronicles robins, bluebirds and wild geese flying northward.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer of a late date says: "Cotton is not king now. Corn is king; potatoes, hogs, hay, oats and cattle are sovereign."

☞ Cotton is now selling at 60 cents, less than two thirds of what it brought a month ago, and low enough to start up all our mills.

☞ The rebel Colonel Talcott who constructed the fortifications at Yorktown and Fort Darling, was arrested in New York on Friday and placed in Fort Lafayette.

☞ The steamer Natchez, with 1300 bales of cotton, was destroyed by fire on the 13th, on a trip up the Yazoo.

☞ The bill prohibiting banks and other chartered money institutions from loaning money on gold deposits, passed the New York Assembly on Friday.

☞ A man in Providence kicked his wife to death on Wednesday. Eight little children mourn her.

"Per ardua ad Astor!" exclaimed a travelling scholar, with a slight perversion of Latin, as he elbowed his way through the crowd that choked the entrance of a great New York Hotel.

☞ Gold closed at 142 1-2 in New York on Saturday. Stocks were active and rising.

DISPUTATIONS AMONG D. D'S

What a squabble! Pusey—Newman!—
Who's the false and who the true man?
What a strife! Colenso—Stanley!—
Who's the coward—who the manly?
Denison, McCall, and Jowett!—
Right or wrong? Ah! who can show it?
"Anglicanus," versus Close, sir!
Wrong or right? Alas! who knows, sir?
Oh! the rage—the rant—the rattle
In this fierce polemic battle!
Some defending—some indicting—
Scolding—wrangling—talking—writing!
Some denying—others doubting;
Some for "Prosecution!" shouting.
These condemning—those accusing;
Flattering here, and there abusing!
Here dissenting—there conforming;
Oh! the straining—spoiling—storming!
Sure, of all contentious quarrels,
Ours will bear away the laurels!

Sir John Bowring.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!
THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber nuts nor thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any farther comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

For sale in Portsmouth by THACHER and PRESTON.

Local.

☞ A few gentlemen in this city,—solely for the purpose of benefitting the people by the dissemination of useful knowledge, especially for the young, and more particularly for young ladies and girls—have procured the services of Dr. Dio Lewis, for Friday evening next—as per advertisement. This matter is eminently deserving of the attention of all parents and teachers, as well as the general public. Aside from its great value, the entertainment will be one of no little interest, attraction and amusement.

☞ The school meeting in District No. 2 was held on Saturday afternoon. John Knowlton, Esq., was elected moderator, and M. Bufford, Esq., Clerk. For school committee, Dr. Robert O. Treadwell, Rev. A. J. Patterson and Thomas Tredick, Esq., were elected, the first named being chairman and consequently a member of the High School Committee. The other members of the committee were elected last year,—some serving two and the remainder three years. Those elected on Saturday hold their offices for three years.

☞ Capt. William Stavers, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died in this city, Saturday, March 28, in the 89th year of his age. He was in early life a house joiner, then for years master and owner of coasting vessels; and for many years past was a director in the Piscataqua and Piscataqua Exchange Banks. In all his pursuits he was industrious and honest, prudent and successful. He retained the full use of his faculties, and considerable activity almost to the close of life.

☞ The body of Robert Greenough, of the Mass. 29th regiment, was interred in this city on Saturday last. He was mortally wounded at the battle of Antietam, and died on the same day. He was a grandson of the late Robert Foster, of this city, and was twenty-three years of age.

☞ A death which we publish to day, as occurring at Newcastle, makes the number of 28 deaths of children in the place, during the period of nine months and two days, and chiefly of throat diseases,—and mostly since September.

THE PORTSMOUTH STEAM FACTORY pays a dividend of 6 per cent on the 1st day of April. The Chronicle says that Portsmouth stockholders will be paid at the "Rockingham House." Whether Frank got this up as an April sell, or thought the dividend would be paid at a hotel because the Treasurer is "Eaton," as yet remains undiscovered.—Ballot.

As it happened, "Frank" didn't know anything about the item above, until he saw it in this local column, (as is often the case with items, good and bad,)—though he don't wish to shirk the responsibility of this or anything else for which he should be held. The compositor who put the paragraph in type, late one evening, might have been thinking of the good fare at the Rockingham, as contrasted with printer's pi, and so substituted the word House for (Rockingham) Bank—where we believe the said dividend is to be paid over. However, if our friend of the Ballot "gets refused" at the bar of the hotel named, for his shares, he can present himself at the counter of the Bank with all the better grace.

☞ The Opera Troupe which sang in Portsmouth last week, also gave the same opera in Boston on Thursday evening—and now hear the Transcript's able and candid musical editor respecting the performance:

"Don Pasquale" was pleasantly sung, that is, so much of it as was vouchsafed to the audience. Unfortunately, the harmony of the spheres which pervaded the first act seems to have met with some untimely jar before the curtain rose on the second; and audience and orchestra sat staring and smiling to hear a smart discussion behind the scenes, wound up by a decided "Comincia-mo" from Sig. Susini, whereupon Don Pasquale and Morina, cutting an intermediate scene with its attendant sentiment and ceremony, proceeded briskly to get married, interrupted therein by the appearence of Sig. Brignoli, majestic but rather thunderous of aspect. His reception was hardly genial.

There is a good story, though perhaps not of the freshest, of an artificial asp, which hissed when applied in the tragedy to Cleopatra's bosom, and a French wit, we are told, when asked his opinion of the play, thought he agreed with the asp. Clearly a good many of the audience were uncharitable enough to make Sig. Brignoli responsible for the delay, and—agreed with the asp. They fancied no doubt, that an artist's salary should pay for punctuality, courtesy to the public, and something like a hearty effort, at least, to identify himself with his role. But it is amiable of our tenor—that when he has been particularly naughty, he always sings his repentant sweetest—and then we are a good natured public—va! The rest of the performances went on with no further drawbacks than leaving out a good deal of the opera, and postponing a duet till the end of the evening.

And a correspondent in Boston says:

"I went and saw "Pasquale" last night. Very well sung, but wretchedly cut to pieces. As the Chronicle says: Brignoli came in where he couldn't help it, and it might have added 'and went out again as soon as he could.' I hope public indignation or something else, will force opera managers to stop murdering plots so, by and by. They leave out, oftentimes, some of the choicest morsels of the whole feast."

☞ The snow remained on the ground in this vicinity last year, 1862, till the 17th of April.

For School-house and Lot in Dist. No. 1,	6500 00
For the purchase of the Old South Meeting House,	800 00
For Stable and Hook & Ladder house (additional)	1000 00
	$9200 00

Passed March 26, 1863.
A true Copy.—Attest,
MARCELLUS BUFFORD, City Clerk.

Assessors' Notice.

The inhabitants of the City of Portsmouth are hereby required as the law directs, to exhibit to the Assessors of said city a just and true account of their Polls and Estates taxable by law, on or before the 10th day of April next.

And all persons who not comply with the above requirement in handing in an inventory of their taxable estate and making oath to the same, may not expect any abatement.

The Assessors or any Justice of the Peace or the City Clerk, are proper persons to administer the oath; and each individual making his inventory shall have an endorsement on the same, certifying that it has been duly sworn to, and he is to be handed to one of the Assessors or left with their Secretary at the City Clerk's office on or before the 10th day of April next.

☞ 1st Lieut. Simon R. Marston, of this city, Co. G, 10th N. H. Regt., has been appointed Paymaster in the U. S. army. Ord. Sergt. J. Albert Sanborn, of this city and of the same company, has been promoted to 2nd Lieut. and assigned to Co. H.

☞ The Herald says, Rev. John C. White was elected Associate Rector of St. Paul's Church, Newburyport, in January, and has entered upon the discharge of his official duties; and there is every reason to believe that he will prove an important acquisition to the Christian ministry there.

☞ An infamous den on Liberty street, Newburyport, was broken up by the police last week.

☞ The celebrated American pedestrian, Deerfoot, eclipsed, on the 25th ult., all his former efforts in a match against time, by running eleven miles and a half in forty minutes.

☞ An order has been issued from the rebel Adjutant General's office placing all officers who resign or may resign or may be dropped from the rolls, and those who are cashiered by court martial, back in the ranks as privates.

☞ Sergt. Greenleaf, of the 1st Kentucky Vols., has been discharged from the Union army, to superintend the construction of an iron-clad war steamer. He proceeds at once to Cincinnati for the purpose indicated.

☞ Two of the rebel guards at Chattahoochie bridge, in attempting to arrest a man, shot each other and let the prisoner escape.

☞ In Richmond oranges and lemons were recently sold for $75 per box.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again; as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe." "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are mellow, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure it. Safety.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to rulling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be withhout it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet high, or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eder, a well-known merchant of Orwell, Vt.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet the bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As far as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Swain, Methodist, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Bethlehem, Gapt May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous affection, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which took hold of the disease and finally completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the wholesale house of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enameled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever; until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made me feel better, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face was as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Swain, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have yet found the equal of it for cases of Mahignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to my patients, and I can recommend it with the utmost confidence."

From J. E. Jackson, Esq., Wahsmas, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians of my vicinity, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and none of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and hearty as any man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever; until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made me feel better, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face was as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

"DR. AYER: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have yet found the equal of it for cases of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to my patients, and I can recommend it with the utmost confidence."

From J. E. Jackson, Esq., Wahsmas, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians of my vicinity, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and none of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and hearty as any man, and I speak this in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and I feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Seifert, Esq., the able editor of the Tuskahannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about five years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face and nearly blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. Had these sores spread to his vital parts, he thinks, he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. He immediately ceased their use, and stated his hope from us, to try giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the lotion of potash lotion, as you directed. We began to see the change for the better the first bottle, and we well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now healthy and free as any other. The whole neighborhood believed that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Sibley, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA to be an excellent remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. F. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lagrange, Maine, and a prominent member of the Legislature of Maine.

"DR. AYER: My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilitic Mercurial Disease, which I have had very much to contend with in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can do with more decided advantage, when a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Horn, of New Brunswick, N. J., had troubled about his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, for years. Nothing would heal them and more agonizing for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment, that could be applied, until the proper curing hand of DR. AYER was bestowed. Five cakes are found more inveterate and obstinate than this, and it took several dozen bottles to effect a cure.

Leucorrhea, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Corruption, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, a free use of AYER'S CATHARTIC, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jno. Wm. Wright, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhea, Internal Ulceration, and kindred diseases, which have resisted other treatment, have yielded to it, and I can say for that do not, when the disease is purely dried by local treatment."

A lady unwilling to have her name published, writes from Boston, under date of Nov. 1, 1862:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very obstinate and long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Impurity in the system, are rapidly cured by the EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with a remedy that has never, since he first commenced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath the treatment, all the horrors of venereal taint, impotence, nocturnal emissions, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the bladder and kidneys, Hydrocele, Secondary Symptoms, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to leave as if by magic as the simplest things of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The unmarried or those about marrying should be deeply impressed with the fearful consequences to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the effects produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Preventive, which is the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y Saw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressions and other painful derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariable is the success of his mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of the diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

Letters for advice must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M., as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

Dr. Dow is married and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed, as testimony from six hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would invite those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some portions of which have proved, over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, passed off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are forced to undergo a decomposition of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the smoke pipe, which, in a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles M. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Stier, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions, so that it will fit close to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in use it will be better, as in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that so high and late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has gone to Boston, and purchased the right of the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and gums, and there are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit, and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, $8 a Plate.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BURNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain, and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him in procuring their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The president has informed the Quakers that he has no power to exempt them from military conscription.

The rebels attacked Williamsburg, Va., on Sunday morning, with infantry and cavalry, but were repulsed by the 5th Penn. cavalry. They were also repulsed in an attack on Wingfield, on the Chowan river, and took to the swamps, where our troops are hunting them up.

The rebels are now increasing their forces on the Rappahannock; their number is estimated at 100,000.

The rebels are strongly fortifying James river. Their force between Blackwater and Richmond is said to number nearly 50,000 men.

The rebels are though to be concentrating to resist Rosecrans' advance, not to attack him. They are said to be not less than 60,000 strong, and are fortified at Tullahoma, Stevenson and Bridgeport.—Joe Johnson's headquarters are at Atlanta, Ga.; Bragg is in command of the army, and his headquarters are at Tullahoma, Tenn., whither the rebels are moving provisions from Virginia, as they are suffering from the want of them. There is reason to believe that Van Dorn, with 8000 mounted infantry and cavalry, has moved to strike the Cumberland river below Clarksville to interrupt navigation.

A letter from Hilton Head says all the Monitors, six in number, left that point on the 25th, together with several wooden gunboats, and half a dozen schooners. The Ericsson had just arrived with a floating nondescript in tow, called the "Devil." Its purpose is, it is understood, to clear the channel of torpedoes and other obstructions.

The expedition against Charleston has been delayed, that the torpedo removers, invented by Ericsson, might arrive. The Monitors to be engaged are the Passaic, Patapsco, Weehawken, Nahant, Catskill, Nantucket, Montauk and Keokuk; also the frigate New Ironsides. It is denied that the Montauk was injured by the explosion of a torpedo in Ogeechee river; and that Fort Sumter is iron-clad.

Gen. Saxton confirms the reported success of the negro expedition in Florida.

On Saturday Gen. Gillmore crossed Kentucky river in force, recaptured Danville, and drove the rebels in the direction of Crab Orchard.

Admiral Farragut reports that he saw the wreck of the Indianola about 10 miles above Grand Gulf; she was partially submerged and her upper works were much shattered by the explosion.

New Orleans advices to the 23d state that the Hartford and Albatross appear to have been the only vessels that passed Port Hudson. The Richmond made a gallant attempt to get by, but failed. The destruction of the Mississippi is confirmed; 64 of her crew are missing, 42 of whom are prisoners, and the remainder were killed.—Among the prisoners is Capt. Fontane of the Marines, who was not long since stationed at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Memphis dispatches say it is known for certain that the Sunflower river expedition has arrived safely at its destination, and that a large force under Gen. Sherman has landed above Haines' Bluff. A special Murfreesboro dispatch says the rebels report 15,000 Federals at Savannah, Tenn.; that Grenada is in our possession, and that Gen. Grant is surrounding Vicksburg.

Gen. Grant reports his army to be in excellent condition, contrary to an impression which has prevailed.

The report of the bombardment of Fort Sumter on the 23d inst., given by the officers of the prize steamer Peterhoff, which arrived at New York on Saturday, is very improbable. The Massachusetts left Charleston Bar on the same day and saw nothing of the kind. The S. R. Spaulding has arrived at Fortress Monroe from Hilton Head 26th, and says there had been no movement by our fleet. Moreover, the Richmond papers of the 23d make no mention of the bombardment, as they would most probably have done, had the event occurred.—Boston Advertiser.

☞ We are requested to call the attention of the public to the U. S. securities advertised this morning by parties in New York. They are the best investment that can be made at par, and directly assist the government. Messrs. Fisk & Hatch are a very responsible and reliable house, and any orders they may receive will have prompt attention.

☞ The British steamer Nicholas 1st, captured off Wilmington while trying to run the blockade, is an old ship of about one thousand tons burthen, and is said to have been a prize to the English in the Crimean war. She left England barque-rigged, and put into Nassau, where her main and mizzen masts were taken down. When taken she had but a portion of her foremast standing. She has a very valuable cargo.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Nathaniel Peyton, with two aliases, was arrested in Nashua on Tuesday morning by an officer from Beverly, Mass., after severe resistance, for larceny in Lynn and Beverly. He procured shoe stock to make up and sold it for cash, keeping the proceeds. It is said he is a deserter from the army, and that he has served four years in the State Prison. His operations in Lynn and Beverly have been within three weeks and amount to about six hundred dollars, so far as ascertained. Most of the stock has been recovered.

—— For the last year or two a large amount of freight has disappeared unaccountably, somewhere along the line of railroad between Concord and Boston; at last the leak has been discovered and Thursday morning last a portion of the missing goods were found in three different houses at Nashua, belonging respectively to Albert P. Pierce, brakeman, acting as conductor on Nashua & Wilton R. R., Oscar Davis, stone cutter, and Elbridge M. Dudley, shoemaker. The latter seems to have been the general agent of the concern, disposing of the stolen goods at low prices and places.—All three have been arrested, and several others are implicated. The discovery arose through some family jars or personal disagreement. Over $2000 worth had been taken since last May. Several wagon loads have been recovered.

—— On Thursday afternoon, Mr. James S. Cogswell, while engaged in shingling a stable, in Manchester, was precipitated to the ground by the staging giving way in the centre, and was instantly killed, his head striking upon a bunch of shingles, breaking the skull. Two other men saved themselves by clinging to the staging, one being on each end. Mr. Cogswell was 46 years of age. He was a member of a Masonic lodge and of the Amoskeag Veterans.

—— Mr. Kimball, the new city clerk of Nashua, is unable to perform the duties of his office, owing to the fact that the last years's incumbent, Mr. Marshall, refuses to deliver up the keys of the city safe to his successor.

—— The 5th and 12th are now the only regiments from this State with the Army of the Potomac. The 2d is at home; the 3d on Pickney Island; the 4th at Port Royal; the 6th, 9th and 11th are reported to be on the way to Kentucky, to join Burnside with the whole 9th Army Corps; the 7th is at Fernandina, Fla.,; the 8th and 16th at New Orleans, have left their old camps and joined the forces moving against Port Hudson; the 14th is at Poolesville, Md; and the 15th is still at Camp Parapet near New Orleans, not taking part in the expedition up the river. The 10th and 13th, at last accounts, were at Suffolk, but as the 9th Corps, to which they belonged, have gone to Kentucky, it is probable that they have started also.

—— The Catholics in Manchester for the past two years have maintained, at private expense, their schools, in a building granted by the city, employing one male and three female teachers. The immediate superintendence of the schools has been exercised by Rev. Mr. McDonald. But the School Committee have now, by request of the Priest, voted to place these schools on the same basis as the other public schools, with the understanding that they will be exclusively Irish. They will use the same text books and be under the same direction and control, in all respects, as other public schools.

—— In Concord, two weeks since, the horse and sleigh of Dr. Robert Hall, while left for a few minutes in the street, were stolen; but two mornings after were found in his door-yard, the horse properly blanketed with the covering carried in the sleigh, but hungry and exhausted. And a few evenings since, in the same city, a very valuable horse, rated at over $200, together with sleigh and other usual accompaniments, were stolen, while the horse was standing in the street.

—— During the severe rain storm on Wednesday evening, Mar. 25, a house in Nashua was struck by lightning and slightly damaged. Several persons who were passing at the time were knocked down by the shock.

—— The Band of 16 performers, enlisted in this State for Gen. Gerry's brigade, arrived at Port Royal about two weeks since.

—— The furlough of the 17th Regiment expires on Wednesday, April 1.

☞ The Treasury Department is now putting about $4,000,000 a day into the hands of the paymasters of the army. The N. Y. Times' dispatch says that within the last ten days forty millions have been paid to the army, and within another week's time all the soldiers will have been paid off, or funds will have been provided for that purpose up to March 1.

☞ The Tribune's Washington dispatch says deserters are rushing back to the army of the Potomac at the rate of two or three regiments a week, the number daily increasing as the first of April approaches.

☞ Gold sold in New York on Monday morning at 146. At 1 P. M., it was quoted at 146 1-2, and at 4 P. M., at 147.

TOBACCO—Few are aware what tobacco-loving people we are getting to be, even in New England. We not only smoke it, chew it and snuff it, but we grow the weed also. Ten years ago Massachusetts grew only a trifle over one hundred thousand pounds; now she grows nearly four millions of pounds. In 1850, Connecticut raised something over one million pounds, now she sends six or seven million pounds to market. Thus in ten years the rates of increase in production in Massachusetts was 2,361 per cent., and in Connecticut only 426 per cent. In glancing at the amount raised throughout the whole country, one almost begins to believe Secretary Seward spoke the truth when in reply to why the luxuries of life should not be taxed, he remarked, tobacco is a necessary not a luxury of life. For in 1850 there were 99,732,655 pounds worth 20 cents a pound or $19,950,531; in 1860, 429,390,771 pounds, worth $84,078,154.—In 1860, it cost this nation as much for tobacco as it did to run the national Government. These figures are stupendous, but they are true. We are a fast people, certainly, in the tobacco line. Smoke on, chew on, snuff on, and grow on, O Americans! and in 1870 you may rejoice over a production of a billion pounds of tobacco, and condole yourself with the thought that $200,000,000 might be spent in a more injurious way. Truly this is wisdom.—Greenfield (Mass.) Gazette.

☞ The accounts of the Polish insurrection continue vague. The insurgents are now computed at 50,000. Collisions with varying results are reported, but there is nothing decisive. There was much activity in diplomatic circles in Paris on the subject. There was a grand demonstration in Marseilles in favor of Poland. The Russian Consulate was threatened by the mob. A deputation had an interview with Lord Palmerston, urging interference by England in favor of Poland even at the expense of war, which would be popular in such a cause. Lord Palmerston refused to commit himself.

☞ Fred. A. Mitchell, son of the late gallant Gen. Mitchell, enlisted in Washington a few days since as a private, which fact coming to the knowledge of the President and Secretary of War, he was at once promoted to a second lieutenancy in the 16th U. S. Infantry. Lieut. Mitchell served 18 months as a captain and aid-de-camp on his father's staff, on whose death he was mustered out of service when lying at death's door with the yellow fever at Port Royal, S. C.

☞ It is asserted that irritation among the operatives in Lancashire, England, is becoming very strong. They complain of the behavior of the relief committees, the administration of the poor law, the enormous reduction in wages, and that the workman is sinking more and more deeply into the power of his employe, by running into debt for rent.

☞ Several clergymen of Norfolk gave notice that the churches would be open on Friday, the 27th, in conformity with Jeff. Davis's proclamation. The churches were accordingly opened, but as the worshippers began to congregate they found guards of Union soldiers at the church doors. Consequently no services were held.

☞ For the 54th (Colored) Mass. Regiment, there are now between 400 and 500 men in camp at Readville, and others are coming in rapidly. About 50, recruited by Fred Douglass in Albany and Western New York, arrived in Boston on Friday.—The Boston Transcript says the regiment will undoubtedly be fully organized, and march from the State by May.

☞ A young man purchased some arsenic at an apothecary store in Gloucester, Mass., a few evenings since, for the purpose, as he said, of killing rats; but while the dealer was making change, he undertook to swallow the whole of it. A physician was called, strong emetics were given him, and he was soon relieved.

☞ One bit of Parisian news is that Slidell has offered the person who controls the French press five hundred thousand bales of cotton to favor the Southern cause or to publish, or allow them (the Southerners) to publish all they wish in the papers of France.

☞ "Communipaw," the correspondent in England of the Boston Post, writes to that journal that the President's emancipation proclamation—"call it fanatical or what you please"—has worked a wonderful revolution in English sentiment in favor of the American Government.

☞ Lamartine, says a Paris letter, has just received 400,000 f. as the part proceeds of a lottery, which will pay all his debts, and enable him to end his days in comfort.

☞ Punch records as the latest novelty in jewelry art, that a young lady has set her heart on a gold bracelet. The effect must be charming.

Adam was fond of jokes, and when he saw his sons and daughters marrying one another, he drily remarked to Eve that if there had been no apple there would have been no pairing. So runs a legend.

☞ By a new regulation, each division of the army is to wear a distinctive badge in the cap, as advocated by Gen. Kearney.

If a man could have his wishes, he would double his troubles

WHAT THEN?

After the joys of earth,
After its songs and mirth,
After its hours of sight,
After its dream so bright—
What then?

Only an empty name,
Only a weary frame,
Only a conscious smart,
Only an aching heart.

After this empty name,
After this weary frame,
After this conscious smart,
After this aching heart—
What then?

Only a sad farewell
To a world we loved too well;
Only a silent bed
With the forgotten dead.

After this sad farewell
To a world we loved too well;
After this silent bed
With the forgotten dead—
What then?

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF-ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub, and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any farther comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time, and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

Local.

☞ In endeavoring to keep the readers of the Chronicle posted in regard to the progress of work on the Portsmouth Navy Yard, (while ignoring all "contraband" information,) we have neglected to mention the extensive improvements and repairs which have been and are to be made upon the Yard itself. Prominent among the improvements made, may be mentioned the extension of the Machine Shop—which is to receive another large addition—but even now, is spacious and airy, capable of accommodating one hundred and fifty workmen, besides a large amount of machinery. Visitors, on nearing the Yard, will not fail to notice that the quay wall near the landing, has undergone a thorough rebuilding—which, in defiance to the swift current of the river, will stand a large number of years. Foundations for buildings which are to be erected the coming season, have been laid, stone prepared, &c., so that when the mild weather greets us, everything will be in readiness for the work of building. Of work to be done, we may mention the extension of the Naval Store; also the erection of a Carpenters' and Boat Shop; an addition to the Ordnance Building; a new dwelling for the Coxswain,—who was so unceremoniously turned out of his former quarters recently; a further extension of the Machine Shop, Foundry and Smithery: a new Reservoir, &c., which latter (&c.) includes smaller jobs too numerous to mention. Under the superintendence of B. F. Chandler, Esq., we are confident that everything will be carried out according to programme in a substantial and workmanlike manner; and after these contemplated improvements are made, the Portsmouth Navy Yard can vie, in locality, beauty of buildings and neatness of detail, with any other in the country.

☞ On Saturday, March 28, the three-story dwelling house and lot, No. 10, Penhallow street, lately belonging to the heirs of Thos. Fernald, were sold at auction by Henry F. Wendell, Esq., to William Keeffe, for $1330.

☞ Dr. Dio Lewis' Lecture, and Gymnastic Exhibition, announced for Friday evening, will be one of the most interesting and amusing entertainments of the season—and probably the most valuable.

☞ We are indebted to Col. John H. Jackson, of the 3d regiment, for a copy of the New South, of Mar. 14th, published at Port Royal. The New South says:—

The gunboat Conemaugh, Lieut. Commander Eastman, captured the Anglo-rebel blockade runner Queen of the Wave, near the mouth of the Big Santee river, above Charleston one day last week. The vessel was endeavoring to slip in unobserved, when the Conemaugh gave chase, and the stranger, seeing his chances of escape were hopeless, ran his vessel ashore. The crew escaped to the beach in their boats, but before they left they set fire to the after part of the ship. The flames died out, however, without doing much damage. On the following day Capt. Eastman sent a party on board to secure the cargo, and found there a Lieutenant and six men belonging to a South Carolina regiment, who had occupied the vessel for a similar purpose. The Confederates were taken prisoners and subsequently transferred to the Wabash. The Queen of the Wave is a Clyde built steamer of some six or seven hundred tons burthen, and was constructed for the express purpose of running the blockade. Her cargo consisted of a large quantity of powder stowed in the forward part of the vessel, and assorted merchandise stowed aft. The former will be taken out of her, as will her machinery, which is well built and of great power. The vessel herself is of no value as she now lies.

☞ The politicians of Hampton didn't spend all their money in electioneering, at any rate—for both sides are rejoicing and jollifying over the result. The Democrats had a "jubilee and supper" at the Town Hall on Friday last; and the Republicans announce a similar merry-making at the same place, on Wednesday evening. Both are free to all ladies and gentlemen of the respective parties—and old Hampton people know how to put such things through.

THE PEACE DEMOCRAT believes the Democratic party to have a divine right to govern the country, whether it has a majority of votes or not; and he is convinced that the question, which is the "democratic" party of the country at the present crisis, is absolutely determined by the name which itself has assumed. Call a horse "Spry," and you can safely bet upon his speed.

He calls it fair play to go into an election and refuse to abide by its clear result. He likes the views of a two-fisted countryman of Rob Roy, who played cards with some Hobrews and lost his money. He at once seized the "pile," and shook his fist at his fellow gamblers, saying—"Dom ye, ye are a' enemies of our Lord!"—Boston Transa.

—— Rev. Dr. Bouton, of Concord, delivered his 38th anniversary discourse on Sunday, Mar. 22d, and on the same day Rev. Mr. Tenney, of West Concord, delivered his 30th.

—— Rev. J. H. McCarty, who for the past two years has had charge of the Methodist Church in Concord, is about being transferred to the Rhode Island Conference, and assigned to the pastorate of a large Methodist church in Providence.

—— The Concord Statesman says:—

The people of this State, on the 2d Tuesday of every month of March, elect one citizen to ride free in the cars three years from the time the vote is declared. Some newspapers are apprehensive that James S. Cheney, Esq., of Manchester, was elected on the 10th inst. If so, nothing will be gained, for Mr. Cheney, as partner in an express company, goes free now, while Mr. Buffum, the Republican candidate, doubtless has not that privilege.

☞ The New York Times has the following unpleasant paragraph:—

"It is understood that the vigilant librarian of Congress has sent a demand, by epistle, to a member of the late House from a New York district, for the immediate return of two hundred volumes belonging to his trust. The rebinding of the books will not prevent their identification."

☞ The great meeting for the relief of Ireland is appointed to come off on the 14th of next month at the New York Academy of Music. Already some $2500 subscription tickets have been disposed of.

☞ The March snow has been wonderfully improved by the lumbermen of Maine. The ship builders have impressed all the teams and men they could "conscript" on the Penobscot and St. Croix into their service.

☞ The U. S. Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners has effected arrangements with the rebel commissioner for the exchange of all our officers now in the hands of the rebels.

☞ The Committee of the French Senate on the Polish question reported in favor of leaving the whole question to the Emperor.

☞ The Skowhegan, Me., Farmer says large quantities of potatoes are being brought to thta place for market. The ruling price is thirty-five cents a bushel.

ATTORNEY—A cat that settles differences between mice.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

☞ A few gentlemen in this city,—solely for the purpose of benefitting the people by the dissemination of useful knowledge, especially for the young, and more particularly for young ladies and girls—have procured the services of Dr. Dio Lewis, for Friday evening next—as per advertisement. This matter is eminently deserving of the attention of all parents and teachers, as well as the general public. Aside from its great value, the entertainment will be one of no little interest, attraction and amusement.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

Notice to the 17th Regiment.

The Committee will pay the BOARD of the Portsmouth Volunteers in Capt. Jennes' Company, 17th N. H. regiment to the persons who have made claims for the same, at the Aldermen's Room, on TUESDAY EVENING, March 31st, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock.

Notice to the 16th Regiment.

The Committee will pay the Board Money to those who have made claims for the same, in Capt. Thacher's Company, at the Board of Aldermen's Rooms, on Friday evening, April 3, 1863, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock.

Assessors' Notice.

The inhabitants of the City of Portsmouth are hereby required as the law directs, to exhibit to the Assessors of said city a just and true account of their Polls and Estates taxable by law, on or before the 10th day of April next.

And all persons who not comply with the above requirement in having in an inventory of their taxable estate and making oath to the same, may not expect any abatement.

The Assessors or any Justice of the Peace or the City Clerk, are proper persons to administer the oath; and each individual making his inventory shall have an endorsement on the same, certifying that it has been duly sworn to, and the same to be handed to one of the Assessors or left with their secretary at the City Clerk's office on or before the said 10th day of April next.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S

PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st. It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, woman, or child, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will cost less than as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring nicely and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to felting the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required by wringing by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does the work of two men at one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had [illegible] sales in this city and vicinity, and a [illegible] trial has proved its many excellent qualit[illegible]

It is now one the [illegible]tic institutions." No family should be w[illegible] it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NE[illegible] STOVE!

THE [illegible]ODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the [illegible]ur feature of the MODEL COOK, that [illegible] distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large pieces on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emory Edes, Esq., of the firm merchant of Orono, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never before could recommend it as fulfilling the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it offered here in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Intd. [illegible], Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that of your publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had a humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rich, of well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunkirk, Chautauqua Cnty., N. Y.

"My daughter has suffered for a long part with a scrofulous eruption, which gave her very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which has completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., Dealers in Rivers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. A friend urged me to use what could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my humor worse, so you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face was free from any blotches, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Smith, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the use of your long tried friend, SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA. I have supplied to "be profession as well as to the people."

From J. F. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I had all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The nerves were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Menard, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for scrofula, with the best effect, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Skelter, Esq., the able editor of the Tamaqua Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering sores, which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of Potassium to the sores direct. The cure began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child was taken sick a few months ago, and we gave him some more SARSAPARILLA, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Jno. Fitzpatrick, Esq., of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic diseases that have been treated with the profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., and formerly a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of the blood, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know that I can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

*Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had troubled shiers on his face, which he ascribed to the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy he could procure. He took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. The cures can be found more inveterate and obstinate than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.*

Leucorrhea, Whites, Female Weakness,

are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Virulence, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, a dose of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well known and widely-celebrated Dr. Joseph Merrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhea, Incontinence, and other local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by other remedies."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhea of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and disease in the organs of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Rightful Complaints, and the thousand and one horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the terrible consequences of this habit are—Dullness, Loss of Memory, Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Those persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y 23aw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, such as Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and accepted cures are performed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the affected become healthy and happy. Do invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the affected become healthy and happy.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his great experience and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

For the use of Clergymen, Justices, and others who perform the ceremony, for sale at the Chronicle Office, by the single, dozen, or hundred copies.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater constantly by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely done outside of the room, regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about renovating their dwellings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of Heating apparatus have been to obtain the air, pure, at a proper temperature, and sufficient amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases and lighter films the air, passed off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the Feeder, which injects them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of cold air, and must, of course, go up the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

S. B. MARDEN'S EXPRESS.

TWICE EACH WAY, DAILY.

Leave Portsmouth at 8 A. M. and 4:10 P. M., over the C. & P. Railroad, to Exeter, Dover, Lawrence and other stations.

Regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about renovating their dwellings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the air, pure, at a proper temperature, and sufficient amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases and lighter films the air, passed off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the Feeder, which injects them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of cold air, and must, of course, go up the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building up the irregularities with the base, so as to give any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is warm and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

I AM NOW OPERATING IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth, will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I shall perform at least rates.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the act of 1857,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued to solicit Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, as ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCHES THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary fees in Agency to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworth, and more capable of putting their application in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDM'D BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Banks was at New Orleans on the 23d. On the return of the army to Baton Rouge he said the entire object of the expedition had been accomplished. The movement is understood to have been a mere diversion to enable Farragut's fleet to pass the batteries, and not the reduction of Port Hudson. Another account says the rebels were about to attack Baton Rouge, which rendered a retrograde movement advisable. The blockade of Galveston harbor is still rigid. The Harriet Lane is still in the harbor, and her being iron-cased is a mere supposition. A successful cavalry expedition, under Capt. Perkins, had been made from Brasher City a considerable distance into the rebel lines. He engaged a rebel force and had a brilliant fight, charging them with the sabre, and chased them 8 miles, killing 10 and wounding 20 rebels, besides capturing 14 horses with their equipments, without losing a single man. The secessionists in New Orleans openly proclaim that it will be attacked in a short time by the rebels.

Humphrey Marshall, with a heavy force, is reported to be in the rear of Mount Sterling, Ky.

A recent expedition from Gen. Hooker's army brought back a large quantity of provisions, several valuable horses and mules, broke up two ferries and burned a schooner.

The rebel steamer Antonica, from Nassau, has run the blockade of Charleston.

A steamer from Jacksonville, Fla., reports the arrival of the 6th Conn. and 8th Me. regiments to reinforce the negro troops. A rebel force had been driven from their original position five or six miles by the negroes. Skirmishes were frequent. Three regiments of Georgians were known to be marching on the town, and heavy firing was heard as the steamer left.

☞ The Montgomery Advertiser contains an appeal from Yancey, Clay, Curry and other rebel Congressmen from Alabama, to the Southern people to plant corn and raise hogs and beef. The Advertiser also publishes an official advertisement of the rebel commissary, appealing to the public for food and supplies of bacon, for which he is authorized to pay fifty cents a pound or give one and a half pounds of sugar for one of bacon. The people in East Tennessee are in a starving condition.

☞ The monetary writer of the N. Y. Tribune says:—

"It is currently reported that the object of Mr. Chase's late visit to this city had more connection with the decline in gold than in raising money for the war. He is reported to have borrowed ten millions of specie of certain of our banks, repayable from the Customs, with which he has broken the back of the gold speculation, and will continue to hammer it, until he has forced the premium back to a legitimate point."

The Philadelphia Inquirer says that the sudden and heavy decline in the price of gold has had great effect in reducing the prices of merchandise generally. Cotton, it says, has declined to 20 cents from the highest point; flour 25 cents; rye flour 25 cents; wheat 20 cents; corn 3 cents; candles 1 cent; coal 50 cents; coffee 2 cents; foreign chemicals generally 10 to 20 per cent.; lead 3-4 cent; common rosin $3; spirits of turpentine 20 cents; fish oils 2 to 3 cents; pork $1; lard 3-4 cent; clover seed 75 cents; timothy seed 50 cents; flax seed 50 cents; tallow 1-2 cent; and wool 5 cents.

☞ Reputation is a very big thing—particularly in the case of an artist. Some years ago, Church—who had not then painted his Heart of the Andes and Cotopaxi, and was comparatively unknown,—furnished for a panorama of Bunyon's Pilgrim's Progress, a sketch of "Christian in the Valley of the Shadow of Death," for which he was paid $40. The picture was afterwards sold for $55. The identical little fifty dollar sketch is now exposed for sale in a druggist's window in New York city, and bears the label, "Church's Valley of the Shadow of Death. Price $1000."

☞ There has been much excitement in San Francisco from rumors that 200 organized Secessionists were about to make a sudden night attack on the Benicia military station and the Navy Yard, to capture the arms and magazines, thus leaving the State nearly unprotected. Measures were taken by the Government to foil such an attempt, but nothing has transpired to confirm the rumors.

☞ A carpet bag, containing presents to prominent rebels in Richmond has been seized at Baltimore. It contained, among other things, a pair of boots for Jeff. Davis probably to aid him in escaping from Joe Hooker, and two fine linen night-gowns for Mrs. Jefferson D.

☞ It is stated that Tom Thumb and wife have taken $1000 per day on an average for admission to their levees since their marriage.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

NEW YORK, March 20th.

Dear Chronicle:—A little volume came to us last week, in the national uniform—blue and gold—a little volume sprinkled with daisies as are our gardens in summer time,—frontispiece with a medallioned profile, whose lineaments are familiar to many a graduate of Strawberry Bank, and lettered on the back, "POEMS—ALDRICH."

I have read through the pages, at times with interest flagging as some verse more than ordinarily effeminate fills the space, and again glancing with pleased surprise from word to word, as they follow in train, like the warbles of the canary, each one purer, clearer, more sparkling than the last.

The poems are quarterly divided—I The Cloth of Gold—II Swallow Flights—III Babie Bell, and other ballads—IV The Set of Tortoise. Those which have soared like the swallows seem to me to have the sweetest chirp. One of these is to the beautiful "Blue Bells of New England," favorite flowers of mine, by the way, whose cerulean shades, in years agone, were wont to watch my opening eyes, as pearly with the dews of each succeeding morn, they clambered, with a father's care, venturously o'er the weather-worn sides of an ancient mansion. These, and others like them the poet rhymes, as having

"Blue-birds for their laureates
And honey-bees for lovers."

and

"The south wind blows, and lo! ye throng
"This rugged land of ours:
"I think the pale blue clouds of May
"Drop down and turn to flowers!"

And a few pages on, is a feathery, graceful, and to every one a home ballad, commencing—

"Oh! where is our dainty, our darling,
"The daintiest darling of all?
"Oh! we can be the voice on the stairway
"The little short steps in the entry,
"The silvery laugh in the hall!"

And in the "Tragedy" at the play of "Camille" by Miss Heron, we find the charming descriptive lines, ——"And the maiden grew,

"Like a harebell in the glade.
"And the chestnut shadows crept into her eyes, Eyes that were not afraid,"

But, as the brightest diamond is set in the centre of the cluster, so midway of all these are the two most sparkling efforts of the poet entitled—"Before the Rain," and "After the Rain," both captivatingly beautiful, and fascinatingly picturesque,—

"We know it would rain, for all the morn
"A spirit on slender ropes of mist
"Was lowering its golden buckets down
"Into the vapory amethyst.— * * *
"Scooping the dew that lay in the flowers,
"Dipping the jewels out of the sea
"To sprinkle them over the land in showers!

and

"The rain has ceased, and in my room
The sunshine pours an airy flood;
And on the church's dimy vane
The ancient cross is bathed in blood.

From out the dripping ivy-leaves,
Antiquely carved, gray and high,
A dormer, facing westward, looks
Upon the village like an eye.
* * * * *

Near to these is a pretty pathetic verse, titled "The Dead," and many besides deserving of compliment, but in company with some rhymes so feeble as to detract from their merit.

In the lines

——"The fair frail palaces
The fading Alps and Archipelagoes
And great cloud continents of sunset-seas"—

there is more grandeur than ever before swept from the pen of Aldrich; and a near approach thereto mingled with that rich voluptuousness which is all too frequent in his writings, is found in the stanzas to the

——"Gorgeous tiger lilies
That in our gardens grow,
* * * * *
I hear mouths are dashed with carmine!
* * * * *
I sit beside the window
And watched them glow and glisten.
How they burn and glow!"

His beautiful poem on the "Piscataqua River" charmingly occupies a leaf, and will perhaps prove most attractive to those who know what enjoyment it is

"To let the wherry listless go
And wrapped in dreamy joy,
Dip and surge idly to and fro
Like the red harbour-buoy!
"To see the rounded sun go down,
And with its parting fires
Light up the windows of the town,
And burn its tapering spires.
"And then to hear the muffled bells,
From steeples slim and white,
And watch among the Isle of Smoals,
The Beacon's orange light."

The book closes with a drama in blank verse, called "The Set of Tortoise," noticeable alike for its superficiality of plot, and the rich exquisiteness of its expressions.

The volume is issued in excellent taste, and happily has less than usual of the sensuality, which seems to be an inevitable characteristic of Aldrich's productions. It is small—and in both the inanimate and living creation we find (present company of my pen and paper excepted perhaps) the most valuable goods in the smallest packages—but will well ornament the niches by the side of its more solid and portly companions. If the recurrence to its pages be not too frequent, it will form an acceptable repast. Like the richly-flavored water-ice, a light, translucid, palatable dessert—but not to be partaken of in excess.

NEWINGTON.

☞ In the English House of Commons, the bill substituting affirmations for oaths was rejected. A bill was introduced providing whipping as punishment for garroters, and was carried to a second reading in spite of Government opposition.

☞ The examination of the Detroit rioters is concluded. Eight were discharged and twelve held for trial.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Several promotions have recently been made in the 5th regiment, for gallant and meritorious conduct in battle. The Colonel, in the official order announcing the promotions, takes occasion to entreat every officer and soldier to be brave, loyal, and true to his Government and the great cause in which they are engaged, and to maintain the proud encomium, spoken of them by one of the most distinguished Generals of the service, that "the 5th N. H. Regiment never changed its position under fire, except towards the enemy."

—— There has long been considerable dissatisfaction in our three companies of sharpshooters, now included in the two U. S. regiments. The control of the companies and the appointment of their officers has been almost taken away from our State military authorities, and in several instances members of corps from other States have been promoted and placed over our companies, while worthy men in our own organization have been neglected. As the officers and men desire that they be organized into a battalion, to be controlled by our State authorities, Gov. Berry has sent to the War Department asking that the sharpshooters be transferred to the Second Regiment (Lieut. Col. Bailey.)

—— The editor of the Exeter News Letter says he saw on Wednesday last the largest log that was ever sawed in old Rockingham county. It was owned by Mr. Dow, on Hampton road. The tree grew in Kensington. It was sawed at a mill in Exeter. The butt made 1500 feet of boards, mill measure. The widest board measured 43 inches in width.

—— Rev. S. Bowker, late of Winthrop, Me., has accepted a call to supply the church at New Market for one year.

—— The new Democratic daily paper in Manchester is to be issued at 1 cent per copy: the American and Mirror will therefore reduce their price.

—— We infer that the Manchester papers are to be given away, as the Mirror, in speaking of the decline in prices, says:—"The decline here is the greatest. Daily papers have gone down 100 per cent!"

—— A new school house is to be erected in District No. 2, in Manchester, and $20,000 have been appropriated for the purpose.

INTERESTING TO SHIP BUILDERS.—A singular fact was recently mentioned at the Mersey Dock Board, Liverpool. On a question of substituting "cradles" for "blocks" in repairing ships, it was said that the very act of repairing them by the latter method was the means of putting them out of repair. Blocks force the ships' caulking so much that they are frequently found to be leaky, after undergoing a thorough repair.

☞ Lafayette's daughter died in Torin a short time since. Geo. L. Duyckink, a well known author, died in New York on Monday. Nathaniel Fillmore, father of Ex President Fillmore, died at East Aurora, Erie county, N. Y. last Saturday.

☞ It is stated that the chief mate of the pirate Alabama is a native of Stonington, Conn., who for some years was connected with a Boston newspaper office.

☞ It is rumored on the authority of refugees, that there have been large fires in Richmond of late, and that not only have large quantities of government stores been consumed, but the tobacco belonging to the Rothschilds and European bankers.

☞ A special dispatch says there has been a great reaction in public sentiment in Indiana since the adjournment of the Legislature, and no doubts are now entertained of the prompt enforcement of the conscript law.

☞ In their address to the President the Indian chiefs said the invitation had come for them through the air, and dropped down like a bird. This was in allusion to the telegraphic message to the Indian Superintendent.

☞ The New Orleans Era of the 22d reports over two thousand bales of cotton received during the past week, most of which had been carefully concealed for months.

☞ It is reported that a correspondence is proceeding between the French and United States Government upon the subject of letting out tobacco and cotton belonging to French merchants in Richmond, Charleston, New Orleans and Mobile.

☞ The U. S. Circuit Court at Trenton, N. J. has decided that the U. S. Marshal shall procure transportation for Jackalow to the Loo Choo Islands, or other ports whence he can reach home.

☞ Gold opened in New York on Tuesday at 149 1-2 At 1 o'clock gold was selling at 148 1-2; U. S. Sixes at 105 1-4, and Seven-Thirties at 107. At the Boston Board $16,149 was sold at 149 3-4.

☞ There is but one Irish Mormon at Salt Lake; but he is a Mormon all over; has nine wives and forty-seven children.

☞ A mob has destroyed the Marietta Republican, Democratic organ of Washington Co., Ohio.

☞ "The greatest study of mankind is man"—so don't fail to hear Dr. Lewis.

WHY THUS LONGING.

Why thus longing, thus forever sighing,
For the far-off, unattained and dim,
While all the beautiful around thee lying
Offers up its low, perpetual hymn.

Would'st thou listen to its gentle teaching,
All thy restless yearnings it would still;
Leaf and flower and laden bee are preaching,
Thine own sphere, though humble, first to fill.

Poor indeed thou must be, if around thee
Thou no ray of light and joy canst throw—
If no silken cord of Love hath bound thee
To some little world through weal and woe.

If no dear eyes thy food love can brighten—
No dear voices answer to thine own;
If no brother's sorrow thou canst lighten,
By daily sympathy and tone.

Not by deeds that win the crowds' applauses,
Not by works that give thee world renown,
Not by martyrdom or vaunted crosses
Canst thou win the immortal crown.

Daily struggling, though unloved and lonely,
Every day a rich reward will give;
Thou wilt find by hearty striving only,
And truly loving, thou canst truly live.

Drake's Plantation Bitters.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate;
They create a healthy appetite;
They are an antidote to change of water and diet;
They overcome effects of disinpation and late hours;
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind;
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers;
They purify the breathing, acidity of the stomach;
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation;
They cure Diarrhoea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus;
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous headache;
They are the best Bitters in the world;
They make a weak man strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer;
They are made of pure St. Croix Rum, the celebrated Calisaya Bark, roots and herbs, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage, without regard to age or time of day. Particularly recommended to delicate persons requiring a gentle stimulant. Sold by all Grocers, Druggists, Hotels and Saloons. P. H. DRAKE & CO., 202 Broadway, New York

For sale in Portsmouth by THACHER and PRESTON.

Local.

☞ Job Jenness, Esq., is spending a few days in this city, in reference to the erection of the proposed new Ocean House at Rye Beach. The plan has already been laid before our readers—and we understand that the stock is being readily taken by business men and capitalists here and elsewhere.

☞ Happening in at J. Holmes & Son's provision store, corner Bow street, we "noticed," among the usual full supply and good variety of meats always to be found there, some extra beef—of which the pieces cut out for corning, looked very nice; that steak was good; and we expect that roast will be "tip-top," as 44 Laighton says. Remember, we dine early, Mun; and how about that "notice?"

☞ Dr. Lewis, the Gymnast, who is to appear before a Portsmouth audience for the first time next Friday evening, is none of your prosy chaps who put you to sleep, but one of the most entertaining speakers. His fame is almost world-wide; and it is a treat to hear and see him and his class—for he will be assisted on this occasion by young ladies and gentlemen from our Portsmouth schools. Tickets may be had at Foster's bookstore—and it may be well to secure them early, as the Temple is not big enough to hold half who ought to hear him.

☞ Isn't it too bad, that new church bell is cracked so soon again? Guess it couldn't have been A 1, could it? Perhaps not, but this day is, isn't it?

☞ The President, in compliance with the request the U. S. Senate made previous to adjourning, has designated Thursday, April 30th, as a day of National humiliation, fasting and prayer.

☞ The snow-storm on Tuesday extended as far south as Washington.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to no avail, by most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

☞ A few gentlemen in this city,—solely for the purpose of benefitting the people by the dissemination of useful knowledge, especially for the young, and more particularly for young ladies and girls—have procured the services of Dr. Dio Lewis, for Friday evening next—as per advertisement. This matter is eminently deserving of the attention of all parents and teachers, as well as the general public. Aside from its great value, the entertainment will be one of no little interest, attraction and amusement.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. ly.

Notice to the 16th Regiment.

The Committee will pay the Board Money to those who have made claims for the same, in Capt. Thacher's Company, at the Board of Aldermen's Rooms, on Friday evening, April 3, 1863, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S

PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st. It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot water, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to tilting the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less time than the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Rain, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Edes, a well-known merchant of Orford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect which it was intended to produce upon it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Jos. Mitchell, Bradford, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My wife, for years, suffered from an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Deanville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my features and became an inlet, crable affliction. I tried almost every thing and had a deal of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made me feel better, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Savin, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I recently cured a gentleman of a case of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied for the purpose as well as for other cases."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the bones became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now well and sound, and can work. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickles, Esq., the able editor of the Tuckahoe Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about two years and a half old, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent white scab, covered his face, and so painfully blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. He had tried everything else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The effect was beyond all hope. We had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hirum Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a most effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The professions are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of mercurial and constitutional form, effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Line, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the use of mercury, or secondary syphilis, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the discovery of your SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness,

generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require hundreds of bottles of SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Bigelow, of Boston, Mass.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of irregularity, leucorrhœa, and other uterine disorders, accompanied by symptoms from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to give her the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with a remedy discovered since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distress in the reg ions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Inward Piles, Humors, Rheumatic Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending the class of diseases, are made to appear as harmless as the ailments of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, Self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should be cured contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotine, called the best preventative. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressions, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is his system of mode of treatment, that cases of three months' standing are cured in the shortest possible time, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience for the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who prefer to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, asks only a share of public patronage, and feels confident he can give satisfaction to all who may place themselves under his care.

☞ All letters must contain four red cts stamps, or they will not be answered.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

☞ Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Smoked Beef

Of the VERY BEST QUALITY can be had at

MOULTON & BLAISDELL'S.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which passes through it comes in the place used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

All the objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason of this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection is common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass over the fire, and thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cover can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of the dwelling.

This Furnace is in no way with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the same may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Asfon H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Clark, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of junction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the deprendent gum, which can be done in any extent,—thus give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the sensations of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, sure in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in applying this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he is still doing his work in inserting teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if required.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz. 1st. It is very durable, and tough, and can by is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect mous, &c., consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a trifle more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60 00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best operators in the country. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I would also mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRASK'S office, Dr. HODGDON'S, Dr. Oliver and Dr. BERRETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention. All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE

PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT,
For Physicians' Use,
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS.
SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Alterative, and highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gravel and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

☞ I have sold the Sambuci Wine for a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1836.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sured of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made no less than twelve rejected applications SEVEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The N. Y. Times' dispatch gives a rumor that the President has positively refused for the present to grant authority to raise more negro regiments.

Refugees from rebeldom, and deserters from the rebel army are almost daily coming into our lines, and report that the rebels have already commenced to remove their large guns, and also their machinery from the machine shops at Richmond to Chattanooga.

700 rebels, under Gen. Jenkins, who recaptured Point Pleasant, Va., on Monday, were subsequently driven out with a loss of 12 killed and 14 prisoners. Our loss was 1 killed and 1 wounded.

On Sunday morning a band of rebels stole around our pickets at Williamsburg, Va., and occupied the town. The pickets were then surrounded, but most of them cut their way through and escaped. The rebels decamped before the reinforcements arrived.

It has been ascertained that there is no rebel force within 35 miles of Winchester, Va.

Deserters state that the daily rations of the troops defending Savannah consist of only four ounces of bacon and seven of corn meal. The women and children have been sent away from the city.

The Federal forces are closely pursuing the rebels in Kentucky. They had captured 140 rebels near Stanford, and recaptured 2000 head of cattle. Pegram, at last accounts, was south of Stanford, Ky., hotly pursued, having, it is reported, been compelled to abandon his cattle and trains.—Scouts affirm that the scarcity of provisions will compel the rebels to attack Gen. Rosecrans or fall back. The rebels are fortifying Chattanooga, Tenn. Earthworks are also constructed at Bridgeport, Stevenson, Ala.; Spielbyville, Tullahoma and Dichard. Bragg's official report admits a loss of 15,500 at the battle of Stone River, including 700 officers. The rebel army in Tennessee consists of 120 infantry and 75 cavalry regiments.

The boats which undertook to run the Vicksburg batteries on Wednesday night were the rams Lancaster and Switzerland. The bow of the former was shot away and she sunk. All but two of the crew escaped. The latter was disabled by a 64-pounder entering the steam-drum, and floated down till the Albatross towed her away. A formidable rebel battery at Grand Gulf was encountered by Farragut's ships. It is reported that the Haines' Bluff expedition has returned to Young's Point.

It was rumored at Memphis on the 25th that the iron-clad Lafayette was expected to make an attempt to run by Vicksburg on the night of March 28.

Rebel accounts report that our troops have appeared again in front of Fort Pemberton; and that Morgan, in a fight at Milton, Mar. 20th, drove our forces two miles, when they were reinforced. Morgan says his loss in officers was heavy.

Maj. Gen. Harron has been assigned to the command of the Army of the Frontier in the Southwest. Some change has been made in the districts commanded by Gens. Blunt and Schofield.

The latest dispatches give the following: Gen. Gilmore's forces attacked Pegram in a strong position near Somerset, Ky., on Tuesday, fought him five or six hours and whipped him badly, driving him towards the river. The rebels outnumbered our troops two to one. Our loss does not exceed 30.—The ram Switzerland was but slightly damaged in passing Vicksburg. It is reported that the rebels have evacuated Haines' Bluff.—A correspondent says the Government expects news of successes by our fleet in the rear of Charleston before the close of the week.

FOREIGN.—A Queenstown, Eng., dispatch of Mar. 19, says the Confederate loan had been formally introduced into the markets and was very successful. It touched at 5 per cent. premium. It attracts much attention and debate. The terms are as already stated. It will receive no official sanction by the Stock Exchange.

The Gil Blas, arrived at Havre on the 14th, reports speaking the Alabama, Feb. 23d, which put on board two Frenchmen from the Olive Jane, from Bordeaux for New York, which the Alabama had burnt on the 21st. She burnt on the same day, a very large vessel bound to Queenstown from California, supposed to be the Golden Eagle, of New York.

The London Daily News points out that the Gibraltar, late Sumter, has been thoroughly repaired at Birkenhead, and is ready for sea. Also that the screw steamer Southerner, intended for the Confederates, has been launched at Stockton, and that a gunboat for the Confederates has been launched at Liverpool.

(Communication.)

FRUIT TREES BY THE WAYSIDE.

Some ten or fifteen years since, the writer attended a horticultural meeting in Congress Hall. One of the objects of the meeting was to take measures to set trees by the side of the streets; and most beatifully did Dr. Burroughs, in an extemporaneous speech, delineate the advantages of so doing, and among others, gave expression to the beautiful thought that "the very birds would become members of your society,"—and he might have said beautiful, social and musical members.

But the meeting at that time only contemplated shade trees. If their thoughts had gone a broad step farther, and had set fruit trees, what would have been the situation of our city now, when instead of barren trees in our wide streets and high ways, we should have had any fruit suitable to the climate that we desired to set, as in some towns in Massachusetts, and many in Germany? The blind and croaking cry that "the boys would get them all," is about as sensible as it would be not to pave a street, erect a gas light, or lay a sidewalk, because the boys, with others, would have the benefit of it. Almost every family has boys and girls, and their children would have as good a chance as others to get some of the fruit; besides those that set fruit trees in front of their premises would have the beauty and fragrance of the blossoms, and if they got none of the fruit, they would get as much as they would from an elm tree.

But it would not be so. Let fruit trees be set through the wide streets and roads, and every one would have what they wanted, as in Worcester, Mass., where each one takes care of the trees in front of his premises and receives the fruit.

Why should the citizens of Portsmouth pay thousands of dollars every year for fruit, when they could better raise it themselves, if they would only take the first step? The leaves and windfall fruit would be useful for animals, one for bedding and the other for food. But there is another and more important reason why fruit should be grown in the public streets. The private gardens would not be meddled with, and the temptation for youth to take the first step in legal crime would be removed.

A year or two since, as likely a boy as walks our streets, was sentenced during his minority (six years) to associate with a great amount of crime, merely for taking an apple or two from a store door, or taking a few green pears from a garden; and the writer thinks the two cases were separate, and there were two boys arrested. What parent that is entitled to the name, could see the thing done of one of their children, but would sooner give a year's work to have the temptation removed? Who knows what a life the first step in crime may lead to. And who is most at fault, the youth or the older members of society, whose sacred duty it is to provide for their mutual wants? If they do not they have no right to expect a like return, when old age with its infirmities is upon them.

About four or five years since, the State Legislature passed an act authorizing cities or towns to set trees in the streets or highways, not exceeding twenty-five cents to each tax payer. Well, the expense has been objected to with about as much sense as it would be for a farmer not to sow his land for a harvest, but let it go barren, and starve himself and family. What better way for the city to assist families needing assistance, than to let them gather fruit in the streets: what more god-like charity to poor children? S. S.

FINANCIAL.—The London Times is always sure to copy such things as this, which was put forth in the New York World about four weeks ago:

"It is now confidently predicted that the 1st of April will see gold at 100 per cent. premium, and that by midsummer it may be even 200 per cent. premium. Much will depend upon the conduct of the war, and more upon the issues of additional legal tender notes; but in any event the depreciation of our currency will be much more rapid in the future than it has been in the past."

This conclusion was supported by figures. But the uniform tendency of gold since that time, and its present quotations, show that there was a mistake somewhere.

A great defeat of one of our armies, or a disastrous repulse of our naval attack on some fortress, would be likely to change the scene somewhat. And such reverses are possible, so that wise men should not suffer themselves to be so much depressed by every check, as some have been.

☞ Capt. Jabez C. Rich, of Gorham, Me., formerly of the U. S. Marine Corps, and now in the Confederate Marine Corps, was arrested in Gorham on Tuesday and conveyed to Fort Preble by Provost Marshal Elliot, under orders of the Secretary of War. He claims to be a paroled prisoner.

☞ A man in England has obtained a divorce from his wife on the ground of "cruel treatment" by the latter.

☞ Slaves are advancing in price like everything else in the South. They now bring $2000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Manchester appropriation bill for the current year foots up an aggregate of $97,000. Among the items are the following:—

State tax,	$20,754 90
County tax,	11,992 96
Paupers off the farm,	1,000 00
City farm,	800 00
Highways,	7,335 00
Schools,	18,050 00
Fire Department,	5,000 00
Lighting streets,	1,700 00
Militia,	300 00
City Police,	5,000 00
Printing and Stationery,	1,000 00
City Library,	2,200 00
Watering Streets,	200 00
Paving Elm Street,	1,000 00

—— Samuel R. Perkins started from Manchester, on Tuesday, with seven horses and a colt, two for New York and the rest for Philadelphia. He took Young Morrill, Danville Boy, Jim Cheney, Young Mike, Martin Howe, the Hill trotter, and a little colt, for the latter place,—the Mirror says, as valuable a lot of horse property as ever went out of that city together. Young Morrill will remain there during the season. His stock now stands very high in the market. Six of his colts were sold in Barre, Vt., from two to four years of age, for $4,230. Another one, Flying Morrill, sold to go to California, for $3,500. Danville Boy, one of his colts, trots in 2:40, and has gone out as a specimen.

—— Solomon Clark, Co. D, 12th N. H. regiment, among others, was dangerously wounded by a railroad accident near Camp Convalescent on Friday, March 27th.

—— E. D. Barney, of Manchester, has a cow that has given 3835 quarts of excellent milk the past year, an average of 10 1-2 quarts a day. The cash value at 5 cts per quart, has been $191.65. The keeping of the cow has cost $70, leaving for trouble and profit $127.65. He thinks she is half Devon and half native.

—— Rev. Robert Stinson died at Croydon Mar. 11th, at the age of 45. He was chaplain of the 5th regiment under Col. Converse, and finding the hardships of the camp too arduous, resigned in June last.

—— A dispatch from Falmouth, Va., states that on Monday, Governor Berry, of New Hampshire, reviewed Hancock's and Whipple's Divisions, embracing the Fifth and Twelfth N. H. Regiments and three companies of Sharpshooters.

—— Concord succeeded in electing a Mayor on Monday,—the second trial. The vote was—Connor (Democrat) 691; Gale and scattering 925. Gale is elected by a plurality. At the election on March 10th, the vote stood Connor 898, Gale 1059, Willard, &c., 280.

CAMBRIDGE CATTLE MARKET.

TUESDAY, Mar. 31.

At market 600 beef cattle, 94 Stores, 2600 Sheep and lambs, and 40 swine.

PRICES.—Beef Cattle.—Extra, $8 50 a 9 00; first quality, $7 50 a 8 00; second quality, $6 87 a 7 00 3d quality, $6 00 a 5 50.

WORKING OXEN—$95 a $160.

MILCH COWS—$41a$51; common $19a21

YEAL CALVES—None.

Yearlings $6 00 a 9 00; two years old $30 a 31; three years old—$22 a 24.

HIDES—8½ a 9 c, (none but slaughter at this market); Calf Skins—8 c per lb.

TALLOW—Sales at 8 a 8½c per lb.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—$6 00 a 7 00. extra $ 00 a 9 25.

SWINE—Stores, wholesale 4½, retail 5c.

Spring Pigs—Wholesale 9 a 9 c, retail 9 a 9.

Market Beef—Extra the largest fat Oxen, highly stall-fed. First quality are large Oxen, stall-fed at least three months. Second quality are grass and half fed Oxen, well fatted Cows, and the best three-year old Steers. Third quality are odds and ends of droves.

Sheep and Lambs—Extra consists of choice Bucks and fancy Ewes for stock.

Beeves are sold by the head, at prices equal to the value per pound of the estimated weight of beef in the quarter with the fifth quarter, or the hide and tallow, at the same price at a shrinkage from live weight agreed on by the parties—varying from 38 to 54 per cent.

Remarks—There was a larger number of cattle than last week. The best quality sold at the same prices, but lower grades declined, say from 25 a 50c per cwt. 10 Rivet cattle sold for $9 per cwt. One pair that weighed 4550 lbs., gross, sold for about $10 per cwt., dead weight.

Sheep sold rather lower than last week. There was one lot of sheared, the first of the season.

THE CONTRACT FOR IRON-CLADS.—The statement that the Navy Department finds it difficult to complete contracts for the construction of iron-clads, in consequence of the apprehension of the contractors that the currency may depreciate so greatly as to cause them a heavy loss, is utterly unfounded. Nobody has yet been found unwilling to make a contract on his own terms with the Government. Even the sinking ship of the Southern Confederacy has not yet been deserted by the contractors.

The statement must have been made to affect elections, and it is not unlikely that it had effect on some ignorant and timid souls, whose knowledge of public affairs comes through wheedling demagogues, and through vile sheets got up and maintained on purpose to mislead and debase that portion of the people over whom they can have influence.

☞ Official information has been received of Col. Conner's severe battle and splendid victory on Bear River, Washington Territory, after a forced march of 140 miles in midwinter and through deep snows. He and his band of 200 men attacked 800 Indians in their stronghold, and after a hard fought battle of 4 hours, destroyed the entire band, leaving 224 dead upon the field. Our loss was 14 killed and 49 wounded.—These Indians had murdered several miners during the winter, and were a part of the same band who had been massacring emigrants on the overland mail route for the last 15 years, and the principal actors and leaders in the horrid crimes of the past summer. During Col. Conner's march, no assistance was rendered by the Mormons, who seemed indisposed, he says, to divulge any information regarding the Indians, and charged enormous prices for every article furnished his command.

Notice.
The subscriber will offer for sale the whole stock of the late firm of JONES & MENDUM FOR CASH, at low prices, for 90 days, to close the concern.
This stock comprises the best assortment of staple Dry Goods to be found in the State of New Hampshire, and affords a rare chance for the purchasers of Dry Goods to replenish, as the stock is all first class goods, and selected by the SUBSCRIBER, WITH GREAT CARE, FOR THIS MARKET.
The stock of Blankets, Flannels, Linens and Housekeeping Goods is better than it has been for the last 20 years, and presents unusual advantages.
In Cotton Sheeting and Shirting, Prints, Ginghams and medium priced Dry Goods, the assortment is very complete.
In Haberdashery Goods, such as Gloves, Hose, Shirt Fronts, Collars, Wristlands, Suspenders, Braids, Cotton & Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Knitting Cotton, Skein and Spool Silk, Hooks & Eyes, Buttons, Needles, Pins, Tapes, Bobbins, &c. &c., the stock is varied and complete.
Purchasers of Dry Goods are respectfully requested to examine this stock, as the subscriber's only object in offering it is to finally wind up the concern. m24 CHARLES H. MENDUM.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!
THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!
The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub, and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.
It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.
The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any further commendation. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.
☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

DR. LEWIS' GYMNASTICS.

He who does not know cannot realize the amount of exercise involved in the exhilarating game of "bean bags," which is one of Dr. Lewis' course of Gymnastics, and a fair sample of the invigorating, healthful, laugh-creating system by which he strikes at the very foundation of physical culture. Social circles can crowd more sport into one hour, incite a greater flow of animal spirits, and do more good, by the vigorous use of half a dozen of Dr. Lewis' articles, than by all the good old sports which have so long obtained in family and other gatherings. His lecture here, if it does any good, will do a great deal.

It is a glorious as well as a remunerative work that the Dr. has to do. He is engaged in one of the greatest reformations of the age, which leads to the very root of all moral reforms—a proper cultivation of the physical faculties being the purifying of the medium through which we receive all of our intellectual and moral perceptions. If our bodies are weak and languid, so will be our minds and hearts. Dr. Lewis will teach us a lesson which will do more harm to the Enemy of all good, than many of the best discourses—Uncle Toby's essays not excepted—and those who attend at the Temple on Friday evening may expect not only to enjoy the lecture and to laugh in sympathy with those who exhibit the exercises, but to carry away with them a new idea of life, and a disposition to improve to the full extent the blessings which the Creator has placed within reach of all.

S. Y. R.

☞ The Old Fellows' Levee at Irving Hall comes off this evening, as should be remembered by the fortunate ticket-holders. These are always very enjoyable occasions, the happy manner in which they are conducted being peculiarly gratifying to the initiated.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A respectable man in Carroll county gravely inquired of an official if it were necessary to put a government stamp on a coffin to secure the burial of a friend.

—— During the year ending Feb. 1, 1863, there were twenty fires in Concord, and two false alarms. The damages by eleven of the fires was trifling. The losses were mostly in the agricultural portions of the city. Three entire sets of farm buildings have been destroyed, two barns, filled with hay, &c., and a saw, planing and grist-mill, the loss in all reaching at least $10,000; a larger amount, probably, than has occured during the last twenty years, while in the main part of the city it has been very small, not amounting in the whole to more than $2,000.

—— The Boston Commonwealth states that Miss Betsey Clifford, who died a few days ago in Exeter, was an intimate friend of Daniel Webster, who lived in her father's family when at school at Exeter. She will be remembered by many, old and young, who were educated there, and they will shed a tear for her many virtues. She was a devout and earnest abolitionist from the first. It appears by the News-Letter that Miss Clifford has bequeathed the most of property, which is quite a respectable sum, to the Home Missionary Society.

—— School District No. 2 in Manchester is in a quandary. At the recent school meeting a clerk of the District was elected, sworn in, and immediately left, saying he had important business to attend to at his office. He requested the former clerk to keep the record while he was absent, which was until near the close of the meeting.—The meeting subsequently voted to erect a school-house, and appropriated $20,000 for the purpose. Now it is contended by many that there is no legal record of the meeting, and that the record kept by the old clerk is not binding in law any more than the reports in the papers. Lawyers disagree in regard to the matter, and as the District will have to hire $15,000, it is somewhat vexatious.

☞ A late Richmond paper contains a detailed account of a great fire there, which destroyed 700 or 800 hogsheads of tobacco, valued at $500,000, and Government property of various kinds, to the aggregate of nearly $250,000.

☞ Ex-Mayor David Pingree, of Salem, Mass., President of the Naumkeag Bank, the Naumkeag Mills and Essex Railroad, died at his residence on Tuesday afternoon, aged 67. He was largely engaged in the lumber business in Maine.

☞ The receipts from the Internal revenue up to April 1 were twenty-two millions. The estimate for the year is 150,000,000.

☞ The captain of a British barque, at New York, reports that the British frigate Phaeton sailed from St. Thomas, Mar. 16th, in company with two blockade runners as a convoy.

☞ Most of the laborers on the iron-clads building at the Connecticut iron works, Greenpoint, have struck for higher wages.

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO KNOW.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

I know a girl with teeth of pearl,
And shoulders white as snow;
She lives—she's well,
I must not tell—
Wouldn't you like to know?

Her sunny hair is wondrous fair,
And wavy in its flow;
Who made it less
One little tress—
Wouldn't you like to know?

Her eyes are blue (celestial hue)
And dazzling in their glow;
On whom they beam
With melting gleam,
Wouldn't you like to know?

Her lips are red and finely wed,
Like roses are they blow;
What lover sips
Those dewy lips—
Wouldn't you like to know?

Her fingers are like lilies fair,
When lilies fairest grow;
Whose hand they press
With fond caress—
Wouldn't you like to know?

Her foot is small, and has a fall
Like snow flakes on the snow;
And where it goes
Beneath the rose—
Wouldn't you like to know?

She has a name, the sweetest name
That language can bestow;
'Twould break the spell
If I should tell—
Wouldn't you like to know?

☞ A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held in Washington on Tuesday, under the auspices of the City Council. The Mayor presided. Speeches were made by Admiral Foote, Andrew Johnson, Chief Justice Carter, Hon. Horace Maynard, and others. The President, with Secretaries Seward, Chase, Usher, and Postmaster General Blair, was present. The speeches were of an intense and uncompromising loyal character. A large meeting of adopted citizens was held in New York on the same evening. Speeches were made in English, French and German. Resolutions were adopted protesting against foreign intervention and pledging support to the Government.

☞ An act passed by the late Congress makes a change in the method of distributing prize money in the navy, which should be widely known. The act provides that the share adjudged to each officer, seamen or marine, shall be paid the Navy Department and credited by it in the account of the person to whom it belongs, so that it may be paid to him as his wages or salary is paid, by the purser of the ship or paymaster of the yard to which he may be attached.

☞ A New York publisher recently republished a work called "Aids to Prayer," which was published by Strahan in London, and was dismayed to find that he had unwittingly printed a religious essay by Henry Ward Beecher, which the London publisher or his employee had pirated entire and eked out by a selection from an American periodical, without a hint as to their origin.

SUDDEN RISE IN GOLD.—Gold took a start on Wednesday morning in New York, and at the commencement of business sold at 158, being about 10 per cent. advance on Tuesday's rates. It declined soon afterwards to 155 3-4, but at 1 o'clock was quoted at 157. U. S. Sixes 105 1-4, and Seven-thirties 106, ex-coupons. At 3 o'clock the price of gold was 157 1-2.

☞ The Rhode Island election took place on Wednesday. A Providence dispatch says the indications were of an overwhelming Republican majority.

☞ We are indebted to Maj. A. H. Hoyt and "Ion," for late New Orleans papers; and to "Newington," our New York correspondent, for Bahama papers.

"The small, sweet courtesies." For all the little nameless attentions so gratifying to a woman's heart, and so universally accorded by the lover and neglected by the husband, husbands would find themselves repaid a thousand fold; and I would advise all who are sighing over the non-fulfilment of early dreams, to go and do likewise, remembering that that which is worth winning, is worth keeping.—[Peterson's Magazine.

☞ Two brave women saved the 27th Iowa from massacre recently by stopping the train in which they were travelling from running over a bridge the guerillas had nearly burnt through for the purpose of causing an accident and slaughter.

☞ Mr. Purdy, an old and well known leather merchant in New York, cut his throat in his counting room a few days since. It is hinted that an aberration of mind caused by the decline in gold was the cause.

☞ This is the last week in Lent, known as Passion or Holy Week, observed by the christian churches in commemoration of the crucifixion and suffering of our savior.—Last Sunday was Palm Sunday.

☞ A large meeting in behalf of the U. S. Christian Commission for the Army and Navy, was held in Cincinnati on Monday evening. Gen. Burnside and others spoke.

☞ Fort Warren, Boston harbor, is being put into fighting trim. A number of eight-inch columbiads have recently been landed, and other pieces of heavier calibre are expected to arrive.

☞ John B. Floyd's son-in-law has been captured at Jacksonville.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

☞ A few gentlemen in this city,—solely for the purpose of benefitting the people by the dissemination of useful knowledge, especially for the young, and more particularly for young ladies and girls—have procured the services of Dr. Dio Lewis, for Friday evening next—as per advertisement. This matter is eminently deserving of the attention of all parents and teachers, as well as the general public. Aside from its great value, the entertainment will be one of no little interest, attraction and amusement.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to tailing the cloth.
9th Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "Domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eddy, a well-known merchant of Orford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. J. M. Strudwick, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an affection, humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunnsville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enameled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything that promised of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately began to improve my humor, so that in a fortnight or a month, I could scarcely tell that I might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Souza, Boston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured a case of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession so well and so long past."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wabenon, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated sulphur springs, and much, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so foul that the cords became visible, and the doctors declared that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me, and now I am well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monroe, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Shanksville Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"One only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we practiced his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. We tried every thing we knew of, and had almost lost all hope from us, when we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sores began to heal, and he had gone through the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and free from sores as any one. The whole neighborhood pronounced that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Shed, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more efficacious remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Massachusetts Legislature.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both in the primary and secondary stages, and in one instance I know of, it was the only medicine that would overcome the disease, and that was the case of mercury, which, after a fortnight's effort, I left off, and in a few days the patient was free from the disease."

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by the AYER SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 mid LADIUS, OLD STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study, and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of inveterate and impure blood, impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, and all diseases in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, frightful Gravel, Stricture, Pain in the Back and Loins, Symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the results produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions, by addressing a description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily of all diseases peculiar to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new physiological principles, and perfect relief guaranteed in a few days. He invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, to the extent of a few days, restoring to perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of a skillful experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new and valuable French Medicine, called Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is no well and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the door of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangement for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes can be entirely dispensed with. The draft is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for several weeks, without losing the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds in families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling their buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing great merit, and an advance over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases have a greater than the air, and go into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, and prevent their escape into the air of the generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and rust out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer their to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert B. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry K. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of contact or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. Gums can be made smaller and more by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. Teeth made in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER; that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks; it does not tire the muscles of the joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am consident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain under the perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New-England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, on ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below, goes prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A special dispatch says that after Admiral Porter had succeeded in getting through Steele's and the Black Bayous, on his way to the upper Yazoo, he was met by a large rebel force while the gunboats were entangled by trees placed in the stream, and was compelled to retreat, with a loss of 10 or 12 killed.

It is stated, from Yorktown, that 20,000 rebels are front of Williamsburg, Va., threatening an attack.

A dispatch from the rebel Gen. Bragg says Gen. Forrest made a successful visit to Brentwood with his division. He burnt the bridge and took all the property and arms, and captured 800 prisoners, including 35 officers. He lost 3 killed and 35 wounded.

A Baltimore schooner, which had been engaged in the contraband traffic between Maryland and Virginia, was seized on Tuesday. 25 persons was captured on board, and a large pile of contraband goods, including presents to Jeff. Davis from his lady admirers in Washington. A mail bag containing 1800 letters were also captured.

The troops, both white and black, which were recently sent to Jacksonville, Fla., have been recalled to Hilton Head, the object had in view by the occupation of the town having been accomplished in part, as it is said.

☞ The rebels are perfectly panic stricken, by not only the terrible fighting qualities exhibited by the soldiers from the Northwest, but by their unwavering, earnest loyalty. The hopes held out to his deluded followers by Jeff. Davis, of conquering a peace through the Northwest, are fast fading away, as the sturdy people of that section, and their brave representatives in the field, indignantly respond to the promises of Davis—"Get thee behind me, Satan!" The Richmond Enquirer, in a recent leading article, exclaimed in despair:—

The peace delusion is blown away. Neither from foreign intervention nor from imperious decrees from King Cotton, nor from friendship of the Northwest, nor from stupid rumors of demoralization in Yankee armies, does any hope of peace dawn upon the land. We must fight or submit. If they can take Richmond, Charleston and Vicksburg within six months, their financial credit is restored, and party leads cease. The plain truth is, we are in the middle of the war; and during the coming Spring and Summer that war is to be more fierce and unrelenting than ever before. The Yankee enemy is just beginning to fight. Again: Great Union meetings are the order of the day at the North. Democrats bury the hatchet just lifted against Lincoln. Vallandigham will soon stand where John Van Buren does.

The Richmond Dispatch is equally despondent. Though it leads off with a fine specimen of Southern bravado, it winds up in a style which is quite refreshing:—

What, then, should be the course of the South to the Northwest? In the first place, to fight them with knives in both hands, till we have driven them from our soil, and made them thoroughly understand that war is the very last process on the face of the earth by which they can obtain an unobstructed and prosperous navigation of the Mississippi River, or by which, even if successful, they can obtain anything but a desert. We must fight them to the death. A few great, crushing victories will be the best and only efficacious inducements to peace we can offer them. Not that we presume upon their timidity or irresolution. They have demonstrated their fighting qualities beyond all dispute, and can afford, without loss of reputation, to relinquish a war which is only ruinous to their prosperity, and in which they are made subservient to the interests and passions of New England.

—— Mr. Arthur Little was ordained in the Congregational Church in Webster, on Monday, 16th ult., that he might become Chaplain of the 11th Regiment Vt. Vols., to which position he has been appointed.—Mr. Little is a native of Webster, and a graduate of Dartmouth College in the class of 1860, and was a member of the Theological Seminary at Princeton at the time of his appointment.

☞ The Legislature of New Jersey adjourned sine die on the 25th ult. The Union League in Trenton fired a salute over the decease of the Legislature;—copying the example of their opponents who fired a similar salute at the close of Congress. Both wasted their powder: they should have saved it to use against the rebels.

☞ Yesterday was Fast Day in Massachusetts. The telegraphic operators in Boston were absent, and we found it impossible to obtain news in season for this morning's paper.

☞ A war correspondent of the Portland Argus states that the 27th Maine regiment is in excellent condition, having greatly improved under command of Col. M. F. Wentworth of Kittery.

☞ It is thought by many that the attack on Charleston will be made to-day, April 3d.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Few regiments can show a more glorious record than the Fifth New Hampshire, which is thus made up to the 1st of March:—

"This regiment was mustered into the service Oct. 26, 1861—arrived at Bladensburg on the 31st. Was immediately sent to Lower Marlborough, Md.; thence across the Potomac, and placed in Sumner's division. Picketed all winter—built roads and bridges. Came under fire first at Rappahannock Station, March 26, 1862. At Yorktown was attached to the Engineer Corps—built a large portion of the gabions and siege material. Held in reserve at the battle of Williamsburg. Built the celebrated grape vine bridge over the Chickahominy, seventy rods long, of heavy timbers. Fought at Fair Oaks, losing 200 men and four officers. Fought also in all the battles of the seven days' retreat—lost 119 men at Malvern Hill. Marched from Alexandria to Centreville in one day. Formed a part of the rear guard on Pope's retreat. Fought the enemy at Boonsboro'. Held in reserve at South Mountain. Fought at Antietam, losing 125 officers and men out of 300. Captured the State colors of the 4th N. C. volunteers. Formed the advance guard at Charlestown. Fought at Snicker's and Ashby's Gaps. At Fredericksburg lost 17 out of 19 commissioned officers, 9 killed dead, and 170 out of 249 men. Total number of battles engaged in, 10; skirmishes, 4. Total loss, killed and wounded, up to March 1, 527. For duty 150 men, 17 officers."

—— The Board of School Officers have decided to call another meeting in District No. 2, Manchester, the validity of the previous meeting being questioned.

—— There is said to be a prospect that the Boston & Maine Railroad Company will soon erect a new depot at Exeter.

☞ The Phildelphia papers record the death of Edward M. Thomas, a colored man of some renown. The deceased was well known throughout the country, having been runner for the House of Representatives at Washington for 25 years. He was a native of Philadelphia, but resided in Washington. Mr. Thomas was a prominent member of the Masonic Fraternity, and was one of nine in this country who had received the degree of Sublime Prince of Jerusalem, a degree conferred in England only, from which colored Masons in this country derive their charters. He was Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons in the District of Columbia, and Past Right Worthy National Grand Chief of the Independent Order of Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria. He was buried with all the honors of those bodies. The officers of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, wearing their jewels of office, and carrying sprigs of evergreen to drop into the grave, walked beside the coffin, and a long retinue of carriages extended behind the hearse.

TURTLE EGG BUTTER.—One of the peculiar productions of Brazil, described by Mr. Fletcher, was "turtle egg butter."—There are innumerable turtles on the sand bars of the Amazon, and the natives make it a business, at the proper season, to collect their eggs, which are deposited in the sand. These are thrown into a box, and when a sufficient quantity has been collected they are trampled by the feet of the Indians.—After a short time an oily substance rises to the surface and is skimmed off, and this is "turtle egg butter." Many millions of eggs are consumed in this way every year, and the article is largely consumed. But Mr. Fletcher confesses that although he had partaken of many strange dishes in the course of his travels, and had learned to relish them, he never could taste turtle egg butter. He didn't exactly like the manner of churning.

☞ Elder John Buzzell, of the Free Will Baptist denomination, and one of the founders of that sect, died in Parsonfield, Me., on Sunday, Mar. 29, at the ripe age of 95 years, 7 mos. and 14 days. Elder B. was one of the original founders of the Morning Star—and for years one of its editors—the organ of his denomination, which was first started in Limerick, and was afterwards removed to Dover, N. H., where it is now published.

A NEW THEORY OF VENTILATION.—The French Academy of Sciences, at its last meeting, listened to a paper from M. Delbruck, which, if well founded, will upset a good many of our existing notions about ventilation.

M. Delbruck has made some researches on the quantity of air required for breathing during sleep. It strikes him as singular that, while all medical men are unanimous in prescribing several cubic metres of pure air for each person sleeping in a room as absolutely indispensable for health, all animals appear to shun the open air as much as possible in order to compose themselves to sleep. Thus the lion and tiger retire to some dark cavern where air is confined; the dog goes to his kennel and thrusts his snout under his belly; birds, to which the air would appear to be necessary, whether asleep or awake, retire to some private corner, and put their heads under their wings. Nay, what does the schoolboy do, when left in a dormitory aired with particular care? If he finds he cannot fall asleep, the first thing he does is to bury his head under the bedclothes. Hence M. Delbruck concludes, that if, when awake, we exhale a quantity of carbonic acid, we must inhale a certain quantity of this gas during sleep, just as plants exhale by day the oxygen they absorb by night.

☞ At the State election in Rhode Island on Wednesday, the Republican Unionists carried every county in the State, and every town in the Eastern Congressional District, except Newport. James Y. Smith is elected Governor by about 2800 majority. Thomas A. Jencks is elected to Congress from the Eastern District by about 1900 majority, and Nathan F. Dixon from the Western District by about 900. The Legislature stands on joint ballot for the supporters of Mr. Smith 76, for his opponents 36. There are six vacancies.

☞ The New England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church commenced its sixty-fourth annual session on Wednesday forenoon, in the High Street Church, Charlestown, Mass., Bishop Levi Scott, of Wilmington, Del., presiding. 100 members answered to their names. But one member has died during the year.—The organization of the Conference was completed by the re-election of Rev. E. A. Manning of East Boston, as Secretary, and Rev. G. W. Mansfield of South Boston, as Assistant Secretary. From a statement made by one of the officers it appears that the superannuated preachers are thirty two in number. The Conference sermon was preached in the evening by Rev. Daniel Richards, of Lynn.

GHOSTS IN ROCHESTER.—The Rochester, N. Y., Express gravely states that on Monday evening last, at the very unfashionable hour for ghosts, of between eight and nine o'clock, while a number of young men were sitting around the stove in Engine House No. 9, the trap-door of the reservoir, of which the engine house floor forms the top, and which cannot be raised by mortal hands without the assistance of a crow bar, opened, and a ghost arose from the depths, with a ghastly wound in its forehead. The firemen vamosed instantly in great consternation.

☞ Capt. A. C. Webster, confined in Castle Thunder, Richmond, and condemn ned by Court Martial to be hung Friday, April 3d, made a most desperate attempt to escape his fate on the previous Friday by jumping from a third story window. He fell to the ground in a disabled condition and was easily recaptured.

A good story is told of President Lincoln. A personal friend said to him: Mr. President, do you really expect to end this war during your administration? The President (in reply)—Can't say, can't say, sir. The Querist—But, Mr. Lincoln, what do you mean to do? The President—Peg away, Sir; peg away. Keep pegging away!

☞ The Vanderbilt had arrived at Havana previous to Mar. 24th, and sailed again. Admiral Wilkes removed his flag to the Sonoma until the arrival of the Juniata. Capt. Stevens, of the Sonoma, takes the Wachusett home for repairs. The Sonoma will be commanded by Capt. Wyman.

☞ A family in Bush township, Michigan, is troubled with "supernatural fires." Fires break out spontaneously in clothing, furniture, trunks, carpets, house partitions, hay stacks and damp towels. The family finally moved to another farm, but the tormentment follows, and is attracting the attention of the prominent men in the State.

☞ The N. Y. Post announces with a flourish the formation of a "Loyal Women's League" in Hartford, Ct., the members of which pledge themselves to "encourage and sustain our brave soldiers by constant tokens of love," etc. That looks like business.

☞ Seven Union prisoners escaped from Libby prison, Richmond, by burning their faces with a hot wire until they were blistered so as to resemble the small-pox. They were then removed to the pest-house, from which escape was easy.

☞ The work of consolidating reduced regiments has been commenced in the Army o the Rappahannock. This consolidation is authorized by a section in the conscription law.

☞ The art of telegraphing has been so far perfected in France that portraits of individuals, autograph letters, and almost everything else can be traced out by the magnetic needle. What will not be done next?

☞ The N. Y. Senate has passed a bill allowing the soldiers in the service of the United States to vote by proxy. It has yet to be acceded to by the Assembly.

☞ Ten thousand tons of copper were shipped from the Lake Superior mines in 1852, which was valued at five millions of dollars.

☞ Side-wheel steamer Mahaska, Com'r F. A. Parker, sailed from Yorktown, Va., on Tuesday last to join the blockading squadron in the Gulf.

☞ It is stated that Gen. Fremont's estate at Mariposa, Cal., has been sold to a New York millionaire for eight millions of dollars.

☞ The tree known as box alder or ash maple is said to be as rich in saccharine matter as the sugar maple.

☞ Counterfeit fives on the Union Bank, Haverhill, Mass., well executed, are in circulation in Portland, Me.

☞ The venerable John J. Crittenden was called out by a serenade in Philadelphia, Wednesday night, and made a patriotic and cautious speech, in which he said he believed the Union is to be restored by fighting and that alone, and expressed his belief that "this war will give us future permanence and greatness." He said "we are fighting battles not of hate or vengeance but upon the highest principles of honor; for a cause, not for blood, but for freedom and the institutions of civilization."

☞ Joseph Cox, who robbed Western & Dortie, of New York, of $10,000 in gold, was arrested in Albany April 1. A small portion of the money was recovered.

☞ It is said that the question of issuing letters of marque is now narrowed down to Sumner and Seward, the former being against and the latter for it.

☞ Mr Hammond, President of the Vermont Agricultural Society, recently refused the offer of $400 each for 50 of his best sheep.

☞ Fast Day in Maine has been postponed to April 30th, to coincide with the National Fast.

☞ The New York Legislature has voted to pay the interest on the State debt in coin or its equivalent.

Amesbury, March 20, 1862.

Mr. Grace,—Sir.—My boy burnt his hand by pouring boiling water on it. It was a very bad case, and troubled me very much. I applied your salve, and can with satisfaction recommend Grace's Salve to be the best remedy that was ever applied to a burn. MARTIN HASSETT.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub, and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any further comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

Local.

☞ A few gentlemen in this city,—solely for the purpose of benefitting the people by the dissemination of useful knowledge, especially for the young, and more particularly for young ladies and girls—have procured the services of Dr. Dio Lewis, for this Friday evening—as per advertisement.

This matter is eminently deserving of the attention of all parents and teachers, as well as the general public. Aside from its great value, the entertainment will be one of no little interest, attraction and amusement.

☞ The smart Boston correspondent of the Ballot ("L.") says in his letter this week:

Friend Miller, in his Boston perambulations, forgot his newspaperial friend of the Ballot. The opera, theatre, and other places of amusement monopolized his time. Newspaper people, Frank, should always be posted. The Tremont Temple never was Ordway's Hall.

Friend L. will please excuse us, for not favoring ourselves with a call on him,—which we should have been very glad to have done, had we remembered where he "holds out." Also, for the misprint of Ordway's for Allston Hall.

By the way, isn't it a capital thing for us, that our Br. editors and correspondents of the Ballot, keep such sharp look out over our columns? No danger of our getting far astray, without being reminded of it.—Well, we read the Ballot pretty thoroughly, too; and it is always one of the most readable little weekly papers in our large exchange. Put that in your pipe, and smoke it, Br. Whittem. And we pay for it, too, more than double price, don't we?

THE DEAF AND DUMB RUSE.—Two or three weeks ago, a richly dressed lady applied to the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, of Hartford, to cash a New York draft of $80. She was apparently deaf and dumb, and conversed only in writing; referred for testimonials to Rev. Mr. Turner, Mr. Allen and others, at the Asylum for Deaf and Dumb, and appeared like a lady. So the check was paid, afterward accepted at New York, and supposed to be all right. But it turns out that the draft was originally drawn for only $8 (by a gentleman of Providence) and it had been altered to $80 so skillfully as to defy detection. The woman is not known to the officers of the Asylum, and proves to be only an accomplished swindler—probably deaf and dumb for that occasion only. The bank is just $72 "out."

A correspondent of the Ballot says one of the shrewdest cashiers in Portsmouth was previous to this affair, stuck for about $350, by the deaf and dumb lady, doubtless the same financier. A draft was received by her through the Post office, and cashed at one of the banks, but when sent to New York came back protested, and either the cashier or the bank is so much out on the operation.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY.

The Annual Meeting of the Mercantile Library Association, for the choice of officers, will be held this evening, at half past 7 o'clock, at the Library Room.

April 3d. J. C. BROWN, Pres.

☞ On and after Monday next, April 6th, the afternoon train on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad will leave this city at 4:40, instead of 4:10, as at present.

A MATRIMONIAL ROMANCE.—The St. Louis Republican of March 6th says that at a small party in the house of a gentleman of that city, not more than three weeks ago, a young gentleman was introduced to a young lady. They had never met before. The gentleman offered the lady his arm; they commenced a promenade, and entered into conversation, resulting in the discovery that "the one seemed the absolute counterpart of the other in disposition, tastes, opinions, political and religious, desires, hopes and aspirations." "The consequence was," says the Republican, "that they were together during the whole evening, until the party broke up, and the finale to the whole affair was that the second morning after their first meeting and introduction, their marriage was announced in this paper.—The parties are of the highest respectability, and one of them is native and to the manor born here in St. Louis."

☞ A secesh lady in Nashville, lately, who concealed as she supposed a rebel prisoner for two days, furnishing him with an entire suit, and seeing to his wants in general until such time as she could have him safely conducted to Dixie, was not a little surprised after accomplishing her object, at finding that she had been harboring a Union detective. Another rebel woman having a permit to take a number of articles for family use out of Nashville, thought she would make a handsome speculation by taking with her a bolt of gray cloth, which could be sold for a round price down in Dixie. For this purpose she engaged an enthusiastic rebel gentleman who, after making all the plans, &c., as to how he was to get the goods beyond the picket lines, seized upon the cloth as a prize and acknowledged to the lady that he was a detective.

☞ To-day is Good Friday.

☞ Gen. Lew. Wallace has addressed a letter to the Ohio Legislature in response to a vote of thanks for his gallant services, in which he says:

"This is neither 'Lincoln's war,' nor 'a war for negroes,' nor a war for conquest, or glory, or party. It is the people's war for free government. The only distinction that can be made between the hero who fell at Bunker Hill and the hero who fell at Shiloh is, one died to establish free government, the other died to perpetuate it—both are martyrs to liberty. Will the people abandon their cause? God forbid."

☞ At one time, when the Colonel of a Vermont regiment had charge of the pickets, he went to the brigade commander, Gen. Smith, and inquired how far he should extend the pickets that night. The General, who is fond of a little pleasantry, replied:

"Place the New York regiment out as far as you dare, station your own men half a mile further, then go half a mile beyond that, climb the highest tree you can find, and you will see the Sixth Maine boys out two or three miles, stealing corn without their guns!"

☞ Col. John H. George, late candidate for Congress, has sued the City of Concord since the election, for $2000, in a plea of the case, that he holds a City Note for $2000, which they offered to pay him in United States legal tender notes—which he refuses, demands gold, and brings this suit, notifying the city that he will insist on the trial next August. The suit, if successful, would replenish Col. George's pocket, injure the public credit and currency, and in its general effect would spread distress thro' the army, poverty among the soldiers' families, and bankruptcy over millions of working and business men in the free States. It would greatly encourage the rebels, and thereby strengthen the rebellion. U. T.

☞ One of the revolting cases of cruelty to house servants which seem to be indigenous to England, and to flourish in no other soil, is reported in a recent London paper. A Mrs. Thomas, widow, of excellent connections, and described by the counsel for the defense as having brought up a family of nine children "in the paths of honesty and virtue," was tried for unlawfully and maliciously doing grievous bodily harm to a servant girl of seventeen years, in her employ. It appeared in evidence that she cut off the girl's black hair, beat her with rolling-pins and fishing rods, starved her, kept her without clothing, and in many comparatively trifling ways made the child's life a burden. On one day, however, in the middle of December, she caused the poor creature to undress herself, leaving upon her only one garment, then sent her into the yard, and dispatched her owu son, twelve years of age, to bring pails of water cold from the pump; when they arrived, Mrs. Thomas mounted on a chair and poured their contents upon the shrinking girl, varying the proceedings by making the victim lie down upon the frosty stones while receiving the third ablution. The servant then ran away, and this complaint was made. The defense labored to blast the character of the girl, and to hold up Mrs. Thomas as a model of Christian virtues generally; but as the strongest testimony in her favor seemed to be that of a clergyman who could only assert that he had never been in her house when he had not found enough to eat, she was found guilty by the jury after an absence of twenty minutes, and in spite of her respectable connections, was sentenced to three months at hard labor.

HEMP PAPER.—Mr. Addison H. Laflin of Herkimer, New York, a large paper manufacturer, has addressed a letter to the farmers of Mohawk Valley, urging them to sow a large crop of hemp, for the purpose of paper-making. He says:—

"I would like to have hemp grown, and I will agree to purchase two thousand tons of hemp straw. I am told that good strong land will produce from three to five tons of hemp straw to the acre and from ten to twenty bushels of hemp seed. My process enables me to use the hemp straw after the seed has ripened; while heretofore the crop must be grown, either for the bark or seed, realizing only one profit. By selling me the hemp straw and others the hemp seed, a farmer will make two profits. It can all be mown with a mowing machine and dried like hay. The product of an acre, being four tons, will be fifty-five dollars."

☞ Trask's Anti-Tobacco Journal for March and April, contains a variety of spicy articles, among them, How Simeon lost Annette, the Pinch of Snuff, by L. H. S., and Mr. Falkner's Perfumes.

☞ Among the deserters who were arrested in New York a day or two since was James Kippler, who had enlisted in nine regiments and received one thousand dollars in bounty.

☞ A letter from Quebec, in relation to Canadian finances, says the deficiency this year will be nearly $3,000,000.

Assessors' Notice.

The inhabitants of the City of Portsmouth are hereby required as the law directs, to exhibit to the Assessors of said city a just and true account of their Polls and Estates taxable by law, on or before the 10th day of April next.

And all persons who not comply with the above requirement in handing in an inventory of their taxable estate and making oath to the same, may not expect any abatement.

The Assessors or any Justice of the Peace or the City Clerk, are proper persons to administer the oath; and each individual making his inventory shall have an endorsement on the same, certifying that it has been duly sworn to, and the same to be handed to one of the Assessors or left with their secretary at the City Clerk's office on or before the said 10th day of April next.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to fulling the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. E. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davis, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Raitt, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Frances C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Estes, a well-known merchant of Orford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they prefer it to any other sarsaparilla we have ever known, and there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to my fellow men and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had a most malignant form of her eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunkirk, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Ware, Esq., of the widely known firm of Cage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enameled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome tumor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. It was almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sewell, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have often cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No other remedy possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied me with in efficacy as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., of the widely known firm of Johnston, Holloway & Co., Philadelphia.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I had heard of, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The sleeves were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well as I ever was in my body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tuckahoe Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about two years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which soon covered his face, and actually blind his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we passed the hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Every thing failed, and when we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. We began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and well when we had taken the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Stead, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a most efficacious remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary forms. I have tried it in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Tine, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial medicines, growing more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the prescribing of SARSAPARILLA which effected him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by a scrofulous Secretion or ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, the aid of the PILLS, and the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Reuben Sherrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of irregularity, leucorrhœa, internal ulceration, and local debility, arising from a scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name,

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and extensive experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal taint and impure blood, Impotency, Secret Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, painful distress in the regions of prostration, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Strictures, Rheumatic Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mental effects on the mind are such to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be lodged and boarded in pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Cerates, warranted the best preparations ever offered for sale. Order by mail. Cerate for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, continues to cure only for all diseases incident to the female system. Irregular, Uterine, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressions, and all functional derangements, are (at) treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases which have baffled the skill of the ablest persons soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the care of diseases of females and children, than any other physician in Boston

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an study, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

CERTAIN CURE

In all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. and has proven all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, baffling by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imparts a new box for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE 'COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron boiler combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming oven attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of regulating every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about renewing or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, most agreeable—healthy—and as it is the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have for years been to obtain the great amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are turned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the pot, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large share of their caloric, thereby making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in use the following references, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Woodell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction upon the gums can be obtained by the mouth.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depression—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the metal plate in the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet by the wearer, as when finished the work prevents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET, }
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public at large that he has made calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the wearer, and will not break and checks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently, they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Persons who are waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do in the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRADWELL, Dr. BOARMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults and Children's teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial sets of teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. Wm. Grace surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Fresh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

Exalt the right, though every sin fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers & Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability enables me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Banks has re-established his headquarters at New Orleans. It is reported that Grover's brigade has been sent to reinforce Weitzell, who is holding a strong position at Berwick's Bay. A new plan of operations is said to be adopted, involving expeditions to clear the rebels from Atchafalaya and Red rivers, thus cutting off the enemy's supplies from Texas. Gen. Banks and Gen. Grover are reported to have been within six hundred yards of the rebel batteries the night the fleet passed Port Hudson. It is said Farragut started at night, eight hours before the time agreed upon, thus preventing Gen. Banks from getting his artillery in position to draw the rebels from their entrenchments.

Gen. Burnside reports that the entire rebel force has been driven out of Central Kentucky, and much of their plunder recaptured. The alacrity with which our troops were concentrated, and the vigor and gallantry of the attack are highly commended. Gen. Gilmore reports that in his attack, Mar. 30th, on the rebels at Somerset, Ky., their loss was over 300 in killed, wounded and prisoners. The enemy outnumbered us two to one, and were commanded by Pegrim in person. Night stopped the pursuit, which would be renewed in the morning. We captured two stands of colors. Our loss in killed, wounded and missing will not exceed thirty.—Scott's famous rebel regiment was cut off from the rest and scattered.

The Washington Republican contains the preliminary report of Gen. McClellan, dated Oct. 15th last, respecting the military operations under his charge since the evacuation of Harrison's Landing, which that paper says was furnished by the government. He condemns the disgraceful surrender of Harper's Ferry, within hearing of the sound of the guns of his army, which was coming to its relief; and argues, as has been generally admitted, that had the garrison held out 24 hours longer, he should in all probability have captured that part of the enemy's force in the attack on Maryland Heights, while the whole garrison, 12,000 strong, could have been drawn to reinforce him, and he would thus have been in a fine position to destroy the rebel army.—He would have had 35,000 or 40,000 less men to encounter at Antietam, and must have captured or destroyed all opposed to him. As it was, he had to engage an army fresh from a recent, and to them great, victory, and to reap the disadvantages of their being freshly and plentifully supplied with ammunition and supplies.

Admiral Porter disclaims all responsibility for the late attempt of the rams Switzerland and Lancaster to run by the Vicksburg batteries, in broad daylight. They have never been transferred from the War to the Navy Department, and are under command of Gen. Eliet.

The news from Vicksburg is not encouraging. Work on the cut-off has been abandoned; the Steele Bayou expedition has returned to Young's Point; and it is said the Indianola has been repaired, rendering Farragut's situation critical.

It is stated that our troops burnt nearly the whole of Pensacola, Fla., on its evacuation, thinking the place was to be entirely abandoned.

☞ The mysterious death of Mrs. Susan Thomas of Hoboken, N. J., from supposed poisoning, has been brought to light, and a Coroner has commenced an inquest on the body. The brain and stomach were not found when the post-mortem took place. John Jacob Thomas, the husband of the deceased, who is a wealthy merchant, has been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the death of his wife. From the testimony, it appears that three physicians had, at the instance of the husband, made a post-mortem examination; that they forgot to put back the portions of the body left out, and that subsequently the stomach was thrown into the sink. The investigation is still pending.

☞ The pirate Florida has destroyed another ship—the Star of Peace, of Newburyport, with a valuable cargo of Calcutta goods. In Demerara the Governor has issued orders that should the Confederate privateer Alabama call for supplies, the Captain was to be told that none could be furnished within the time prescribed by the imperial government.

☞ Two blockade runners from Charleston have arrived at St. Georges; one from Nassau has arrived at Charleston, and another at Wilmington. A Charleston paper says there are 4 steamers at the wharves in that city, which had arrived within five days from Nassau.

☞ There was a magnificent ovation to Gen. Butler at the New York Academy of Music on Thursday evening. He spoke two hours on the war.

MARKET FOR AMERICAN CROPS.—The New York Commercial Advertiser has an article demonstrating that the foreign market for our agricultural products is certain to be largely affected by events now taking place in Europe. Nearly all the countries of Southwestern Europe are now importers of breadstuffs—Great Britain and France regularly and to a large extent; Portugal, Spain, Italy, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands, occasionally, to a considerable extent. That supply comes from three sources—from the United States and Canada, the Baltic ports of Russia and Prussia, and the Russian ports on the Black sea.

The Southwestern provinces of Russia are the only grain exporting portions of Russia. The Polish war has already so enveloped nearly all that vast tract in a grand conflagration, that excepting Bessarabia, there is scarcely a prospect of its shipping a single pound the ensuing year.

Our farmers should lay this matter at once to heart. America in all probability will have a monopoly of the European grain market for several years to come. It will apparently come without our seeking, or even expecting it. Badly situated as have been France and Great Britain during the past two years, they are no better off at this moment, being still more dependent upon us than ever for the food which is to feed their populations. For though Providence may next Summer not shorten the harvests either by drought or a too copious supply of rains, yet a large deficit is now the rule, while one principal source of supply has been all but destroyed. London and Liverpool and Glasgow must look to the broad prairies of our Western States and to the fields of Upper Canada for a large share of the food they are to consume in 1864 and subsequently.

"Plant then, one acre more," is our advice, says the N. Y. Commercial, to every farmer who can procure the labor and the means necessary. Though a large stock of cereals is now on hand, the demand for them appears to be fully commensurate.—We shall probably have before long as many mouths in Europe to fill as of our own population. Every dislocation abroad is fixing the agricultural capability of our own country, if possible, on a more permanent basis, as every domestic shock is improving our mining and manufacturing industry. We must have enlarged canals and improved railroad facilities between the East and West. Necessity will create these. In fact, it would appear as if the terrible struggle still pending were destined at its close to leave the loyal States greater and richer than when it began.

☞ A son of Gen. Alden Blossom of Turner, Me., who served in the army, but returned home on account of disability, and was appointed to hunt up deserters, is reported to have been shot. In Skowhegan a few days since, he hired a team for the purpose of hunting up a man who had deserted. Being gone longer than he anticipated, the owner of the team started in pursuit of it and found it, but could find nothing of Blossom. From these circumstances arises a story that he was shot by the deserter of whom he was in pursuit.

☞ Our General officers do not credit the rumors about the impending evacuation of Richmond and Virginia by the rebels. They now understand that Gen. Lee, not knowing where he may be attacked, is so disposing his forces as to admit of rapid concentration at any exposed point. One of his latest moves was to strengthen his force near Petersburg and along the James river.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION will take place next Monday. It is closely contested, and the result is still in doubt. The State is close to New York, and a large part of the Democracy took stock in the traitorous sentiments of Fernando Wood, and would do nothing to aid the war, would not even send soldiers. The result is that a large part of those in the army from that State are drawn from those opposed to that wing of the Democracy at home.

☞ Among the refugees who applied to come into our lines a day or two since, was the wife of Jackson, the murderer of Ellsworth. She says she is destitute, and now comes to us for charity to sustain life.—What has become of the great rebel subscription in her behalf? She must have received it, if at all, in Confederate bonds.

☞ Truman Henry Safford, known while a boy by the exhibition of what may be termed intuitive computing powers of a very extraordinary character, has been appointed Assistant Professor of Astronomy at Harvard University.

☞ Shipbuilding in Maine promises to be brisk this year. The Brunswick Telegraph reports that twenty-three vessels are to be built at Thomaston and Waldoboro, and that on the Kennebec there are similar good prospects.

☞ The Houlton Times states that the export of shingles from Aroostook county has been very large the winter past. One purchaser for the Bangor market took over one and a half millions.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TONY.

Revolutionary Letter from Gen. Nath'l Folsom to Hon. Josiah Bartlett, back of New Hampshire, in 1780:—showing up the finance, the war policy, and the fear of that day.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14, 1780.

Sir.—I Recd. your letter of the 13th of May, the 10th of June, and should have answered it before now, but I have several reasons to offer by way of excuse. One is, I have not been absent one hour when Congress were setting since my arrival at this Place. The other is, the wather hass bin so hot that when out of Congress we have full employment to find air enough to breathe in. The last is, you seemed to be so angry at the Resolution of the 18th March, relative to finance, that I thought I would let you cool a little before I wrote again.

When I left Newhampshire, the Exchange was altought twenty for one, and on my arrival at this Place, I found it sixty, and before the 18th of March it wase almost an hundred for one, on an average. And had it not been for that Resolution of Congress, which seemed to make you so uneasy, by the midle of May it wood not have purchest any one thing in the market. This is not my opinion only, but (that of) almost every Member of Congress. And as you did not go so far as to say you thought the Exchange as fixt was too high or too low, or that it aught or aught not to be fixt at all, pots it out of my Power to give you satisfaction on this subject.

I suppose you will expect I should say something about our Public affairs in general, as they appear to us who are on the spot where information of every kind is most likely to be had. Much, very much, my good friend, is depending, in my opinion, on this Campgain. As the exertions of the several States are very great, unless some important Blow is struck, or something decissive is done, I am afraid of the effect it may have on the People at large, if call'd upon for the like exertions another year, and the disadvantages we may be laid under, if a negotiation for a Peace should take Place, is obvious.

I can inform you, our General's spirits and expectations are Rising, and also, that we expect every day to hear of the arrival of the 2d Division of Ships of War from France, on which depends, in my opinion, all our offensive opperations.

Yesterday I heard Col. Peabody was unwell, at Morristown I shall set out for home on the 20th of September at farthest, if I shood live so long, and am able, and shall expect somebody to Relieve me by that time, or the State will be unrepresented.

The intense hot wather we have had here for a long time Past, and constant confinement, has brought me somewhat low. A Ride to the northward I hope will be of service to me. Be so good as to informe President Weare that there has bin no Publication of the Prises Drawn in the last lottery as yet; as soon as there is any I will forward it to him.

I am, with Respect,

Sir, Your most obt. Humble Servent,

NATHANIEL FOLSOM.

To the Honble. Josiah Bartlett.

☞ Winthrop W. Chenery of Belmont, Me., has received an importation of sheep from Friesland. They are known as Texal sheep of Moulton Flandrin, the ewe being remarkable for fecundity. It is a large, long wooled breed, which produces heavy fleeces and of a tolerable degree of fineness. This breed was produced by a cross of the native sheep of Holland with the long-legged African sheep, native of the coast of Guinea, and imported thither. Mr. Chenery desires to test the economical value of this breed of sheep for Massachusetts and Maine.

☞ Complete returns from the State of Rhode Island show a majority for James Y. Smith, Republican Union candidate for Governor, over Wm. C. Cozzens, of 3311, and 3009 over all. For Congress, Thomas A. Jenckes has 1918 majority over Charles S. Bradley; and Nathan F. Dixon 1022 majority over George H. Brown. Smith's supporters have two-thirds of each House of the General Assembly. At the election last year there was no opposition to Gov. Sprague. Two years ago the Republicans were defeated on the candidate for Governor by 1274 majority and lost both members of Congress.

☞ Gen. Saxton, commanding at Beaufort, N. C., has commanded that the remains of a soldier who loses his life while in the service of his country, shall have a Christian burial. If no Chaplain or friend can be found to read the burial service of the soldier, the General commanding will perform the sad duties himself.

☞ The Bath, Me., Times says parties in another State are talking of establishing a manufactory of chain cables in that city. The company propose to own a steamboat to run between Bath and Boston. The works would consume about 1000 tons of bar iron per month, and employ a large number of men.

☞ Town meetings are to be held on Monday throughout Massachusetts to see whether the "two years" clause of the constitution requiring for ignors to reside in the state two years after they are naturalized before they can vote, shall be repealed.

☞ A horse worth $200, was killed in Gardiner, Maine, a few days since, by running against the shaft of a sleigh, which entered his bowels.

☞ The people in the country parishes of Louisiana are said to be in an actual starving condition.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. David Remick, of Rye, has a cow of the common New England stock, and of good size, though not uncommonly large, which gave birth a few days since to three calves, weighing together 155 lbs. on the day of birth. All the four were doing well at the last accounts.

—— Twenty men, deserters and stragglers from the various N. H. regiments, passed through Manchester on Wednesday, en route for the Army, in compliance with the late order for all absent without leave to return to their regiments.

—— A Fair is to be held in Manchester in aid of the U. S. Sanitary Commission.

—— A Flannel Mill in West Concord, owned and occupied for the last 20 years by Messrs. B. F. & D. Holden, was burnt Wednesday A. M. The main building, of brick, which was 80x30 and three stories in height, was destroyed. The stone wing, 40x30, containing spinning frames and other machinery, was saved. An adjacent storehouse and a dwelling house owned by the same firm were also destroyed, with a considerable amount of cloth and weaving materials. Only about 35 operatives are thrown out of employment, as a new mill of the same firm has just been put in operation. The loss is estimated at from 17 to $20,000; insured for about $15,000.

—— Benj. F. Gale was inaugurated as Mayor of Concord on Thursday.

☞ The account of the capture of a schooner with contrabandists and contraband goods on the lower Potomac, it appears, was first published on the 1st of April, in the Washington Star.

☞ A large quantity of Enfield rifles have recently arrived in Augusta, Me., and are stored at the U. S. Arsenal there, also a large amount of powder.

☞ A private letter mentions a wealthy resident of Jacksonville, Fla., who actually died of grief when the State went out of the Union.

☞ Gold declined to 152 1 2 in New York on Friday afternoon.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the clothes.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any further comments. But we might add that it is admitted the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

Local.

☞ Rev. Lyman Whiting, of Providence, R. I., will preach at the North Church, to-morrow.

Mr. William G. Nowell, of this city, will preach at the Universalist Church to-morrow.

We are requested to state that there will be no services to-morrow at the Court St. Christian Church. Rev. Moses How is expected to preach on the following Sabbath.

The Rev. A. F. Griffith, late pastor of the 1st Baptist Church in Montgomery, Ala., and a refugee on account of his Union sentiments, will lecture in the Temple, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock. An admittance fee of five cents will be charged to aid Mr. Griffith, who lost everything but his honor and life. Having been at three different times partially hung by the mob, his narrative of sufferings is one of thrilling interest. He comes fully endorsed.

☞ We must please ourselves, at least, by saying that anybody who knows how much hard work there is necessary to the making of a good newspaper,—and especially, in these days, a good, readable weekly paper—must decide that our old neighbor and cotemporary, the Portsmouth Journal, is among the best, as it is deservedly one of the most popular. And the number for this week, we believe, is even richer than usual. We are indebted for several extracts from its well-filled columns, this morning. One pleasing feature to us is, the general abstinence from bitter political slang.

☞ Two wooden steamers, it is said, were recently ordered to be built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. It is one of these, we presume, which has been commenced on the ways from which the Patuxet was recently launched.

☞ At the recent school meeting in District No. 3, Messrs. Richard Walden and William S. Willey were elected members of the School Committee for three years.

☞ 1st Lieut. Wm. H. Cornelius, 3d N. H. regiment, of this city, has tendered his resignation, and it has been accepted.

☞ A portion of the ship Star of Peace, lately destroyed by the pirate Florida, was owned in this city.

☞ Mr. Wendell advertises a large variety of desirable goods at auction, at his store on State street, this morning, afternoon and evening. Also regular sales each afternoon and evening. Mr. Adams has a sale of chips at the Navy Yard, at 12 o'clock, on account of the Navy Dept.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY.

An adjourned meeting of the Mercantile Library Association, for the choice of officers, will be held this, Saturday, evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Library Room.

April 4th. J. C. BROWN, Pres.

☞ Capt. Phillip H. W. Fontane, U. S. N., who was captured by the rebels when the U. S. steamer Mississippi was burnt near Port Hudson, was stationed at the Portsmouth Navy Yard a year or two since. While here he ranked as Lieutenant, and has since been promoted. He had many friends in this city, acquired by his uniform courtesy and unflinching loyalty. He is a native of Florida, from which he was appointed. He was detached from the Navy Yard and assigned to the Mississippi. Late advices from New Orleans report that he is to be exchanged for the rebel Capt. Youngblood.

☞ The U. S. steam gunboat Agawam is expected to be launched at Portland on Tuesday next. She has been built under the superintendence of Carp'r Wm. F. Laighton, U. S. N., of this city.

☞ The Grand Union League of Maryland has issued an address proposing a National Convention of all the Leagues and Clubs in the country in June next, and suggesting the 17th day, for the purpose of consultation in reference to the interests of the order, and the promotion of the country's cause.

☞ Mr. Charles Dickens was recently highly successful in reading for charitable purposes in Paris. Fired by his example, several gentlemen of high standing in the literary world conceived the project of giving a series of reading and lectures for the increase of the funds for the starving. Charten; Laboulaye; Legouve, the dramatist; Renau, professor of Hebrew at the Sorbonne; Martin, the historian; Reybaud, were among those who volunteered their aid to this worthy cause. The Prefect of Police must first be solicited, however, and his consent obtained. After a delay of some days, the said official returned a carefully worded reply, expressing his high appreciation, and all that, but refusing; the ground taken was that the readings and lectures might constitute real public courses of instruction requiring the authorization of the University. This was the idea of the Minister of Public Instruction, the Prefect said, and that functionary was not inclined to receive favorably the offer. Hence, refusal to the philanthropic, and continual starvation to the hungry.

MARRIAGES.

From the Journal

THE LAST FREAK OF MARCH.

The winter months had all been very penurious in drawing their deposits from the snow-banks. December holding on for a rise, said "not yet." January seemed determined to keep the stock still in reserve, being averse to a "fall." And short February concluded to carry out the idea of his predecessors, by making as little "bluster" as possible. March found the snow stock on hand, rather suffering by being "kept up," and so on his first day began to discount freely, — and through the whole month dealt out a liberal supply and set in continual motion the merry bells which had been so long quiet.

The last day of the month had arrived, and boisterous March was about to give up his reign. His milder sister April was ready to assume the the throne. The old month found that his stock was not all expended, and so he gallantly prepared a brilliant birth-day present for his successor, as rich and glorious as ever a dying month had bestowed. He piped up his legions, and they scraped from the clouds the whitest crystals—his warm blow-pipes skilfully moistened the flakes to an adhesive consistency, and down to earth came the ermine dress for April. Every tree and shub, branch and twig, was dressed in the pure robe of white. Old age seemed to have produced a mildness in the boisterous prince of the year, as he shook his hoary locks and rode off on his "butting sled" at midnight. April awoke! She rubbed her eyes, so prone to tears, and wondered that she was beneath the ocean depths, wandering among splendid coral forests, mildly lighted by some luminary through the waters above.

Of the beauty of the scenery on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, we need not speak.—For it was a free exhibition to everybody, lovely and rare.

THE LATE WILLIAM STAVERS.

Mr. WILLIAM STAVERS, one of our oldest, most venerable and respectable citizens, died on the 28th ult., in the 80th year of his age. He was older than the Declaration of Independence, the principles of which he lived to see repudiated by a large part of the country. He was born and always resided in this city, and by a life of industry, integrity and economy accumulated an ample fortune. His modesty was as marked as his ability to fill prominent positions. It was as difficult to persuade him to take public trusts as it often is to keep unqualified people out of them.

He was at the time of his death, and for many years had been, a director of the Piscataqua Exchange Bank, a trustee and one of the Investment Committee of the Portsmouth Savings Bank, and President of the Newcastle Bridge. He formerly held other important trusts, which, on account of his age, he sometime since declined longer to hold. He had considerable ability, and was a sagacious and successful business man. He had no taste for or confidence in speculations, but regarded property as of little value except as the result of a life of industry, integrity and self denial. He was, during his long life, one of the most constant attendants upon public worship—regularly occupying his seat at church up to a fortnight before his death. He was an exemplary christian—fearing God, he knew no other fear.

His conduct in all public and private trusts, in all the relations and duties of life, was marked by that fidelity which knew no wavering, that wisdom which inspired respect, and that gentleness which avoided offence, though joined with a firmness that never faltered.

Though long retired from active business, he retained to the last an unimpared interest in public and private affairs. He was, until a few days before his death, to be met nearly every day in his quiet walks through the street with the elastic step of most men of half his years.

He had a long, prosperous and happy life—enjoyed the respect of all who knew him, and died in the faith and with the hope of a christian.

PASSION WEEK.

St. John's Church by Candle Light.

We were much pleased and edified to be present at St. John's Church on Thursday evening, April 2d, at the celebration of the Holy Communion, by the Rev. Mr. Davies, in his solemn and impressive manner. This is the first time in Portsmouth the Communion Service has been administered in the Church in the evening, though it is done in other cities; and when we look back to the time of its first celebration, in the small upper chamber in Jerusalem, where the Savior met, for the last time, the disciples, before his crucifixion, and commanded them to celebrate it until his coming again, in remembrance of him.

What more proper time for such a celebration—to meet around his holy altar, in remembrance of one who brought peace on earth and good will to men; and in this ancient church, with its Gothic arches and frescoed walls, with light unobstructed reflected from the Chancel to every part of the church, — by a full and attentive audience, surrounding the table of their dying Lord, and commencing the service by that beautiful hymn:

"When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride."

May we annually meet on this interesting occasion, and be made better men and christians, and we shall then be prepared to meet our Divine Head, when he shall come again in his Glory.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.—There are few episodes in life which possess the interest, and with pleasurable emotions recall past scenes of the home circle, as do golden weddings. And these occur so seldom, comparatively, that they are fit occasions for passing notice.

Fifty years ago the 18th of March, there were married at Hampton Capt. Caleb Towle and Miss Sarah Swain. The years have tripped lightly over them, with the usual sprinkling of roses and thorns upon their path, until they have passed together down to the very verge of the prescribed three score and ten, and have been permitted to assemble around them their children and children's children, upon the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Four sons and four daughters retraced their steps to the family homestead in Hampton Falls, bringing with them those whom they had clustered about their own firesides, forming a family tree—root trunk and branch—whose leaf had not withered beneath any touch of death.

Those who have received upon the Eastern and the P. S. & P. Railroads, the ever ready attentions of conductors E. A. and O. L. Towle, may well reckon this was a happy family party—one which united the good cheer of genial souls to that of a well-spread board; and the interchange of greeting; the presenting of gifts; the recalling of "auld lang syne" by the older, and the hopeful anticipations by the younger members of the party; together with thoughts felt but not expressed, gave a prestige to the event which can be but feebly presented by types. The occasion was made a complete "surprise party" to the worthy couple.

Rev. Dr. WILLIAM LAMSON, of Brookline, has returned from his visit to England, &c. Some interesting letters from him have appeared in the Watchman and Reflector.

VANDALISM.—On Tuesday night an elegant sign, gilded on zinc, in front of the store of Mr. Lafayette Laighton, was torn down and destroyed by some of the night wanderers, who ought to find a home in the house of correction. The sign cost ten dollars.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

For Every Form of Scrofulous Disease, this Remedy Stands Unrivalled.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never put one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As for cures, I have more than I can count, there have been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had a wafflesing blotch, burst in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunsbrville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very disfiguring. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known firm of Gage, Marsing & Co., manufacturers of a numbered paper in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome eruption in my face, which would not constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, without any real relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's. I am without a trace of any symptoms of the disease that I knew of. I enjoy good health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Swain, Houston St., New York.

"DEAR SIR: I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. We believe we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wahrenan, Ohio.

"For two years, I had the yellow blotches on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicine. The sikers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monroe, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. The humor spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for a time. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should scratch off the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well before we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any child. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Sheet, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DEAR SIR: In my practice, I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in cases where mercury had been administered to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated, defying every spell of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Two cases can be found more desperate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, which yields to the searching and alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in disease of the secondary cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have found it to do all that is claimed for it, and more, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, NOS 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed in a single instance, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of nervous debility and impure blood, Impotency, Seminal Weakness, Gleet, Pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the testicles and prostate gland, Gonorrhœa, Stricture, Buboes, Bright's Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending the close of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest strings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to transact business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, are some of the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be here at all with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, a most powerful but preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott street, Boston, continues to remove all female diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressions, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. No in rashly certain is the use made of medicines, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in this class of cases than any other living physician, than any other physician in Boston

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under the treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to the same practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. on cases of every kind and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. Dow, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

Dr. Dow's celebrated pills has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large upper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling out of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any Stove in the market. Many families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, it is the economy to produce breathe so much complained of in other furnaces is entirely obviated.

The advantages claimed by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some even more dangerous than those over formerly in use, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being heavier than air, rises off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, they are forced upon by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of fuel, without burning a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. The Plate can be made much thinner, by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents the whole piece.

6th. While in all cases it is better, easier in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER; that he has purchased the sole VULCANIZER in this town, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER, as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and gums. There are no crevices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.

All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry I will do at the usual rates.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit foli to be encouraged—Its common and continual mischief is enough to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (since the Act of 1836,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Models made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or investigations, and legal or other advice rendered in all cases touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AND AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and its SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANCED AND ABILITY. He would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for procuring patents so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render this office peculiarly valuable, to other agents' facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to prepare their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Have you used the Strela Matches?
J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 1 Congress Block, has just received from the manufactory a large lot of STRELA MATCHES.
These matches are without sulphur and without smell in burning, which adapts them for the Sick Room, the Parlor, or for general use, being heavy enough to outweigh any other kind of Matches. They are put up in boxes of 100 matches, and are sold at the low price of three cents per box, or 12 boxes containing 1200 matches for 30 cents—being 12 for a cent!
Orders supplied at the manufacturer's price.

MONDAY, APRIL 6, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Grant, it is said, has succeeded in placing a battery of 84 pounder Parrotts beyond the levee in a position easily to reach Vicksburg, and is about to commence bombardment.

The N. Y. Times' Washington despatch says: It is asserted in a quarter entitled to credit that a draft will soon be made to fill up all the regiments to the proper standard. It is not known how many it will require, but probably near 200,000.

Gen. King is assigned to the command of Yorktown for the present. Gen. Keyes relieves Gen. Dix, at Fortress Monroe, in a few days, the latter going home to recruit his health.

In the recent fight at Somerset, Ky., the rebels were twice routed, and crossed the river in great confusion. More than 100 of them were drowned.—Gen. Burnside and staff are now at Lexington, Ky.

The rebels under Van Dorn, are reported to be attempting to flank Gen. Rosecrans on the left.

Col. Lowe, at Fort Donelson, telegraphs that the enemy are approaching in force.

It is reported, apparently upon trustworthy authority that Gov. Andy Johnson has been successful in obtaining from the Government full powers for the liberation of East Tennessee, that he has been authorized to raise troops for this specific purpose, and to cut all the red tape that might embarrass him.

☞ A valuable citizen of the so-called Confederate States of America recently showed himself in brilliant colors in the Hammersmith Police Court, charged with annoying a lady. In January he had troubled her, but had been put under bonds to keep the peace. His manner of keeping the peace was to visit the lady's house, bespatter the door with mud, ring the bells violently and collect a mob. In defense of his conduct he said that he only did such things when he was drunk. But as it transpired that he was never sober, that hardly put the injured party at ease. The prisoner further said that he had just obtained an important appointment in the Confederate States, and that his visit to the complainant's house was only a parting call, for the purpose of bidding her good-by. His method of saying that sweet word might be peculiar, but it was sincere, and innocent of evil design.—The magistrate regarded the story of an appointment as an idle excuse, and thought that any one so low as to make such an excuse, should be shut out even from the bliss of starving in the Southern army. So he had three months.

☞ The ship Washington, from Callao for Antwerp, arrived at Southampton Mar. 20th, having been captured by the pirate Alabama, Feb. 20th, but released on a bond for $50,000. She brought the crews of the Golden Eagle, Olive Jane and Palmetto, ships burnt by the Alabama.

☞ Gen. Dix, in a card to the New York Times denies that he has ever expressed to any one the opinion that the enemy is about to evacuate Richmond. Gen. D. has no information to warrant such a conclusion.

☞ Among the sick soldiers at the U. S. general hospital, near Hampton, Va., Mar. 25, were the following from this city:—F. F. Batchelder, Co. A, 11th regiment, measles; Owen H. Roche, Co. E, 15th regiment, typhoid fever; Aaron Sias, Co. G, 10th regiment, debility.

☞ The Richmond Sentinel says the two houses of the rebel Legislature agreed on a bill for securing a supply of salt.—It authorizes the impressment of the salt works in Washington county, to be worked on State account.

☞ Hon. John C. Underwood, Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, has been appointed U. S. Judge for Eastern Virginia, and will establish a Federal Court at Norfolk, June 1st.

☞ The Grand Jury of Fairfield county, Ohio, has found an indictment against Gov. Tod, of that State, for the arrest of Dr. Olds for alleged disloyal practices. He has been admitted to bail for his appearance in June.

☞ A few days ago twenty women in Atlanta, Ga., maddened with the sight of their starving children at home, collected in a body, and broke into and plundered several groceries of meat and flour, in broad daylight.

☞ The Port Royal, S. C., New South complains of the quality of the books furnished to the colored people by benevolent individuals and associations. It thinks "The Young Gleaner," "Little Pilgrim," and the like, hardly suited to weather-beaten soldiers in camp.

☞ The Springfield Republican good naturedly complains of an Italian opera with an orchestra of only one piece, a piano.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— An Irishwoman observed a "lady" slip a package of remnants of prints under her shawl in a store in Manchester, during the temporary absence of the clerk, and accused her of the theft. Finding she was detected she returned the package and departed.

—— An Episcopal Church and Society is about to be established at Charlestown.—About $1000 has been subscribed for the immediate erection of a church edifice.

—— The Claremont Eagle states that the Rt. Rev. Bishop Chase has been suffering from a serious illness for two or three weeks past, but is slowly improving. It is in contemplation to employ a colleague, who shall share with him the clerical labors of Trinity parish—the colleague to preach, as the plan is, alternately at Claremont and at Charlestown.

——In Newport, a few days ago, as a little girl, five years old, was playing in front of a blacksmith's shop, her dress caught fire from a fire which had been made for the purpose of heating tire. The child, in alarm, started to run directly in the face of the wind, but a workman in the shop caught her, and gave her rather an informal immersion in a brook.

—— The Universalist chapel in Newport has been closed for some month, but an effort is to be made to secure the services of a preacher, temporarily, if not permanently.

—— In Manchester, a double two-story house on Prospect St., owned by I. Dodge, has been sold to Aaron Tilton for $2,150. Mrs. H. T. Wilson has sold her residence at the head of Concord Square to J. S. Batchelder, for about $2000.

—— In New Boston there are seven sisters whose average age is 83. Their father was Mr. John Gordon.

—— In Ward 5, Manchester, a man wished to find John O'Flaherty. He found several of that name, but none seemed to be the right one, until an O'Flaherty was brought forward, who said his name was sometimes called John and sometimes Michael. The inference was, that it was too soon after election for the men to know positively their own names, matters were so "mixed" that day.

—— The Concord Statesman says that about 11 o'clock on Wednesday forenoon, April 1, a large section of the western wall of the State Prison, fell to the ground. It was a clean breach, nearly 80 feet in length, and extending from the top to the lower courses of stone. A wooden fence, with posts, for setting which frozen ground had to be pierced, and plank, extending from the ground to the height of the remaining wall was constructed. Before sundown all was made secure as practicable until mild days come. None of the prisoners escaped.

—— Fast Day in this State has been postponed to April 30."

NORAH'S REMONSTRANCE.

Now, Terence have done wid yer taxing,
Do you be aisy, and let me alone;
Its the skin from me fingers ye're squeasing;
Sure ye think they're as hard as your own!

I'm worried to death wid yer pratin;
And frightened clane out of me life;
So pray don't be idly consating
You'll ever catch me for a wife.

What is it you say?—that I'm joking?
That you won't budge an inch from my side?
Indade, now, ye're mighty provoking,
And I don't know which way to decide.

I'm just like the bird that the fowler
Is coaxing down into his snare;
Och, Terence! ye sly, scheming prowler,
Ye're hunting me lips, I declare!

Leave off sir! How dare ye to do it?
I suppose, as ye'will have yer way,
I'd better (but mind me ye'll rue it!)
Place yer whim by just naming the day.

Don't think it's for love I'm consenting—
Och, murther, ye're stopping me breath—
But only in hopes of preventing
Meself being bothered to death!

THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS.

This was a motto some time ago, coupled with the "Union as it was." But the scenes shift rapidly in our drama of national life, and the actors assume new characters, change their masks, and talk in other strains.

We have now before us the new Pennsylvania Platform, agreed upon and published by "the Democratic members of the Pennsylvania Legislature,"—which we perceive is endorsed by the Portland Argus as "a calm, statesmanlike presentation of the issues before us—in harmony with the views of the loyal 'border State men,' and must meet the approbation of all conservative men who think more of the salvation of the country than they do of the perpetuation of party ascendency."

The same paper says this platform was "agreed upon by the Democratic members of the Pennsylvania Legislature after a very careful consideration, and upon consultation with many of the most prominent gentlemen of the Democratic party of the country."

We suppose no risk is run in taking the resolutions of this platform as the views of the Peace Democrats generally.

They resolve,—"That while this General Assembly condemns and denounces the faults of the Administration and the encroachments of the Abolitionists, it does also most thoroughly condemn and denounce the heresy of Secession, as unwarranted by the Constitution, and destructive alike of the security and perpetuity of Government, and of the peace and liberty of the people."

"That this General Assembly hails with pleasure and hope the manifestations of conservative sentiment among the people of the Northern States in their late elections, and regard the same as the earnest of a good purpose upon their part to cooperate with all other loyal citizens in giving security to the rights of every section, and maintaining the Union and the Constitution as they were ordained by the founders of the Republic."

They also protest against the President because "under the guise of military necessity, he has proclaimed and extended martial law over States where war did not exist, and has suspended the writ of habeas corpus, unwarranted by the Constitution," —and enter their solemn protest against his emancipation proclamation, "by which he assumes to emancipate slaves in certain States, they "holding the same to be unwise, unconstitutional, and void."

They declare, "determined opposition to a system of emancipation by the States upon compensation to be made out of the Treasury of the United States, as burdensome upon the people, unjust in its very nature, and wholly without warrant of the Constitution."

They resolve "That Pennsylvania will adhere to the Constitution and the Union as the best, it may be the last, hope of popular freedom; and for all wrongs which may have been committed, or evils which may exist, will seek redress under the Constitution, and within the Union, by the peaceful but powerful agency of the suffrage of a free people."

So far, all is theory, and may be briefly summed up in these words:—We go for the Constitution as the fathers made it,—consider every movement against slavery null and void,—and deem every exercise of the war power a usurpation.

But when we come to practical matters, we find the Constitution is not to remain as it is,—nor is the Union to remain as it was: both are to be greatly changed.

For the Pennsylvania Platform says, we "would hail with pleasure and delight any manifestation of a desire on the part of the seceded States to return to their allegiance to the Government of the Union, and would, in such event, cordially and earnestly cooperate with them in the restoration of peace, and the procurement of such proper guarantees as would give security to all their interests and rights."

And to carry out this idea, it says that "whenever it becomes practicable to obtain a convention of all, or three-fourths of the States, such a body should be convened, for the purpose of proposing such amendments to the Federal Constitution as experience has proved to be necessary," &c.

The guarantees to be procured, are neither more nor less than additional strengthening plasters to uphold slavery and give greater security to that interest. And the proposition is that a Convention of the States shall do all that Democrats refused to do at Charleston, and a great deal more of the same sort in addition.

Whatever may be the wisdom or folly of the proposition, its success must be considered highly improbable, almost impossible!

It is about seventy years since the last amendment on paper, of our national constitution—yet there have been great changes made in the actual policy and powers of the government.

In the above extracts from the new Pennsylvania Platform, objections are made to several recent acts, because not authorized by the Constitution.

The same objections were raised against the purchase of Louisiana, viz. that it was unauthorized, and therefore unconstitutional. Mr. Jefferson's answer was, in substance,—I know it was not authorized,—but it is necessary, desirable and wise.

This was a great change of constitution, not in form but in fact—we have since had several more something like it,—and changes are now making, rapidly, by the force of circumstances.

Formal amendments to the constitution can be made in two ways only, viz. 1, by proposal of two-thirds of both Houses of Congress, to be ratified by three-fourths of the States:—or 2, by a convention called on application of the Legislatures of two-thirds of the States, and the doings of this convention to be ratified by three fourths of the States.

This concurrence in the above proposition, of three-fourths and two thirds, we repeat, is most improbable! The Democratic party at Charleston gave a strong majority against such base offers, and repeated that majority afterwards at the polls. It is not to be presumed that they will all eat their words, and vote for viler offers now. And then, there are quite a number of men called republicans, in all the free States, who might aid the democratic freemen, in voting to keep the Constitution as it is, and at all events not to make the Union worse instead of better.

It would be hard work to drag twenty-six States upon a platform which should make slavery supreme, secession lawful, and the general government powerless.

Anybody who thinks differently, may try it—but the Sun of Liberty and Progress will neither go backward nor stand still in this century, at any body's bidding.

Let every candid man look at this matter in the light of facts, of reason, and of right.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!
THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!
The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.
It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.
The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any farther comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.
☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜
Rye, N.H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, at times so much affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold his to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. Josiah Jenness.
Portsmouth, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least notice from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. Lowd.
From Elder I Chesley, Lee, May 31, 1841.
Dr. Swett: Permit me to testify as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, unable to her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced taking your Panacea and Humor Wash. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. Isaxel Chesley
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to Dr. S. Swett, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

CITY HOTEL, PORTSMOUTH.—We learn that the Administrator of the estate of the late Maj. Goodwin, has disposed of the furniture, &c., of the City Hotel to Messrs. Charles S. Jones, & Otis A. Frost, of Great Falls, who will hereafter carry on the house. Mr. Jones is widely known as formerly connected with the Merrimack House, in Boston, and the hotel of the same name in Newburyport, and is also at present landlord of another hotel at Great Falls. He has the reputation of understanding the business, and is a popular man with the travelling public. Under the new proprietors, we have no doubt, the City Hotel will be found a comfortable stopping place, and a flourishing business will follow.

DR. LEWIS' LECTURE at the Temple Friday evening, was highly enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience. Very pleasant illustrations of a few of the numerous exercises of his new Gymnastics, were given by eight young ladies of the High School—the highly commendable example of their lady teacher, in taking part with them to encourage their appearance, receiving the special approbation of Dr. Lewis, as it must also from all who regard the school as they should—since it evinces the readiness of the teacher to consult her pupils' interests before her own preferences. Four gentlemen, from the audience, members of the Portsmouth Gymnasium, also went through a few exercises, new to them.

The Dr.'s theory is, for light, active exercise, which at the same time shall be amusement and not toil, and be participated in by all ages and both sexes. The Portsmouth Gymnasium is a good institution, as far as it goes—and Dr. L. says can easily be improved to accommodate the new gymnastics also. It only needs a little ornamenting, and to be furnished with a piano, and warmed, to be inviting to ladies. Shall it be done? What say the managers and the public? Dr. Lewis says lady teachers are fully as successful as men, and one graduate of his late class yet remains unemployed. What better thing can be done, than to secure her services for a term?

The lecturer earnestly contended for fresh air—ventilation, always, everywhere, by day and by night; cordially recommended open stoves, and wood rather than coal—denounced furnaces without stint, and insisted on sunshine as absolutely indispensable to perfect health. His remarks were made entirely without notes, and were in a pleasing, colloquial style, which few men can so successfully attempt.

He thought men's clothing very good, except close hats; and advised women to greatly alter that of themselves and their children—not necessarily in outward appearance, but so as to give greater protection and freedom to all parts of the body.

His remarks were listened to with attention to the end, and should be productive of much good.

Dr. Lewis visited the High Schools in the morning, and greatly interested pupils and teachers. He has recently invented or perfected a book-holder, for school use particularly, which obviates, and in fact precludes the continual stooping posture which the pupil is now actually forced to adopt, to study a book on the desk. He regards this little implement as the most important contribution he has ever made to the cause of physical science and comfort—inasmuch as it so vitally concerns the young, as well as students and readers of all ages—and it is evident that gymnastic exercise for half an hour a day, cannot overcome the evil effects on form and health, of a child's stooping at study for four or five hours daily.—Mr. J. H. Foster has the article on sale,—and every pupil ought to have one. Parents should not fail to examine it.

We have got plenty more to say on this all-important subject of physical culture and gymnastics—but we don't believe it will conduce to our comfort or health (if it would to that of our readers) to sit longer at this desk now, so a-dio-s.

SHIP STAR OF PEACE, burnt by the Florida, was built on the Merrimac, by Mr. John Currier, Jr., in 1858, and measured nearly 1000 tons. She was owned by John Currier, Jr., of Newburyport, Charles Hill of Boston, and Captain Lambert of this city. Mr. Currier had $7000 insured on her in Newburyport. We know not how fully the vessel and cargo—which were more than $400,000 value—were insured. The cargo was 9098 bags saltpetre, 4460 bags linseed, 790 bales gunny bags, 228 bales cow hides, 115 bales buffalo hides, and 131 bales goat skins. War risks on the cargo for about $117,000, are held by Boston merchants.

Capt. Lambert, we understand, recently insured his portion of the ship against war risks, but his portion of the cargo was not insured.

☞ By direction of the Mayor men have been employed within a few days past in removing the superabundant mud from many of the streets crossings in this city,—an attentive regard to cleanliness which will be appreciated by pedestrians who black their own boots, if there are any such in Portsmouth.

GREAT SALE OF CARRIAGE STOCK.—Readers will observe by an advertisement in our paper to-day, that the entire stock of carriages, stock, machinery, tools, &c., in the extensive carriage manufactory of Messrs. Head, Jewell & Co., is to be sold at auction in Exeter, on Thursday of this week. The sale offers a rare chance to those desirous of purchasing, and will doubtless attract a crowd.

☞ The following jurors have been drawn in Ward Two, to serve at the S. J. Court at Exeter, April 14,—John Stavers, grand juror; J. Woodman Moses, Benj. F. Webster and Andrew H. Jones, petit jurors.

☞ The afternoon train from Boston on the Eastern Railroad arrives at Portsmouth at half past five o'clock,—and from Portland at the same time. This is the summer arrangement, beginning to-day.

☞ Our friends of the Ballot, in their last paper, advertise an auction, and date it 1831. If these figures "don't lie," they can hardly be said to stand straight.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d. It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th. Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a few times through the Machine, out of hot suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the cloth, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring smooth and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to injuring the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel; and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one the "domestic institutions." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!
THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that widely distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake nearly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Davis, Jeremiah Rand, Rev. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eddy, a well known merchant of Gorham, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Scurvy, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the wonderful virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Elen, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Somerville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of counsellor papers in Madison, Ind.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became a formidable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could or both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately put my humor to rest, and I believe it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and consequently until my cure is complete, I feel it is safe and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sayers, Houston St., New York.

DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores with the use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative so powerful equals your SARSAPARILLA. I have supplied to "the profession as well as to the people."

From J. F. Johnson, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated phy sicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicine. The ulcers grew so bad, that the doctors decided to amputate, and the doctors decided that my hand must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very best results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Stickler, Esq., the able editor of the Pennsylvania Telegraph, Harrisburg, Pa.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They quickly spread until they formed a loathsome and painful sore, which, from the child's scratching, blotted his eyes to close shut. A skillful physician applied bandages of silver nitrate, which, of course, blackened the child's face for days. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrosive wound which covered his whole face. Nothing brought relief, and we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the lotion of potash lotion, as you direct. In one week from the time we began using the first bottle, and wonderful when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had gone out, grew again, and he has been healthy and free as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child would die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Stark, of St. Louis, Mo.

"I prefer your SARSAPARILLA to any other medical remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease from any other or private cause. Many persons have resorted to you for some of the best testimony to show."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER, My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of primary and secondary type, and shall use it in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we shall do when our supply is exhausted, as there is a power in this alterative required."

Mr. Chas. S. Fox, Dep. of New Brunswick, N. J., has gratefully testified that his little daughter, afflicted for months with a scrofulous disease, which grew more and more aggravated in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until it became a mass of ulcers, was cured by your Pills and SARSAPARILLA.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulcerations, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require the addition of AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, to the regular use of SARSAPARILLA, the skillful application of local remedies.

From the well known and widely celebrated Dr. Dow, of Boston.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in Chronic Diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, and Uterine Ulceration have yielded to it, and there are few that do not show its effect in greatly aiding local treatment. I feel, accordingly, in recommending the preparation of your SARSAPARILLA."

"My daughter and myself were both cured of a very obstinate Leucorrhœa, after using, by the two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, which caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1863. NO. 44

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined,
The world our home—our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—In common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Undersigned not only gives proofs that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him, beyond question, the superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN PAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

It is reported that the rebels, anticipating an attack via Yazoo Pass or Haines' Bluff, have withdrawn a large part of their forces from the front to the rear of Vicksburg. A dispatch says that during a high wind on Tuesday night the rebel gunboat Vicksburg broke from her moorings, floated down the stream, and was captured by Farragut's vessels. Unless something is speedily accomplished by the Yazoo Pass expedition, it is presumed that it will be abandoned.—Shelling from the nearest battery commanding the rebel works at the foot of the canal commenced on Wednesday night.

Gen. Schenck's official report shows that the repulse of the rebels at Point Pleasant, Western Virginia, was a brilliant little affair. Our force numbered 63 men. Of these 2 were killed, 3 wounded, and 6 taken prisoners, making our total loss 11. The rebels lost in killed, wounded and prisoners 72.

It is thought probable from official information that Gen. Foster was engaged in a fight with a large rebel force near Washington, N. C., about the 31st of March.

A dispatch from Gen. Hooker's army says a snow storm on Saturday night was very severe, and the roads are in a terrible condition.

The Richmond Dispatch, of April 3d, states that our troops had been landed on Seabrook or John's Island, near Charleston, while three gunboats and several transports were lying off the island. Skirmishing had already taken place between the pickets, ours advancing as the rebels' were driven in. The N. Y. Herald's dispatch of Monday says a report had reached Washington by way of Fredericksburg, derived from rebel sources, that Charleston was bombarded by our fleet and attacked by our land forces last Thursday, and is now in possession of the Federals under Gen. Hunter and Admiral Dupont. But Perley telegraphs to the Boston Journal that while it is not improbable that our troops have landed no official news of the result has been received by the Government, and it is not believed that any attack has yet been made upon the city.

Later dispatches, from Fortress Monroe, say the Charleston papers acknowledge that the attack upon that city had commenced, but contain nothing indicative of the progress made,—a reticence which would seem to authorize hopes of our success thus far. Both the army and the navy are engaged in the attack.

☞ The 15th Maine and 28th Conn. regiments seem to be implicated in the reported burning of Pensacola, Fla. A New Orleans letter says, for three days and nights the place was filled with smoke and flames. The officers tried to stop the work of destruction, but seemed to have no influence over the men. Even the men placed to guard the property set it on fire. Col. Dyer, commander of the post, was almost distracted, and gave orders to shoot persons caught setting fires, but no one executed them. Finally the long roll was beat, and the men got in the navy yard and confined.

"The royal plate on the Prince of Wales's breakfast table was of the value of ten millions of dollars!"—Exchange.

The newspapers do not name the material of which this royal plate was made. Gold is a material of great value, and ten millions in gold would weigh about 35 net tons. Making reasonable deductions for the cost of manufacturing and the fashion, this royal plate would be still too heavy for any ordinary power of belief. If the statement of the newspaper is true, the servants who placed and removed it, must have groaned a little if the tables did not.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says,—"It is singular fact, which shows that radicalism leads in the Democratic party not less than the Republican, that the Caucasian newspaper—which supplies the place of the Day Book and News of New York, which were suppressed by the government—is getting a wider circulation than almost any paper of its politics. We are informed that it has a larger circulation in this city than any other Democratic paper."

The Caucasian is a paper of one idea, and that idea intensely pro-slavery,—and it loses no opportunity to decry, disparage and villify the free negro, by any and all means, false or true. Its reported success shows the depth of mental and moral debasement into which a portion of the people can be sunk. U. T.

☞ Powdering the hair with diamond or gold dust is again becoming fashionable in New York city. At a soiree not many evenings since, a young lady, the daughter of wealthy and well known parents, appeared with at least one hundred and fifty dollars' worth of gold dust on her tastefully arranged hair—and this, too, when the premium on yellow specks was at fifty and thereabouts.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The number of convicts now in the N. H. State Prison is 107—a number which does not indicate a bad state of public morals in New Hampshire. The convicts are fully employed, the bulk of them upon household furniture under contract of Elwell & Son, whose orders exceed their ability to fill them.

—— An accomplice of the railroad thieves at Nashua brought in a lot of Shaker flannels, valued at $75, from Dunstable, Tuesday evening.

—— It is reported that additional leave of absence has been granted some of the Second Regiment. They are required to report at Concord at short intervals.

—— A few days since, a little girl in West Canaan, while playing with matches, sucked the phosphorous from some of them, and, being taken violently sick in consequence, soon after died.

—— Many of the dealers in Nashua have agreed to close their stores at dark every evening except Saturday, from April 1st to October 1st.

—— The Nashua Telegraph learns that several capitalists of that city are about organizing a new bank under the recent banking law of Congress.

—— Rev. Wm. H. Smith, who has been Pastor of the Free Will Baptist Church, in Gardiner, Me., has received and accepted a unanimous call to take charge of the Free Will Baptist Church in Rochester.

—— A child was born in Manchester a few days ago, having ten fingers and eleven toes. Its parents wishing to dispose of a small portion of them, a surgeon removed the surplus members.

☞ We learn by the Salisbury Villager that the Powow River Mills of Salisbury has sold out all its property, including one cotton factory with machinery, for the sum of $40,000, to the Salisbury Company! The latter Company now owns all the water power on the river from the "Landing" to Kingston, N. H., a distance of 10 miles, including a flowage territory, with dams and ponds of nearly 4000 acres. The Powow Company averaged annual dividends of 8 per cent. for ten years, up to the time of the cotton famine.

☞ It is said that some of the most distinguished engineers in France have approved a plan for a railway from Paris to Marseilles by which the journey, which now consumes eighteen hours, may be made in one hour and a half. The distance is 510 miles.—The plan has been submitted to the Emperor for his approbation. The hydraulic system in which sliding is substituted for running on wheels, is that proposed.

☞ At a whist table the other evening, the Post says, a spectator, noticing that a lady, who was one of the players, seemed unusually sober, remarked that, judging by her looks, she must be playing a losing game. "What!" said a witty gentleman present, "Must a lady always smile to be winning?" Neat—wasn't it?

☞ The Loyal National League of New York city, proposes an inaugural Mass Meeting in Union Square, in that city, on Saturday next, April 11, and invite the co-operation of Union Leagues throughout the country.

☞ The sugar season is backward. The weather has been so cold that but little had been made up to the 1st of April. The season will necessarily be short, but it is hoped it will be "brilliant."

☞ News from the Gulf states that yellow fever is assuming a malignant form in the extreme Southern States. In New Orleans the most rigid sanitary measures have been instituted as a preventive.

☞ The Portland Press states that the American Telegraph Company have appropriated $50,000 for putting up new wires east of New York, to accommodate their fast increasing business.

Hay and Potatoes. It is estimated that 800 tons of hay and 8000 bushels of potatoes, have been sent from Richmond, Me., to New Orleans and other places since last fall.

☞ Loring Josselyn was arrested in Portland on Saturday evening for passing counterfeit 5's on the Bristol County Bank, Taunton, Mass.

☞ The 10th N. H. Regiment has recently received four months' payment, to March 1, and the Portsmouth members sent home $2800 to their families.

☞ A little over seven thousand dollars has been secured with the precocious thief who decamped with the bag of $10,000 in gold from New York the other day.

☞ A young man out West says his aunt has promised him a deed of sixty acres of land if he will enlist. Indeed! she is a sixty-acre war-aunt.

☞ The wages of the operatives in a number of the mills at Westerly, R. I., have lately been increased.

☞ The book sales in New York are reported as very prosperous. Prices are good and buyers numerous.

☞ The U. S. steamship "Ascutney" was launched at Newburyport on Saturday.

FAST DAY PROCLAMATION.

BY GOV. BERRY.

In accordance with a religious custom, sanctioned by immemorial Christian usage and the profoundest religious sentiments of the human heart, responsive to the convictions of all who recognize their dependence on the Great Ruler of men and nations, I hereby appoint Thursday, the 16th day of April next, to be observed as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer throughout this State. And I hereby earnestly recommend the people of every religious denomination to assemble in their respective places of public worship, to offer supplication and homage to the beneficent Author of all our mercies.

Let us, with deep and sincere contrition, implore the blessing of Almighty God upon our commonwealth, and devoutly beseech him that those civil and religious institutions which have hitherto been our defence and our hope, may remain impaired to us and to our children.

Let us, with a profound sense of dependence upon the Ruler of the Universe for life, and health, and all things, humbly supplicate him to crown the year with his loving kindness and tender mercy—to give rain and sunshine in their season, that the earth may yield its increase, and the wants of every living thing be supplied.

Let us lift our hearts in praise and adoration, that in calamities wrath has been tempered with mercy; that while some portions of our national domain have been subjected to desolation and ruin, our own borders have been comparatively exempt from suffering, and that we are still vouchsafed those precious domestic comforts and religious privileges denied to so many, and of which we are so undeserving.

Let us invoke God's blessing upon our institutions of learning, benevolence and religion; and remembering that the highest intellectual culture is inadequate to save from degeneracy and crime, implore him to give religion greater prevalence and power among the people, and render the Gospel of his Son a more and more efficacious instrument in the suppression of intemperance, Sabbath-breaking, slavery, and every form of vice and sin.

And, solemnly impressed with the stupendous exigences of a distracted and bleeding country—deeply conscious that our help is in the name of the Lord—let us invoke his special favor upon the Chief Magistrate of the United States—his counselors, the army and navy, and all holding responsible stations of civil or military trust,—praying that enmity, secret and open, to our liberties may speedily cease; that the authority of the Government may be restored, the Union reestablished; and that the Nation, purified by its severe experience, may be preserved for the exalted destiny of a great, free and Christian people.

Three Women and two Men.—The Herald states that on Wednesday evening a little affair came off on Pleasant street, near the City Hall, Newburyport, between parties attending a ball, such as is not often witnessed there. A woman expressed her displeasure at the dancing of her husband in a "set," where appeared a woman not above the tongue of scandal. Soon after the wife left the hall; and also the other woman with her sister and a man. An altercation ensued on the street, in which clouds were rent violently asunder, and some of the persons may have seen stars. The man and two women proving too much for the lone wife, who was thrown to the ground, she used her scissors in self defence, stabbing one of the females over the eye and the man in the leg. Dr. Tilton was called to stop the bleeding; and fortunately or unfortunately all survive the shock. The case is to be heard before the Police Court.

☞ An intricate matrimonial squabble came before the Mayor of New York on Thursday for adjudication. Two men claimed one woman and two women claimed one man. All were Dutch. He gave it up in despair.

☞ A correspondent of the Montgomery Advertiser, writing from Richmond on the 23d ult., says that President Davis has been confined to his house for two weeks, and is a great sufferer. An abscess has been formed on his temple, next to his sound eye, and it is feared by his friends that he will lose the sight of that eye also.

☞ We have received a copy of the second edition of the "speech of Cassius M. Clay, before the Law Department of the University of Albany, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1863." It is a vigorous and hopeful plea for liberty and justice, condensed into a short address, and making a pamphlet of only 24 pages.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune says—"We have reason to believe that Mr. Chase has actually sold bonds to the amount of ten millions of dollars to foreign capitalists, and that the bills drawn against this purchase materially aided in squelching the recent gold speculation."

☞ The Confederate States steamer Natchez, which was burnt at Castlemans, on the Yazoo river, had 1300 bales of cotton on board. She was one of the best steamers in the Confederacy. The loss is heavy.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune's Washington dispatch says our relations with Great Britain are considered by those conversant with them as extremely delicate, John Bull is insolent when questioned about the pirate Alabama and other rebel vessels built in England.

☞ Since all the papers are quoting the old line about winter lingering, &c., we may as well put it down as nearly right as we can:

"Winter lingering, chills the lap of May."

☞ A letter from "Ion," our New Orleans correspondent, under date of March 24, contains the following items:—

Mr. Charles C. Gaines, formerly of Portsmouth, but for many years a merchant of New Orleans, is announced in the Mobile papers of Feb. 28th, as having died in that city the day previous, at the age of about 50 years.

Among the passengers on the McClellan on the 21st, were Col. A. J. Butler and lady. The Colonel takes with him the racehorses Panic and Ben West, purchased by him on the day previous at the U. S. Sequestation Commission.—Panic for $5500, Ben West for $3100.

We had quite a hail-storm this morning (24th) some of the stones that fell being as large as marbles.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub, and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any farther comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for women's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

Rye, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. Josiah Jenness.

Portsmouth, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. Swett's Panacea, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. Lowd.

From Elder I. Cressey, Lee, May 21, 1841.

Dr. Swett: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your Panacea and Humor Wash. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. Israel Cressey.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to Dr. S. Swett, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

LODI MANUFACTURING CO.'S

POUDRETTE.

J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 1 Congress Block, has now on hand a large supply of this valuable manure. The price this year will be $1.70 per barrel, without regard to quantity, delivered at any wharf or depot in this city. ☞ A discount from this price to those who buy to sell again.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

Wolfboro, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

Gents.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season come late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, respectfully,

ABEL HALEY,

Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

Local.

☞ Dispatches received in this city on Monday forenoon, brought glad tidings,—unfounded rumors it was feared by some; reports of a real, substantial victory for the Union it was hoped by all. They told of the capture of Charleston by the Union forces, and, although it was thus uncertain whether they were true or false, they awakened hopes that the great event of the war had really been accomplished. For, probably, the capture of no other city held by the rebels, not even of Richmond itself, would afford such deep gratification and arouse such intense enthusiasm among the people of the loyal North, as the capture of that where rebel guns were first turned against the life of the nation and the Government's rightful authority denied. The hope awakened manifested itself on every face; and, coupled with it, there was an apparent feverish anxiety for the good news to be confirmed.

☞ At an adjourned meeting of the Mercantile Library Association, held on Saturday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

President—C. Robinson, jr.
Vice President—W. E. Hadley.
Secretary—C. C. Melcher.
Librarian and Treasurer—E. W. Brown.
Trustee—Thomas E. Call.
Directors—J. C. Brown, T. S. Nowell, W. H. Siss, F. A. Fernald, N. P. Thacher, E. A. Stevens.

☞ The following Jurors have been drawn in Ward Three, to serve at the S. J. Court at Exeter, April 27:—J. W. Miller and Samuel Clark—petit jurors.

☞ Prof. Briggs, who will give a humorous and dramatic elocutionary entertainment at the Temple on Wednesday evening, April 15, is highly spoken of by the press in all the cities which he has visited, which have been many. The Boston Journal, in speaking of his readings in that city, says:—

Prof. Briggs fully justified the reputation he has won at Bowdoin. The classical power and chaste humor, his readings evinced, gained him much applause. In flexibility and management of the voice, purity of tone, and sympathy with the sentiments of the author, he is excellent.

Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody delivered the last of his course of lectures upon Natural Religion, at Lowell Institute, last evening, the subject being the adaptation of christian doctrine and christian ethics to the religion of nature. His principal theme was the Sabbath and its necessity to the life and comfort of man and beast. This institution, with the Decalogue and Baptism, had been preserved in the christian dispensation, for they were of the religion of nature, while Leviticus and its accompanying traditions were cast away. He closed with a brief review of the separate heads of his lectures, all of which have been deeply interesting and instructive, that of last evening being extremely practical in its character, and eloquent and impressive in its language.—Boston Transcript.

A BALLAD OF NANTUCKET.

"Where go you, pretty Maggie,
Where go you in the rain?"
"I go to ask the sailors
Who rowed the Spanish main.

If they have seen my Willie,
If he'll come back to me—
It is so sad to have him
A sailing on the sea!"

"O, Maggie, pretty Maggie,
Turn back to yonder town;
Your Willie's in the ocean,
A hundred fathoms down!

His hair is turned to sea kelp,
His eyes are changed to stones,
And twice two pearls and nutritious
The coral round his bones!

The blossoms and the clover
Shall bloom and bloom again,
But never shall your lover
Come o'er the Spanish main!"

But Maggie never heeded,
For mournfully said she:
"It is so sad to have him
A sailing on the sea!"

She left me in the darkness:
I heard the sea-gulls screech,
And burly winds were growling
With breakers on the beach!

The bells of old Nantucket,
What touching things they said,
When Maggie lay a sleeping
With lilies round her head!

The parson preached a sermon,
And prayed and preached again—
But she had gone to Willie
Across the Spanish main!

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE

PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT.
For Physicians' Use.
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

WE REFER TO

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.

The following are twelve good reasons why every family should have a Wringer:—

1st It will save time, which is money.
2d It will save strength, which cannot be bought.
3d. It will save the Clothes, which cost money.
4th Any man, boy or girl, can use it, who could not wring clothes by hand.
5th. It helps to wash the clothes, and by running them a new time through the Machine, out of not suds, it will clean them as well as half the washing machines in use.
6th. It removes the water by direct pressure on the clothes, instead of the usual twist, which must strain and injure the fabric.
7th. Window Curtains passed through it will wring as much and square, thus avoiding a source of vexation arising from the usual mode of twisting them out of shape.
8th. Woolen goods may be wrung out of hot water without injury to the rubber, or the least tendency to felting the cloth.
9th. Clothes passed through it will dry in half the time usually required when wrung by hand.
10th. It can be used on any common tub or barrel, and moved from one to another in a minute.
11th. It does its work in less than one-fourth the time required by hand, and a great deal better.
12th. It helps to make the washing day more pleasant.

This Wringer has had immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now the universal "domestic institution." No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking: giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

We refer to the following individuals who have purchased the Model Cook:—

David Kimball, Thos. F. Burt, John T. French, Rev. Mr. Davies, Wm. Pettigrew, Capt. John Lewis, Jeremiah Rand, Mrs. Ann T. Perkins, James W. Jarvis, Francis C. Jarvis, Thos. L. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Darcy Eden, a well known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, for many years. Hundreds of those who have tried it speak effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has not been anything like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and All Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Strachan, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your Sarsaparilla. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your Sarsaparilla. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Philadelphia, Penn. Mag Co., N.Y.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome, defiling her face and spoiling her beauty. My friends urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which seem completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of cassinetts and jeans, of Newark, N. J.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsaparilla. I immediately began to get better instead of worse, as you told me I might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your Sarsaparilla."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Smith, Houston St., New York.

"Dr. Ayer. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores under the influence of your Sarsaparilla, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sarsaparilla, and I have employed it in my profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, every spring. I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The nearer I drove we had that dreadful disease visible, and the factors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your Sarsaparilla. Took two bottles, and stopped the Erysipelas. Together they cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Mohre, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family, for general debility, and for erysipelas, for the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in recommending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Stickler, Esq., the able editor of the Jeffersonian, Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until the whole countenance was one virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied caustic of silver and nitric acid, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering sores, and while he was asleep held his wrists back. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your Sarsaparilla, and applying the wash of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The entire cure was effected by twelve months ago, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Hon. Hiram Mond, of Mond, Missouri.

"I find your Sarsaparilla a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other. My patient, I be persuaded, is very doubtful to you for some of the best benefits we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, and a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"Dr. Ayer. My dear Sir: I have found your Sarsaparilla a valuable remedy in my practice, both in cases of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other treatment. I have cured a case of mercurial poisoning with more certainty of success, where a power ful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had contracted a loathsome disease, which, from the effects of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or skill he could have, until he tried the preserving use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and discouraging than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness,

are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Corruption, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Some cases require, however, in aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Dewees, of Philadelphia.

"I have found your Sarsaparilla an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, and Menorrhagia, depending on a scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when the case is properly treated, derive benefit."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your Sarsaparilla."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by the Ayer Sarsaparilla.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 Endicott STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœal Rheumatism, Gleet, Stricture, Strangury, Suppression, Inflammation of the bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, Urethral Swellings, and the many painful and dangerous symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the early symptoms of this fatal error produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Nervous Irritation, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for self-treatment, by writing description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail, inclose $2 for 12 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 Endicott STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the Uterus, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and relief and a cure given in a few days. No one is really certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon regains perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Cases of Women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

Of the VERY BEST QUALITY can be had at MOULTON & BLAISDELL'S.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and patent heater connected, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes entirely dispensed with, the fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, of a healthy and equable temperature of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnace, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great est amount of heat from an economical fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement on former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the economy the highest good for your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry P. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter then any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done in any contour—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept as fresh and sweet as a new saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in the details thereof, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET, }
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863. }

DR. GOODALL,

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had over 10 years in the use of teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the country, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the better class of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages. It is very light and easy to wear, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c., consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.
S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do in the best manner. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRASKELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. RENNEY, for particulars relative to extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth replaced with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is not pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, writing from Cole's Island, S. C., 9 miles from Charleston, Mar. 28th, states that the 100th N. Y. Regiment had landed and taken possession of that island, which is at the confluence of the Stono and Folly rivers, and connected with James Island by a causeway. On the 28th a scouting party went toward Charleston, obtaining excellent views of the rebel forts, batteries and forces. James Island is heavily fortified.

The movement on Thursday last on Seabrook's Island, near Charleston, appears to have been merely a skirmish between certain unorganized rebel scouts and a reconnoitering party of Union soldiers. The locality of the skirmish, however, denotes an important movement at hand.

☞ An Indiana Colonel, one of 14 officers just released by the rebels, states that on Thursday last he saw from his prison window in Richmond a great "bread" riot. About 3000 women armed with clubs, guns and stones, broke open the government and private stores, and took bread, clothing, &c. The militia failed to check the riot, and only when Jeff. Davis and other high officials made speeches to the infuriated women, promising them whatever they needed, did they become calm. The dispatch (from Baltimore) says the other released officers confirm the statement.

☞ Among some Southern items is the following important news:—

"The peace party of the South, headed by Henry S. Foote, Alexander Mosely, editor of the Richmond Whig, and others, are about to introduce a resolution on the subject which will probably pass the lower House of Congress before the adjournment. It is said that the course of the Richmond Enquirer is disapproved of by leading members of the Confederate Congress."

☞ A Port Royal letter of the 31st of March gives the particulars of the capture of the British blockade runner steamer Aries, a remarkably fast vessel, by the gunboat Stotip, Capt. Devens, Mch. 28th, going into Bull's Bay, near Charleston. She run aground, and was taken with all her crew, including the pilot, named Atkins, formerly of the steamer Marion. A part of her cargo was destroyed by her crew. She had already made one trip to Charleston. Capt. Devens says she has made thirteen knots an hour since he captured her.

☞ A Bermuda paper of Mar. 24th reports the arrival of the blockade runner Cornubia at St. George's from Wilmington, N. C., with cotton, tobacco and turpentine; also a schooner from the same place, with a similar cargo. The Cornubia was chased 9 hours on the passage, but was not seen by the blockaders.

☞ Municipal elections were held in Jefferson City and St. Louis, Mo., on Monday. In the former, the radicals elected their Mayor, Assessor, and 6 out of the 7 Councilmen. In the latter, Chauncey J. Filley, "Charcoal" or radical Emancipationist, was elected Mayor by about 2200 majority over Oliver D. Filley, "Claybank" or Blair Emancipationist, and about 1700 over Joseph O'Neil, "Copperhead." The Radicals will have a large majority in the Council.

☞ The amendment to the Massachusetts State Constitution, to annul the "Two Years Amendment," adopted in 1859, was voted upon on Monday by the people, but hardly any interest was exhibited in the matter. The vote of Boston was 996 for, and 732 against annulling the "Two Years Amendment." The whole vote of Roxbury, Chelsea, Charlestown and Cambridge was 548 yeas and 555 nays.

Returns from 44 towns show a majority of 657 in favor of a repeal, in a vote of about 6000. The amendment is undoubtedly repealed, though by a small majority.

Connecticut Election took place on Monday, and resulted in the success of the Union State, with Governor Buckingham at the head, by about 2300 majority.—Deming, Hubbard and Bradbury (Union) and English (Democrat) are elected to Congress. The Union men have 15 out of the 21 Senators, and a large majority in the House.

☞ The township elections in Indiana, on Monday, generally resulted in large gains for the unconditional Union ticket.—Detroit, Mich., was carried by the Democrats; and Sandusky, N. Y., by the Unionists.

☞ Partial returns from Michigan indicate the success of the Republican State ticket, by a majority over last fall's election.

☞ Orders have been issued by Gov. Yates, under authority of the War Department, to raise ten companies of infantry, for the purpose of guard and protection of the State of Illinois from hostile aggression, to serve for three years.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Charles Lewis, who was executed at Trenton, N. J., for the murder of James Rowand, jeweler, in Princeton on the night of Nov. 13, 1852, was understood to have been a native of Manchester. It is thought by many that he was the real murderer of Dr. Harvey Burdell in New York; according to his own story he was well acquainted with him and Mrs. Cunningham. His real name was Charles W. Simonds.—The people of Trenton refused to have his body buried, even in their Potter's field, so it was otherwise disposed of. He was coarse, brutal, vulgar, devilish to the last moment.

—— Two dogs, in Manchester, gave indications of being rabid last week. Perhaps they were only "mad" at the tax on dogs, but they fell victims to the attacks on themselves.

—— A thief, who stole a horse left standing in the street in Concord Mar. 24th, has just been caught at Ossipee. The horse, which was a valuable one, was found, but died soon after being discovered, in consequence of the merciless manner in which he had been driven.

—— Brig. Gen. Gilman Marston, formerly Colonel of the 2d Regiment, left on Monday evening for his command on the Rappahannock. He has been spending a few weeks in Exeter.

NATIONAL FAST.

PROCLAMATION BY PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

Whereas the Senate of the United States, devoutly recognizing the supreme authority and just government of Almighty God, in all the affairs of men and nations, has, by a resolution, requested the President to designate and set apart a day for National prayer and humiliation:—

And whereas it is the duty of Nations, as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truths announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord:—

And, inasmuch as we know that, by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subject to punishments and chastisements in this world, may we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war, which now desolates the land, may be but a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people? We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven. We have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand that preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us!

It behooves us, then, to humble ourselves before the offended Power, to confess our national sins, and pray for clemency and forgiveness.

Now, therefore, in compliance with the request, and fully concurring in the views of the Senate, I do, by this, my proclamation, designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of April, 1863, as a day of national humiliation, fasting and prayer. And I do hereby request all the people to abstain from their ordinary secular pursuits, and to unite at their several places of public worship and their respective homes, in keeping the day holy to the Lord, and devoted to the humble discharge of the religious duties proper to that solemn occasion.

All this being done in sincerity and truth let us then rest humbly in the hope authorized by the Divine teachings, that the united cry of the Nation will be heard on high and answered with blessings, no less than the pardon of our national sins, and restoration of our now divided and suffering country to its former happy condition of unity and peace.

Kissing.—Who gave the first kiss? Was it Adam? Was it Eve? At any rate kissing was one of the pleasures of Paradise, according to Lord Byron, who says:

"One remnant of Paradise still is on earth,
And Eden revives in the first kiss of love."

And Byron knew a good deal about kissing, whatever he may have known of Paradise. The different varieties of kissing are too numerous for convenient classification. The principal sorts, however, are the kiss of respect (on the hand), the kiss of love (on the cheeks or lips, according to the measure of the passion and the relation of the parties.) What sort of a kiss was it that Leicester placed upon the lips of Queen Bess and, which, according to a chronicle of the time, "She took right heartily?"—It was certainly a bold proceeding "before folks" considering who the parties were. However, the "Virgin Queen" might still be virgo virgissima in spite of a kiss.

The topic suggests a funny question: Was Hannah Moore ever kissed?—that is to say by a man, "a horrid man," as prudish ladies call everything that wears coat and trousers. It is impossible to conceive of such a thing! Imagination revolts at the idea! But only to think of her being kissed "on the sly," and in church-time! impossible! And yet Horace Smith says that on a certain occasion—

"Sidney Morgan was playing the organ,
While behind the vestry door
Horace Twiss was snatching a kiss
From the lips of Hannah Moore."

Oh! monstrous calumny!—N Y. Argus.

Grief knits two hearts in closer bonds than joy ever can; common sufferings are far stronger than common joys.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

New York, April 5th.

Dear Chronicle:—Great exertions are being made to force the Broadway Railroad Bill through the Legislature at Albany, and with lobbying and bribing, petitions and protests, the contest is becoming quite exciting. All owners and residents along the proposed route are against the bill, tending as it does to the depreciation of their real estate. Stewart, though one of the protestants, offers, if it must become a law, two millions for the privileges, and purposes to fix the fare at three cents—half the stage tax.

But there are a gang of politicians (not conservatives, probably!) who see in the franchise a golden mint from which they can replenish their own purses.

Their bill provides for a fare of five cents—which item alone will swindle the public out of two or three hundred thousand dollars annually. The proper way would be to give the charter to the city government, and let the corporation reap the benefits,—but that isn't the style of doing things in New York; 'twould interfere with two many private fortunes!

Whichever party wins will have a grand monopoly. But Broadway is not adapted to a horse railroad. Though often obstructed by the stages, yet a movement of six inches to one side or the other clears the way, while the cars, confined to an iron rail, will require a considerable distance before and in the rear, to render them of service.

On procession days, it will be necessary to discontinue the trips of the cars, thus depriving the public altogether of conveyance, whereas now-a-days, the stages can be "turned off" into the side streets and still afford, to those who desire, an opportunity for accelerated locomotion.

Besides, the white, gaily lettered stages are more ornamental to our great business mart than the low, dark-colored, dingy cars. The air within them is more pure, and their construction less favorable for a conversion into freight trains for the conveyance of oil cans, meat baskets and all classes of hard and soft ware.

Gen'l Butler addressed a crowded audience Thursday evening, in a strain not only acceptable to his fellow-partisans, but to the great mass of our intelligent conservative citizens. Butler, whenever he is thrown down, has a faculty, like the leaded pith-toys, of coming "right side up,"—but not always "with care." (Ask the New Orleans folks!)

Thomas Thumb, Esq., and better half, have held well attended levees, and exhibited all their mentionable and unmentionable presents to the inquisitive public, at Irving Hall for some weeks past. Those who didn't attend may be considered no better than the Mississippi rebels, inasmuch as they "cut" the levees!

In my last letter on "Aldrich's Poems," the line "Set of Tortoise," noting the divisions of the volume, should have been "Turquoise." There is nothing so slow as a tortoise about Aldrich, and a set of them would appear To Bad Advantage in his little gilt-edged poetical casket. Newington.

Bold and Successful Robbery.—On Wednesday night of last week, the house of Mr. Samuel Longfellow, of Hallowell, Me., was entered and robbed of money to the amount of $1,400 in bills on various banks, and two pieces of railroad scrip, of $1000 each; one issued by the City of Gardiner, and the other by the town of Brunswick. The thief, according to appearance, entered the front door, which was fastened on the inside by a button over the latch. Holes were bored through the door, and the button turned by a piece of wire or some other instrument used by burglars. A young man by the name of Wm. Hall, belonging in Bath, who was at the house of Mr. Longfellow the night of the robbery, was arrested on Thursday.—Mr. Hall, who appears to be a gentlemanly and intelligent young man, after quite a lengthy examination, was bound over in the sum of $3000. For want of bail, he was committed to jail at Augusta. The evidence against Hall was positive, although circumstantial.—Gazette.

Origin of the Term "Humbug."—This now common expression is a corruption of the word "Hamburgh," and originated in the following manner:—During a period when war prevailed on the Continent, so many false reports and lying bulletins were fabricated at Hamburgh, that at length, when any one would signify his disbelief of a statement, he would say: "You had that from Hamburgh;" and thus "That is Hamburgh," or humbug, became a common expression of incredulity.

☞ The London Times considers the Polish struggle virtually ended, but thinks the allied powers are justified in requiring that Poland shall have what is guaranteed by the treaty of Vienna. The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says it is rumored that, besides an amnesty, the Czar telegraphed to Napoleon that he will give Poland her autonomy and a liberal constitution.

☞ The Lehigh, the last of the nine Ericsson steamers known as the "Monitors," is almost completed, at Chester, Pa.

☞ Henry P. Shed, of Roxbury, Mass., late cashier of the Bank of Mutual Redemption, Boston, is alleged to be a defaulter to that Bank, to the amount of several thousand dollars. Restitution has been made so far as the loss has been ascertained, and Mr. Shed has left the vicinity to avoid arrest.

MONITOR CLOTHES WRINGER!

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SELF ADJUSTING MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

The pressure in this Machine is put on in putting it on the tub, and removed in taking from the tub, all at one operation, an arrangement which no other Wringer has. It has no rubber bands or thumb screws to take off and unscrew, which may be neglected and spoil the rollers.

It is perfectly SELF-ADJUSTING in every respect.

The many advantages of Wringers are too well known to need any farther comments. But we might add that it is almost the only successful labor-saving Machine invented for woman's use. In short, it saves labor, clothes, time and strength, and does the work better. It saves its cost in three months. It only needs a fair trial to convince one that the above is perfectly true.

☞ Call and examine. The money refunded if not perfectly satisfactory.

LODI MANUFACTURING CO.'S

POUDRETTE.

J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 1 Congress Block, has now on hand a large supply of this valuable manure. The price this year will be $1.70 per Barrel, without regard to quantity, delivered at any wharf or depot in this city. ☞ A discount from this price to those who buy to sell again.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

Wolfboro, N. H., Lake Winnipesogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

Gents.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,

ABEL HALEY,

Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

Local.

☞ At the regular annual Parish Meeting of St. John's Episcopal Church and Society, in this city, on Monday afternoon, it was voted to increase the salary of the rector, Rev. Mr. Davies, from $1250 to $1600.

☞ "Some folks say a nigger won't steal, but" some other people do say that a strange gentleman of color who practiced the consorial profession, &c., here for a few months, not long ago did shave several of his friends pretty close, and that his practice was so decidedly sharp that he made one of the cleanest cuts ever known in these parts. He told his customers he was going off to get married, and borrowed sums of money to a considerable amount, besides getting trunks, &c., sent to him on credit to make his journey with! Then telling his landlord (one of our shrewdest business men) that he was going to get an assistant to take the business for a while, he got a receipt for (but did not pay) his rent, and then sold out the shop! Notwithstanding the numerous inquires, it is now generally believed that James Wil(not)so'n be seen again in these parts.

"PHYSICIANS UNDISGUISED."—A writer who signs himself "L. S. D.," and says he is "a stranger living in this city, and your (our) friend,"—sends us a communication of 32 mortal fools-cap pages, with the above title. Of course it stands not the remotest chance of being examined even, much less published—for if the only means of closing the war were given in so long a document, we doubt if either the editors or readers of this Chronicle would ever discover it, unless informed beforehand. We are requested, if we don't publish, to "pass the article to some friendly editor"—which we shall be pleased to do on application, or to any other man, for the sight of such long-winded productions gives us the nightmare. But we don't believe any editor friendly to such long-drawn-out effusions, can be found in these parts, nor one who will "enter on his list of 'friends,' the man who needlessly" would inflict such work on him or his patrons.

☞ The Post Office in this city will hereafter be open until 8 o'clock P. M.

☞ Messrs. Gould & Lincoln, of Boston, have announced for publication—"Geographical Studies," translated from the German of Carl Ritter, by Rev. W. L. Gage. With a sketch of the author's life and a portrait.

Rev. S. Haven Hilliard preached his first sermon in Grace Church, Temple street, Boston, which was opened as a free church Sunday afternoon. There was a large congregation present, and the services were of an interesting character, including remarks by Rev. Mr Spear, formerly assistant minister, and an address to the young and enterprising pastor and his people, by the venerable Rev. Dr. Burroughs. —Transcript.

☞ A notorious secessionist named Williamson, formerly an Attorney General of Maryland, was arrested on Monday in New York, while on his way from Canada to Richmond. On searching his baggage, a large number of letters were found, showing conclusively that he was in correspondence with the rebels, and involving prominent parties in New York and Baltimore. He was sent to Fort Lafayette.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest! The Best! The Cheapest!

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!
THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eldes, a well-known merchant of Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect, and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has not been a medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Boston, of Baltimore, Md.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal efficacy of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her eyes, ears, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane R. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Huntsville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome, nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Cogan, Esq., of the widely-known firm of Cogan, Murray & Co., manufacturers of counsellor papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome tumor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any other whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. I immediately made my face worse, as you told me I might, for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face was as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptom of the tumor that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Gould, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER: Feeling full to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, I now feel it my duty to bear testimony to its profundam as a remedy, to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wabash, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas in my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could hear of, and hundreds of dollars worth of medicine. The sleeves were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and healthy as anybody. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Stabler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face and neck, and threatened his eyes for some days. A skillful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For three weeks we had grounded his hopes, and with them he should tear away the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. We had tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and we well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any child. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Shaw, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a most efficacious remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for those affections which are the result of Mercurial Disease."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lancaster, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER, My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, and other disorders of the blood and skin, and in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more confidence of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, and was so lame he could hardly move and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the perpetual use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA healed them. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by a vitiated state of the circulation, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, the aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Reed Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from a vitiated state of blood, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unform sale with remedies of a character so simple, that he astonished himself, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Seminal Weakness, Nightly Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate victim for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, etc. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotine, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon No 7 & 9 Endicott street, Boston, Mass., continues to cure all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressed or painful menstruation, or derangement in any way, and other troublesome complaints, in the speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield almost from the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cures of females of all ages and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledged no superior in the United States.

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. above, upon all difficult and delicate diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imparts and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large roomy Reservoir for hot water, also a large ventilating-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The draft is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks without stopping, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove; as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings, to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, which is diffused throughout and purifies the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some using little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases have rather than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air below the fire-pots, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large quantity of unoxidized gas, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

The Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Hendum, Henry J. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. It can be worn to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the required thickness, be enabled to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. It is so bad taste art is in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. The teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had twenty years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.
Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he is still prepared to put in sets of teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the United States, and is prepared to do all work on RUBBER, or the other base of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c., consequently teeth can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber, by Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their teeth to insert teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.
S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. BLAKEWELL, Dr. BLACKMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. ROBERTS, for professional references in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiten and preserved from injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All Wounds and parts of Teeth replaced with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sore Legs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them a speedy and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part, I am led to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sured of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected application, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, APRIL 9, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A steamer from New Orleans Mar. 29th, reports two successful expeditions. One to a point on the west side of the Mississippi, half way between Port Hudson and Fort Coupec, burned the rebel steamer Hope, with 600 barrels molasses, and at Hermitage Landing destroyed 1600 barrels molasses, a rebel machine shop, and a grassary containing 15,000 bushels corn, besides several buildings, including the Post office.—The other occupied Ponchatoula after some skirmishing, and destroyed the railroad bridge, two miles beyond, after the rebels had been driven from it. The bridge was 500 feet long. A large amount of flour, tobacco and other stores fell into our hands. Our forces occupy Ponchatoula, Springfield and Pass Manchee. A dispatch, stating that the rebels had begun to evacuate Port Hudson, was placed on board after the steamer left New Orleans.

Texas advices, through rebel sources, say that Magruder has issued an order granting permission to transport cotton to the Mexican frontier. He says it is impossible to sustain his army without purchasing with cotton supplies brought from foreign countries.

Advices from Gen. Quimby's expedition to Mar. 30th state that no progress had been made in the reduction of Fort Greenwood. Our forces were still in front of the enemy, and there had been considerable skirmishing between the pickets on shore. The rebels were strengthening their works.

Two important expeditions have been sent out near Vicksburg. It is probable that the Yazoo Pass expedition has not been wholly abandoned. The ram Switzerland has been repaired and sent up the Red river. An expedition of gunboats went up the Yazoo on the 1st.

Gen. Curtis reports that Maj. Pangrom, of the 6th Kansas, has destroyed Hicks' band of guerrillas in Jackson county, Mo., killing seventeen and hanging two, engaged in the robbery of the steamer Sam Gaty. He also recovered some of the contrabands, and captured 21 of the bushwhackers' horses and 7 guerilla camps, with all their equipage and ammunition.

Gen. Lee is now pushing forward all his troops in anticipation of an immediate attack from us.

The N. Y. Post learns that Gen. Foster, with a brigade, a regiment of N. C. troops and some others, was virtually surrounded by rebels at Little Washington, N. C., April 4th. Heavy firing was heard from Wednesday night to Friday night, but nothing definite is known. He had a fort and entrenchments, with sufficient ammunition and provisions, but large reinforcements, in wooden gunboats below, could not pass the rebel batteries on Tar river between Newbern and Little Washington.

A Washington dispatch says it is officially known that the U. S. fleet of gunboats and ironclads left Port Royal on Wednesday last, and would probably reach the scene of operations Thursday evening.—And a dispatch from Gen. Hooker's army says the rebels opposite seem to have news unfavorable to their cause, and are unusually careful to prevent any of their papers from getting into our lines.

Private letters have been received from Commander John Rogers, second in command under Admiral Du Pont, and also from Gen. Hunter to his relatives dated Friday last, fully corroborating the rebel accounts of the landing of our forces on St. John's Island and the withdrawal of the enemy's pickets. They speak in the most sanguine manner of the contemplated movement.

Our vessels at Charleston have had chains hung at their sides, to protect their machinery. Adm. Dupont was expected on the 1st, when the bombardment would commence. Up to 1 o'clock Wednesday, the government had received no information regarding events there. But it is believed at Washington that the rebels have received advices which they will not make known.

☞ Major Cilley, 1st Maine cavalry, who was so severely wounded in Virginia as to be incapacitated for duty in the field, is detailed as Judge Advocate at the Central Guard House, Washington.

☞ Buffaloes have been lately shot within sixty miles of St. Paul's, Minn. The Indian massacres have rendered the region so uninhabited, that bisons, wolves, &c., roam freely where they have not before been seen for years.

☞ The first national bank in Massachusetts under the new law was organized in Springfield on Saturday. Capital $150,000.

☞ Commander Colvocoresses had been detached from the storeship Supply and ordered to the command of sloop Saratoga.

☞ Gold sold in New York on Wednesday as low as 144 1-2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mrs. Betsy Price, of Amherst, whose age is 77, has during the last six months wove on a hand loom, 73 yards of woolen cloth; spun, doubled, and twisted the yarn and knit seven pairs of men's feetings; spun 77 skeins of seven knots each of woolen warp; made 68 army blouses; milked and took care of her cow, going up a common barn ladder to get her hay. Is it necessary to add that she is hale and hearty and apparently good for 20 years more of active life?

—— Three little children, 7, 5, and 3 years old respectively, were left alone at home in Manchester by their mother on Monday afternoon, and the clothes of the youngest child took fire, burning it so badly as to endanger its life. The oldest, with great presence of mind, poured on cold water and took off the clothes, at great risk to herself and seriously burning her own hands.

—— An unoccupied steam mill, once used for the manufacture of doors, &c., and a saw mill near by, both owned by Aaron Marden, of Holliston, Mass., on Hollis St. Nashua, together with the roof of a stone engine room, were consumed by fire on Tuesday afternoon. It is supposed to have been set. $3000 will probably cover the loss on buildings. About $4000 worth of machinery was rendered worthless. The engine also suffered severely. Francis Hill of Nashua, loses $1000 in machinery. No insurance so far as can be ascertained.

—— The dwelling house, carriage house, and grainery of Winthrop T. Prescott and William Freeze in Deerfield, were totally destroyed by fire on Saturday, the 4th inst. Nearly all of the furniture, all the provisions, including thirty bushels of rye, and some of the occupants' clothing were burned.

—— The 9th N. H. regiment left Newport News, March 25th, and arrived at Lexington, Ky., on the 30th. It is uncertain where the 9th will "bring up."

—— The Nashua Police had their annual supper at the Indian Head Hotel on Friday evening, with their ladies and a few invited guests.

DOVER AND WINNIPISSEOGEE RAILROAD. This corporation was organized Mar. 28, by the choice of the following Directors: William Hale, William Hill, John McDuffie, Samual A. Walker, Edward C. Bates, Andrew Peirce, Jr., George M. Herring. The design of this corporation is to purchase the Cocheco Railroad; and by its charter it has the right to discontinue any part of this road, which it will do, we suppose, if it finds it necessary for the successful prosecution of its business.—Dover Enquirer.

It will be seen by the above statement that there is likely to be an open competition between the Eastern, and Boston and and Maine Railroads, for the lease of the Dover and Winnipissoogee Railroad.—Should the Eastern Railroad succeed, the Boston and Maine would be cut off from all communication with the lake and White Mountains, by taking up the rails from Dover to Rochester.—Boston Journal.

ELECTIONS.—Returns for Governor from every town in Connecticut, except Hampton, give Buckingham 38,304, Seymour 35,836; Buckingham's majority will be 2500. The Senate stands 14 Union, 7 Democratic; and the House 139 Union, 94 Democratic, with 2 towns a tie. For Congress, Deming, Brandegee and Hubbard, Union, and English, Democrat, are elected.

At the municipal election in Portland, Me., on Tuesday a Republican Mayor and city officers were elected by an increased majority over last year. The election was strongly contested on National grounds alone. The Argus, on election day said that the democratic candidate for Mayor "has been, we think unjustly, represented as an extreme Southern sympathizer, and as such, no doubt, will be richly abused by the abolition Press of this city." The same paper said. "We ask candid, thinking men, if it is not time to speak to the administration through the ballot-box in tones not to be misunderstood. Let Portland speak to the administration against the abolitionism which threatens to ruin the country. We are sure that every voter will feel the importance of making his influence felt and will do it." On the next day the Argus said:—

"The whole vote thrown is an increase on that of last year by about five hundred, while the abolition candidate [for Mayor] obtains a majority increased by some eighty votes over the majority of last year. In addition to the Mayor, the abolitionists elect their whole ward tickets in all the wards except the fourth."

☞ The collector, appraisers, and superintendent of the mint in San Francisco have, it is said, been superceded, on account of official misconduct, and new appointments have been made.

The cotton loan of the Confederates is already at a premium of 3 1-2 per cent in England. The promoters are Schroeder & Co. of London; Ehnlanger & Co. of Paris, notwithstanding the absolute denial of the New York Herald; and Fraser, Trenholm & Co. of Liverpool, the well known Charleston house, who have a branch at Nassau and one in Pine street, New York. It was put out at ninety per centum, payable in Cotton at sixpence per lb., and bearing 7 per cent interest.—Com. Bulletin.

☞ The latest talk is that Henry P. Shed has gone to Europe, taking with him a woman not his wife.

CUTTING OUT SHIPS.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin of April 4, makes the following valuable suggestions on this subject:—

In looking over naval history, we have been somewhat astonished that so few cutting out expeditions have been undertaken during the rebellion. Considering the general aptitude of our seamen for boating, and the numerous chances for making descents upon the Southern coast, we cannot account for the inactivity of our naval commanders upon any other hypothesis than instructions from Washington. Many seamen and officers now in our Navy have been trained in whalers, and are consequently masters of boating, and bold from frequent exposure to danger. Our few cutting out expeditions have also been attended with sufficient success to warrant others—why, therefore, have they not been undertaken? The principal objection to such forays is the liability to loss of life, and the difficulty of procuring seamen to fill the places of the slain; but this objection was just as applicable to the past as the present. War cannot be carried to a successful issue without loss of life, neither can an enemy be conquered if any means to bring him to terms are neglected.

We have often boasted that, considering our means, we are superior to the British at sea, yet British naval history abounds in incidents of desperate cutting out expeditions, many of which reflected lasting honor upon those who participated in them. Frigates, fully manned and protected by strong batteries, have been cut out by open boats, hundreds of miles of hostile coasts have been kept in a state of continual alarm, thus compelling the enemy to distribute a large military force in broken detachments to guard them.

We think it, therefore, the duty of our Navy Department to issue orders to the officers of our blockading squadrons to seize every opportunity to harass the enemy at all available points. We have no doubt there are men to-day in our Navy, who, if furnished with roving commissions, would spread terror along the coasts. Let them pursue on land the same course as the pirates follow at sea, that is burn and destroy every species of property within their reach, and when they find themselves opposed by force, retreat to their ships.

Why have no attempts been made to penetrate Mobile, Savannah, Charleston and Wilmington, to destroy the blockade runners? Stronger ports than any of them have been entered again and again with success. Let some such policy as we have indicated be pursued, and the rebels will realize what the destruction of private property means and will be less jubilant over the piracies of their British allies, the 290, alias Alabama, and the Oreto, alias Florida. In a military point of view, such expeditions would be of great value, because it would weaken the enemy, by compelling him to spread his forces over a vast extent of territory.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the New York Post says that during the interview between the President and the Committee upon the Conduct of the War, some members urged the recal of Mr. Adams, and the dismissal of Lord Lyons, in case the British government shall not put an immediate stop to the rebel operations under the shelter of her flag.

☞ The Natchez (Miss.) Courier advertises a concert for the benefit of the Jefferson Artillery, to which the "admission is one dollar—or two pairs of socks or gloves, socks preferred."

☞ The N. Y. Tribune says a defalcation of $60,000 or $80,000 has been discovered in one of the city banks, and the guilty parties discharged without prosecution. The defalcation was effected by the substitution of greenbacks for gold, the profit on the transaction being the premium on the gold.

☞ An addition to the Naval Hospital at Chelsea, of 86 by 70, is about to be made, which will give accommodations to 200 more inmates.

What five names in the Bible represent a child going to get a whipping? Adam, Seth Eve, Cain Abel.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS. We congratulate all lovers of true organ music and sustained harmonies upon the advent of this new instrument, so admirably adapted to meet their requirements, and so greatly superior to the ordinary melodeon. It will be seen, by the advertisement of Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, that their cabinet organs have elicited the unqualified approval of the most eminent organists and musicians of New York, Boston, and other cities, by whom they are pronounced "the best of their class of which we have knowledge."

THE ERA OF GREAT EVENTS.—Real Benefits to Humanity.—This is an era of magnificent projects; but, among them all, there are comparatively few which have for their aim and object the best interests of humanity. New methods of expediting business are continually being introduced, but what do they add to the happiness or comfort of mankind? Nothing. One mind, with all its powers directed to the amelioration of suffering, has accomplished more for the real good of the race than all the inventors engaged in the attempt to abridge time and space can ever achieve. We allude to THOMAS HOLLOWAY, whose PILLS and OINTMENT may be said to be omnipresent throughout the world. The Pills are working such wonders in cases of confirmed dyspepsia, that physicians everywhere are compelled to prescribe them, and the time is not distant when, for all diseases of the stomach and bowels, they will be the only preparation which any intelligent individual will dare to use. Millions of dollars have been expended in making Dr. Holloway's medicines known; and they are known in every land where there is a written language. In this country they are especially appreciated, for there is scarcely a complaint incident to our climate for which they are not absolute specifics. Under such circumstances, the enormous and ever-increasing demand for them ceases to be extraordinary, although it has no parallel in medical history.—N. Y. Courier.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE.—Mr. Speer, an enthusiastic horticulturist in New Jersey, has a very excellent wine made from the juice of cultivated Portugal Sambucus. The best judges pronounce it superb. It is said to have been adopted by the New York Hospital, and by physicians generally, as a very superior wine, and held in high estimation for its medical properties. It is also recommended by many medical gentlemen as invaluable for female weakness and general debility. We touched it to our lips somewhat unwillingly, but were agreeably disappointed in finding one of the most delicious wines we have ever tasted. We hope that our leading physicians will test the virtues of this wine.—N. Y. Times.

PAUL the Apostle speaks of Luke as the "beloved physician," and few endear themselves to us more than those who like "ministering angels," bring us the healing balm in sickness. So it is with medicines that cure; though we never see the maker, yet we get a feeling of regard for him through them. How many have reason to bless Dr. Ayer for his invaluable remedies, so cheap and yet so effectual! What public benefactors better deserve esteem than those who rescue the body from disease and premature decay?—Exchange.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use such an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crop. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next spring that I had this year.

Yours, respectfully,

ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

Purify the Blood.

NOT a few of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none have been found which could equal in effect AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the stagnant blood. Extraordinary virtues are not yet widely known, but when they are known no longer be a question what remedy to employ in the severe variety of suffering, diseases that require an alterative remedy. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now for the first time the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit certificates to show its effects.—But the trial of the medicine will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken. Sufferers from Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Tumors, will know and see the rapidity with which it cures. Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, &c., are soon cleared out of the system.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c., should not be borne while they can be so speedily cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are generally soon cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. Price $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5.

For all the purposes of a family physic, take AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, which are everywhere known to be the best purgative that is offered to the public. Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by PRESTON, and all good Druggists. 2maf
